"LAVENDER AND OLD LACE"

From the great story by MYRTLE REED

With MARGUERITE SNOW, LOUIS BENNISON AND SEENA OWEN

Directed by LLOYD INGRAHAM

If 30,000,000 people read and endorse a book — it must be good!

And if a master-director assembles an all-artist cast and transfers that book to the screen, preserving intact all the qualities which made it a "best seller" — what's the answer?

Why, simply this: the picture must be good, too!

Well, the book in this particular instance is "Lavender and Old Lace," known and loved in every quarter of the globe.

Myrtle Reed's lovely story is universal in its appeal; your heart will beat faster, — your eye will dim with tears, — your face will wreath itself in smiles as you follow entranced each incident upon the silver-sheet.

Director Lloyd Ingraham, assisted by a truly remarkable cast which includes Seena Owen, Marguerite Snow and Louis Bennison, has created a production which is screen entertainment of the very highest order.
