

PERSONAL MENTION

F. B. Mitchell and R. Banet were county seat business visitors yesterday from the Klamath Agency. Fred Lewis, of San Francisco, arrived here on last night's train and will look after business affairs for the next few days. E. V. Parker and Van B. Waller are city visitors from Sacramento this week-end. Arthur J. Mugg and Thomas A. Walker arrived last night from Portland and are stopping over here for a few days. Edgar Johnson is a Klamath Falls business visitor today from Medford. Al. Culbard, representing the Lindley Oil company, is here for a few days from San Francisco. L. F. Ivanhoe and family arrived yesterday evening from Chiloquin and are visiting here. J. D. O'Connor, an extensive sheep owner of this county was a visitor in town yesterday. He said that the rain would be good for the sheep if the freeze, which was bound to follow, wasn't too hard. Chester Avery was among the few farmers who braved the weather yesterday to attend to business matters in town. Mr. Avery has a large ranch on the Merrill road. Jesse Siemens was here yesterday from Fort Klamath transacting business with local merchants. J. W. Depuy, a well known Midland rancher, spent yesterday in town purchasing supplies. C. M. Kirkpatrick, of Merrill, made a flying trip to the county seat yesterday. J. Schatz and wife are guests at the Arcade hotel today from Santa Barbara, California. George Calhoun, manager of the Savoy hotel at Weed, California, is a Klamath Falls business visitor. He is stopping at the Arcade hotel. Will Campbell made a trip into town yesterday through the driving rain from his ranch in Lorella, for the purpose of transacting urgent business. M. A. Whitby was in from the Merrill way yesterday after supplies for his ranch. J. W. Morman, who operates a ranch in the valley south of town came in for supplies yesterday. William Hagelstein, cashier of the bank at Dorris, left for that city this morning after a day spent here looking after business affairs. Muriel Folsom arrived last night and is registered at the White Pelican hotel from Juneau, Alaska. W. F. Ryder, and L. L. Ryder are business visitors here this week from Texas. They are stopping at the White Pelican hotel. Thomas H. Nepp, of the California-Oregon Power company, is in town from Medford today, having arrived on the train last night. B. K. Snyder is here for a few days looking after business affairs from his home in Lakeview. Mrs. Anderson and son, Ray Bruce, of Algona left on the train from here this morning for San Francisco, where they will visit for an indefinite time. The Music Club will meet tonight at 8 o'clock in the Hall hotel annex. And it is urgent that all members, who can, be present. Sam Trainor, a real old-timer of this vicinity, is back after a long absence spent in California. Mr. Trainor was deputy in the clerk's office here during Judge Leavitt's reign as county clerk in 1888. Miss Constance Fisher has returned from Portland where she spent several days as the guest of Mrs. Stanley C. E. Smith. Miss Fisher also acted as maid of honor for Miss Idamal Brown at her wedding to Stanley Ellis Smith last week. Rev. C. F. Trimble, who had planned a trip to Seattle for this week, has been detained here and will hold services as usual in the Christian Church on Sunday.

CANDY GUESSING CONTEST
In the window of the "Bluebird" on Main street, there is a stick of candy that is attracting considerable attention. It is just like the old-fashioned barber pole sticks of peppermint with which youngsters have regaled themselves for years. But this one is a mammoth affair and a prize is offered to the one who comes nearest to guessing the weight.

MAONS-SPECIAL MEETING
All members of Klamath Lodge 77, A. F. & A. M. are requested to be present tonight in the Masonic Temple, 409 Main at 7:30 o'clock for special work in the Master Mason degree. All Master Maons and visiting brothers requested to be present. By Order of the Worshipful Master, W. C. Van Emon. Lem. L. Gaghagen, Sec.
