'TWOULD BE EASY When the twinkling stars I spy leading round the azure sky, I think I'd no more to do than that, that I could sparkle, too.

John Fountain says most of us are glad that we lived in the old days when you could kiss a girl and not taste anything but girl.

"Explain to them that a calf grows strong and healthy by drinking milk," advises the N. Y. Dairymen's League. Which taking into consideration the present shortage in skirts, should be very welcome information to those too generously endowed by nature in this direction.

Frank Freytag says another good thing about gumbichewing is that you can learn it in a few easy lessons at home.

A man who is not loyal to his family should not be trusted in anything else of importance.

Herb Hauger says after the trip is over, a man realizes those "No hunting" signs were correct.

ANOTHER SAD STORY Old Jim Moore, unlucky sort of scout, drank home brew, it blew him inside out.

So today they hauled his frame away. Dropped it tenderly beneath the clay. Then they wrote an epitaph for him. Well, here's what they said of Jim: "Here lies the body of Jim Moore. He drank home brew that had a kick. The brew he drank was quite impure. It blew him up, a darn mean trick." M. J. Richmond, Ky.

GOD BLESS THE "Y" A mud-spattered dough-boy slouched into the "Y" but where an entertainment was in progress and slumped into front seat. Firm, kindly, and efficient, a Y. M. C. A. man approached him, saying, "Sorry, buddy, but the entire front section is reserved for officers."

"All right," he drawled, "But the one I just got back from wasn't."

COMPILING RECORDS

"You must have been walking carelessly," said the lady whose car had run down a man. "I'm very careful. I've been driving seven years."

"Lady, that's nothing; I've been walking for fifty-four years."

Billy Dezell says there are so many people looking for work you can hardly locate one of them when you want your wood sawed.

"We'll see when the time comes," and he means that he isn't going to do a thing about it.

DEEDS ARE MALES AND WORDS FEMALES

says an old proverb. But we notice the men always have the deeds made out in their wife's names.

OBSERVATIONS OF THE OLDEST INHABITANT

I kin remember when every little crossroads town had a livery stable that was the parking place for all the bums of the community.

NEGLECTING THAT COLD OR COUGH?

LETTING the old cough or cold drag on, or the new one develop seriously, is folly, especially when at your druggists, you can get such a proved and successful remedy as Dr. King's New Discovery. No drugs, just good medicine that relieves quickly.

For over fifty years, a standard remedy for coughs, colds and grippe. Eases croup also. Loosens up the phlegm, quiets the croupy cough, stimulates the bowels, thus relieving the congestion. All druggists, 60c.

WAKE UP CLEAR HEADED. That "fired out" feeling mornings is due to constipation. Dr. King's Pills act mildly, stir up the liver and bring a healthy bowel action. All druggists, 75c.

BIG DOUBLE BILL AT THE STRAND TONIGHT

At the Strand tonight there will be presented one of the most attractive programs ever seen at that theatre. The book by Zane Grey, "Desert Gold," is known the world over and is conceded to be the author's best work. In its presentation, if anything, it is more entrancing and thrilling, for every scene has been worked out on the desert and the original surroundings, which the author used in his book, even to the local characters. Add to this the fact that an all star cast was taken to the Colorado desert when the picture was in the making and a new idea may be gathered of the completeness of the production.

Two big vaudeville acts are also scheduled. Bud Boyd who in his peculiar line is said to be without a peer, appears in the "Official Dispenser of the Home Brewers Association," a clever satire on the Vaudeville act. Mohler and Faytelle in a black and tan novelty of singing, talking and dancing, promise a bright spot in this exceptional double bill.

Tomorrow night will be "Country Store Night," and those who have given in their names at the box office throughout the week should be on hand for the prizes are awarded only to those who are present to receive them when the names are drawn.

