

The Office Cat

BY JUNIUM

It is reported that a woman gave a piece of her jawbone to repair her husband's broken leg. Jim Driscoll says if it will only keep still long enough to knit with the other bone, all will be well.

One of the boys has contributed the following verse libre:

STEWED

My skin is all bloated; It wrinkles, it sags; I'm stewed to the limit— The last of my jags; My heart is as gay As a song bird in June; I feel no remorse— For I'm mostly a prune.

JAGLET'S SOLILOQUY

To drive or not to drive, that is the question. Whether 'tis saner in a man to hike it, Or to plunge into a sea of automobiles And go joy-riding end himself. To drive, perchance to speed And in that speed what fines may come When we have shuffled up to motor court. Must give us pause!

Solomon had 700 wives, so he had to be wise.

Joe the Plodder says that some people's credit is so low they can't even get a battery charged.

LIFE AS I SEE IT

Yes, you can occasionally get something for nothing but even on that basis you generally lose.

Last year 6,000 autoists came to grief at grade crossings. The theory that an automobile can cross a railroad track at the same time the train is crossing the road should be pretty well exploded by this time.

The San Francisco mint is coining silver dollars at the rate of $680,000 a day. Shucks, we can use 'em that fast ourselves.

The professors who weighed the earth a few years ago, before the business depression set in, should weigh it again. There is a suspicion that it has lost.

Ted White ventures the opinion that the most terribly outraged person in the world is the man or woman who witnesses a poor screen production—on a pass.

When in doubt, it's a good plan to enrich the mixture before stepping on her tail, Ezra.

OH, SAD WORLD

The dust was blowing in his face. It raised the racer's ire. He yanked his bank to blow his nose— Instead he blew a tire.

NEWS OF THE PIPPOOP MOTORCYCLE CLUB

At the club's ice cream social the other night it was discovered that the committee had forgotten the serving tray. Nothing daunted, Buck Wheat removed the "dish" wheel from his sidecar and found that it worked as well as a tray. Only one patron of the affair was impolite enough to complain about his ice cream tasting like axle grease.

Judge Gagbagen says there are three things never hidden—love, a mountain, and one riding on a camel.

Thus the soothsayer: As a cushion which sheddeth its feathers, yea, even as a moulted dog which leapeth upon thee, so is a woman who continually asketh 'Why maketh thou love to me?' Verily, she understandeth not even a symptom of thy acts, however she nickers continually.

In their anecdoteage veteran aviators will go into a tale spin on the slightest provocation.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our heartfelt thanks to the any kind friends for their help and sympathy in the loss of our dear son and brother. Also for the many beautiful floral offerings. Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Miller and family.

LONE PINE

Estrin and Kenneth Kiger went to Klamath Agency Friday to play on the Merrill high school basketball team. In spite of the bad weather quite a number of Lone Pine folks attended the Chautauqua at Merrill last week. Clyde Bradley was out from town visiting old friends Sunday. Sam Enman has been quite sick, but is better. C. W. Lewis has been on the grand jury the past week.
