MANY CATTLE BEING SHIPPED FROM MIDLAND

D. M. McLemore, from Oakland, California, is shipping twelve carloads of fine beef cattle to the Davis Horse and Cattle Co., Sacramento, California, today. The cattle were brought out from Harney county. Aside from what were shipped, they drove 2,150 steers from Harney county to graze in Klamath county and to be shipped later. The others they left at the B. K. Ranch near Bly. Mr. Kimsey says the reason they brought this large band to Klamath county to winter was that the alfalfa hay grown here contained the proper food proportions to make the cattle fatten in a short time. Then, too, the winters here are milder than in Harney county. It took them five days to drive the herd this far. He also says he prefers Midland as a shipping point because of non-interference of traffic. Then, too, the corrals in Midland are the best in the country, even better than those in Klamath Falls.

The following are here in Midland helping with the shipping: J. B. Kimsey, and sons Charles and Monroe, of Klamath Falls; A. M. Harris, of Burns, Ore.; Charles Schmidt, of Portland, Ore.; and Bob Yaddock, of Willows, California.
