

SANTA CLAUS VISITING VIRTUOS AT UNDERWOOD'S

"Santa Claus has arrived in this city and should anyone doubt it, let them see Kris Kringle and his brethren, on top of the showcases in the Underwood Pharmacy," said a small boy today who stood looking at the clever Christmas decorations which were on display.

Clever impersonations of Santa Claus driving his reindeer over snow fields, also arriving in two airplanes, are placed in vantage points over the holiday offerings. The smiles the artist has placed on the faces of each Santa, are especially benign. The two airplanes are well constructed models of the army type used in the world war.
