

SOCIETY

Tuesday evening of last week the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley C. E. Smith in Portland, was the scene of an attractive wedding ceremony, when Miss Idamal Brown became the bride of Charles Ellis Smith. The affair took place at 8:30 o'clock, Dr. A. A. Morrison of Trinity Church reading the service. Miss Constance Fisher, of Klamath Falls, was the maid of honor, and Theodore Smart of Seattle acted as best man to the bridegroom. Judith Smith, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley C. E. Smith, and Marjorie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Smith were flower girls, while Elliott Smith acted as ring bearer. The bride is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Brown, of Klamath Falls, and is well known in this vicinity having attended high school here. Mr. Smith is well known in Portland, and he is a member of an old established family of Oregon. At present he is affiliated with the Shaw-Bertram lumber company. After a honeymoon tour through the southern part of California and Mexico, the young people will return to Klamath Falls where they will make their future home. They will be at home to their friends the latter part of March.

The F. O. P. club an organization of high school boys who are members of the Presbyterian church entertained with a duck supper on Wednesday evening in the parlors of the church. There were a few invited guests aside from the regular club members, and an interesting evening was enjoyed. The meal was enhanced to a great extent by speeches, toasts and songs.

On Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Herbert D. Newell entertained at a delightful dinner party in celebration of their wedding anniversary. The color scheme of red and white was artistically carried out in the table decorations and menu. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. P. Albertson, Mrs. Golden Lincoln, Mr. W. S. Wiley, Miss Loretta Jennings, Master Herbert Newell, Jr., the host and hostess.

Mrs. Margaret Pitts entertained on Tuesday afternoon for Mesdames E. E. Magee, R. E. Smith, N. Otterbein and J. J. Parker. The afternoon was spent in sewing and conversation. At 5 o'clock a delicious luncheon was served.

To be selected by one of the leading French composers to interpret some of his latest compositions before the London Chamber Music Society, has been the good fortune of Miss Harriet Pasmore, contralto, who is now in Paris.

In a letter to friends Miss Pasmore says: "Mr. Louis Aubert, noted French composer, has chosen me to interpret his 'Poeme Arabes' in a festival of modern French music to be given in London, Nov. 29th by the London Chamber Music Society. I can hardly believe my good fortune to be chosen by the composer who had his choice of many well-known French artists. He characterized me in his letter to the Chamber Music Society as an 'interprete remarquable', and to me he wrote the day after our first rehearsal, 'I was ravished by your interpretations yesterday!'"

Miss Pasmore has assumed the name of "Radiana Pasmor" and humorously says she is convinced that it is contributing to her "run of good luck."

Many of Klamath Falls' music lovers were privileged to hear Miss Pasmore's glorious voice a little over a year ago, and they may congratulate themselves on having listened to one who is taking her place among the great singers.

Two church bazaars were in progress yesterday and today when the ladies of the Methodist and Presbyterian churches exhibited their Xmas wares for sale in the chamber of commerce rooms and in the parlors of the Presbyterian church. An attractive Japanese tea booth was presided over at the church by Mrs. Charles Collier on Friday afternoon. And today a luncheon and tea were served by the Methodist ladies.

A lovely dance on Friday night was that at the White Pelican hotel sponsored by the University club, with the high school students as their guests. Cards were provided in the sun room of the hotel for guests who preferred them to dancing. A dance with the ladies wearing hairbows of crepe paper and the men wearing ties of the same material, was the feature of the evening. Everybody matched college pennants for partners for this feature dance. Lunch was served throughout the evening by the committee in charge.

Mrs. Wilbur Jones and Mrs. A. L. Leavitt were hostesses for the Matrons club of Aloah chapter of the Eastern Star, at the Baldwin hotel Friday afternoon. A pleasant time was passed at the close of which plumb pudding and coffee were served by the hostess.

Mrs. J. C. Brockebrough was hostess Wednesday for a number of friends who were in for auction bridge. Mrs. W. W. McNealy won high score for the afternoon. The guest list follows: Mesdames H. W. Bridgford, C. B. Brown, Percy Burke, Andrew M. Collier, G. B. Cozad, John Enders, P. A. Albertson, H. I. Hibbert, Louis Hoagland, E. D. Lamb, E. T. Ludden, Harry Gallagher, Horace Manning, E. B. Hall, H. N. Moe, W. W. McNealy, Charles L. Moore, E. H. Pike, F. U. Patrick, L. G. Van Hellen, Bert Witherow, Earl Whitlock, Glenn Wimberly and Miss Marie McMillan.

Harry Peltz and Miss Elitha Humphrey entertained at dinner on Saturday night at Miss Humphrey's home. Those present were: Misses Elitha Humphrey, Joan McDonald, Alice Hansen, Bertha Peltz, Waive Witherow, Elmer Robertson, Harry Peltz, Kenneth Maier, Cecil Humphrey and Lynn Ferguson.

ELKS PUBLIC MEMORIAL SUNDAY

MRS. MARY WILHELM
Pittsburg, Pa.

"No matter what I should say about Tanlac, it wouldn't be half good enough," said Mrs. Mary Wilhelm, 716 Mint Way, South Side, Pittsburg, Pa.
"I never dreamed it possible for a medicine to restore me to the splendid health I now enjoy. In fact, I had almost resigned myself to being an invalid, as I could see I was losing weight and strength every day, and no relief was in sight. For three years stomach trouble, headaches and nervousness made my life miserable. The first bottle of Tanlac acted almost like magic and it wasn't long until I was so well and strong that I could hardly realize I had ever known a sick day. I am like a different person in every way now, eating, sleeping, feeling and looking better than in years."
Tanlac and Tanlac Vegetable Pills are sold by druggists everywhere.
