MOURS OF RESERVOIR STANKING PARTIES, O'RECOMPUTE ORDER

Narrow Escape From Death Results From Sunday_ Night Crash

One man and two women were LEGION ELECTION bruised and badly shaken up, a light rig demolished, and two horses injured when a rig driven by M. l. Heavilin, of Orindale, containing Mrs. Edwards and Mrs. Gladysy Bis set, of this city, was struck by an Officers for Ensuing Year Will Be automobile driven by Chas. Meccum near the corner of Center and Main streets at 8 o'clock Sunday night.

According to Heavilin, he was re turning from Orindale which is about road, with Mrs. Edwards and Mrs. Bisset, who had been visiting relatives, when the car driven by Meccum traveling west on Main at high speed came around the angle formed where Center joins Main. Instead of keeping to the right, Heavilin said, the car careened over to the opposite side of the road and crashed into his rig. Heavilin and Mrs. Bisset were thrown to the pavement and Mrs. | urer, Roy Orem and Herman Wexler. Edwards was thrown over the hood of the car. The wheels of the rig ran over Heavilin, then the wheels of the car, which had turned completely around, and which was still moving, caught both him and Mrs Bisset and carried them some distance along the pavement.

the rig. ran away. One was caught by Heavilin a half-hour later but the other, a bay with a white strip on the face, remains at large.

Meccum was taken into custody by Officers McLoughlin and McDonald and is bold in Jail. Heavilin declares that Mecoum was under the influence of liquor at the time of the arcident and that only a miracle prevented one from being killed.

Annual Rush at Postoffice Does Not Start Until Today '

"The Klamath Falls public did not begin to mail its Christmas parcels the basketball season in this county. as early as it might have," said Postmaster W. A. Delzell today, in speaking of the sudden rush which really started for the first time today. So far this month the mails have been lighter than for several years, due to this late mailing spirit. despite the warnings and pleas sent out by the postal department, Another warning for the public was issued today by Postmaster Delzell when he said that a number of Christmas post cards. decorated with silver frosting, had been dropped into the boxes. This is strictly against postal regulations as the silver frost endangers the eyes of the clerks who handle them. The Postmaster General, too, has urged that people using the mads refrain from using small envelopes, as they cause extra trouble in handling.

"Taking packages as a whole this year we find them much better wrapped and tied than eves before." reported the postmester. "And we really feel that a bard taught lossen has at last been leafned."
