PERSONAL MENTION

Mrs. Robert Davis has returned from Wenatchee, Washington, where she has been visiting her parents. She left this morning for her home in Swan lake valley, where the Davis brothers have large timber interests.

Mrs. D. L. Stevens, of Ashland, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Ada Conrad, for a few days. Mrs. Stevens is accompanied by her son, Master Don.

Mr. and Mrs. George McCollum have moved into town for the winter from the McCollum mill.

Captain O. C. Applegate has returned from the Klamath Agency where he spent nearly a week clearing up matters for Modoc war veterans. Sunday the Captain expects to leave for Jacksonville to be with his sister.

Recent arrivals at the Arcade are: A. Spencer, of Kanloops, B. C.; E. T. Lacy, Dunsmuir; F. W. Jordan, Sisson; A. C. Stockton, of Red Bluff, and A. H. Wright, of Portland.

Roy Kelley left yesterday morning for Spokane in answer to a telegram telling of the sudden serious illness of his mother.

Mrs. H. R. Crane was in town yesterday doing Christmas shopping from her home in Chiloquin.

Miss Edith Lamm, accompanied by her mother, spent yesterday in Klamath Falls shopping.

Roy Nelson was a county seat visitor yesterday from the Nelson ranch near Worden.

Dave Lenox was a passenger on the morning train bound for Roseburg, where he will spend several months. Mr. Lenox, who was in business here for several years, has been looking after business interests for the past month in and about Klamath Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Hilpert, who arrived the first of the week from their home in Bend, left on this morning's train for Santa Cruz.

Olive Myers of Bly is visiting here this week-end. F. F. McCready is looking after matters of legal business in the county seat today from his home at Chiloquin.

Jerry M. Carter and J. Shauneay, ranchers in the Bonanza district, are business visitors here today.

Joe S. Hall of Modoc Point arrived here last night and will spend today in transacting business with local merchants.

Ruby Wilcox is a Klamath Falls week-end visitor from Medford, having arrived on last night's train.

The Houston-Fitz orchestra left by car this afternoon for Fort Klamath where they are playing for the Wood River folks tonight.

Ivan Pankey and Mr. and Mrs. Lenze are county seat visitors here today from Yainax.

FIGHT FANS PACK McDONALD'S HALL TO SEE FIGHTERS McDonald's Hall yesterday afternoon was packed with interested spectators, who were attracted by the coming boxing show tomorrow evening, and desired to see for themselves what class of attraction would be offered for their amusement.

By 2 o'clock when Fighting Sharkey, of Medford, started in working out, many had to elbow their way through the packed mass of people to get even a view of the big pugilist.

Sharkey bears all the earmarks of a man who has been in the fighting game for years. However, as his ears have missed the usual bruising sufficient to escape the "cauliflower stage," his appearance seemed to please the fans. When they saw him step over to the punching bag and play a tattoo on it, they were fully convinced that he was the original package of fighting material which his friends advanced before he came here.

When he stepped into the ring and sparred, that convinced them that the battle of the year would take place tomorrow evening. Ritchie's peculiar fighting style is well known here, and the fans have been speculating since yesterday just which way the decision will go, and the boys say that they will at-

Among the reasons a man gives for not purchasing a piano this Christmas are: We can't afford it, it won't hurt to let the children wait another year, we haven't room, and I would rather have a new car.

You may not know that we have pianos with very low first payments or ten to fifteen per cent, and terms of eight dollars a month.

But anyway you look at it parents who are so selfish that they will not make sacrifices for the good of their children and homes are more numerous than you would suppose.

George Watt, of the Klamath Live Stock association, left this morning for San Francisco where he will be occupied for the next few days with business affairs.

A. H. Emoler, H. H. Waight and Thomas H. Maguire are all registered at the White Pelican hotel from Portland today.

G. T. Fischer is a business visitor in this city from San Francisco, having arrived on last night's train. J. F. McAllister is here for a few days from his cattle ranch near Fort Klamath for the purpose of looking after matters of legal business.

"It's a toss up; he hanged if I know," was the expression used yesterday. The business element of the city have been in attendance during the week, and yesterday about 100 members prominent in local circles were present, most of whom announced their intention of being on hand at 9:30 o'clock sharp tomorrow evening.

Men who work by the day also say that they will be there, as this 24 rounds of entertainment is placed at the price which they can afford to spend for entertainment, general admission being $1.10. "It's the right price and as long as there is none of that $3 and $5 stuff to get in. We want amusement, but we are not making a fortune, neither can we pay high prices to witness amusements. It's the first real workingman's price that has been offered, and we will take advantage of the offer," a number of box factory workers say.

First Match 9:30 The box office opens at the hall at 7:30 o'clock, but reservations for tickets can be made today or tomorrow morning by telephoning 331-J. Promoter McDonald announces the first preliminary between "Tuffy" Anderson and Kid Biehn at 9:30 o'clock sharp.

ROCK SPUR MAN WINS HIS FIGHT

McNAMEE WAS ALMOST DOWN AND OUT BUT FEELS LIKE A NEW MAN NOW.

"I was about down and out when I started taking Tanlac and if it hadn't been for the way this medicine built me up I would have had to quit my job," said T. J. McNamee, of Rock Spur, Ore.

"I had no appetite and the little food I ate seemed to give me no strength at all and I finally got so weak I could hardly stand on my feet. What I needed was something to build me up and I am convinced that I got Tanlac just in time to keep me from going down and out."

"I felt myself getting new life and energy from every dose of Tanlac and I am feeling like a new man now. In fact, I never felt better in my life."

Tanlac and Tanlac Vegetable Pills are sold by druggists everywhere.