RED CROSS SEALS HELP TUBERCULOSIS CRUSADE

The fourteenth annual sale of Christmas Seals by the Oregon Tuberculosis Association opened Thursday, December 1st, and will continue until Christmas Eve. Never before has the entire state been so thoroughly organized for a large and successful sale as it is this year.

The little Christmas stickers, for use on holiday packages and letters, sell for a penny apiece and not only help dress up the season's greetings, but furnish a fund through which that most dreaded of all diseases, tuberculosis, is fought by legislative, educational, preventive and relief measures.

STORMY SESSION OF DAIRYMEN'S LEAGUE

PORTLAND, Dec. 7.—Members of the Oregon Dairymen's Co-operative league held an animated discussion yesterday over the proposed liquidation suggested by the directors. After the morning session, at which the debate was sharp and many personalities were indulged in, the outcome of the vote was problematical, although many of the speakers declared themselves in favor of continuing the organization.

PEARL OIL KEROSENE HEAT AND LIGHT

STANDARD OIL COMPANY (California)

PEARL OIL

MISS FRANCES NEWMAN, Chicago, Ill.

"Only a medicine of truly wonderful merit could have done what Tanlac did for me and there is nothing half good enough for me to say about it," said Miss Frances Newman, 2635 Hirsch St., Chicago.

"I don't think anybody ever suffered any more from indigestion than I did and for over a year I was in wretched health. I had smothering spells and my heart palpitated so violently I thought I had heart trouble, but I know now it was all caused from my stomach.

"Since taking Tanlac I feel and look like a different person. I have a splendid appetite and my digestion is just perfect. I sleep eight or nine hours every night and get up in the morning feeling fresh and happy. My friends tell me I'm always smiling now and I certainly ought to be, for I'm enjoying life again."

Tanlac and Tanlac Vegetable Pills are sold by druggists everywhere.

REUNION OF BLIND MOTHER AND HER BROOD

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 7.—Obstacle after obstacle seemed to make it unlikely that Mrs. Esther Abrams, 80 years old and nearly blind, would ever again hear the voices of children she had not listened to for thirty-five years, but the reunion finally came when she arrived here recently from Russia.

With her came a son, Joseph, his wife and three little girls, and Mrs. Abrams' daughter, Ida, whose persistent appeals, she said, got Joseph out of prison where he had been confined for violating the bolshevik rule against taking money out of the country.

Every few months there was a different government in the Ukraine and each one more oppressive, according to Sol Abrams, of Hayward, California, one of the

GERMAN COMMERCE AGAIN INVADING CHINA

LONDON, Dec. 7.—The Germans are gradually returning to China and picking up the threads of their former business; not trading for the present under their own names, but in partnership with Chinese, says a report on the commercial situation of China, by H. H. Fox, commercial counselor of the British legation in Peking.

German dyes and paints, needles, metals, dugs and sundries are beginning to appear on the Shanghai market, the report goes on, and it is stated that several important orders for machinery and electric plants have recently been booked by German firms.

SHORTAGE OF ICE HAS HIT ICELAND

Strange as it may seem, Iceland has run short of ice, and urgent re-

QUESTIONS FOR SHIPMENTS OF THAT COMMODITY WERE SENT TO NORWAY A FEW MONTHS AGO.

Herring fishing, Iceland's principal industry, is in grave danger, as ice is required for packing the fish, which are exported in large quantities. This ice shortage was caused by an extraordinarily mild winter.

"Desert Gold" is courage in the saddle, and romance in the heart of Youth. It is the story of fighting Dick Gale who rode into the jaws of Hell for a girl; a story of loyalty and riches; of revenge and retribution; of gigantic action! It is the most compelling picture of this year and all the other years you can remember. It is breath-taking. It thrills you like an electric battery. It is built according to a new pattern; by a new imagination; under a new system of production. It is "not in the same street with any other picture." "Desert Gold" is more than the greatest Zane Grey picture ever produced. It has the vitality and remarkable force and imagination of Benjamin B. Hampton, a new producing genius, plus the personal supervision of Zane Grey himself.
