

We Wish Every Resident of the Merrill and Malin Country

And Everyone Else, as far as that goes

A MERRY CHRISTMAS

ON CHRISTMAS EVE, OUR BIG FORMAL OPENING, COME IN AND GET ACQUAINTED, AND GET YOUR CHRISTMAS GIFT. YOU WILL LIKE US. EVERYBODY DOES.

We have given you a drug store of which you may be proud—and we want you to give us your patronage. Our confidence in the future of this section is great enough to induce us to open up where others closed, and we believe you will reward us by buying what you need from us.

Don't buy a single, solitary thing that YOUR drug store carries, from any other place. Make your own section a success by saving your purchase for your Local Drug Store... Once again we wish you all a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

THE MERRILL DRUG STORE

The Office Cat

BY JUNIOR

HERE'S TO HIM!
Here's to the man whose hand
Is firm when he clasps your own
Like a grip of steel
That makes you feel
You're not in the world alone.

Here's to the man whose laugh
Puts the sombre clouds to rout
The man who's fair
And kind and square
To the one that's down and out.

Sleeping outdoors makes one beautiful, says a beauty expert. Oh, see the pretty policemen!

HAZ-Z-Z-Z HERRIES
Dear Office Cat: The other day friend wife hawled me out because I turned the fly off the road and let a maniac have it all. The wife insisted I had the right of way. So I am sending you this little poem in the hope that some other erring wife will see it:

Here lies the body of William Jay,
Who died maintaining his right of way;
He was right, dead right, as he sped along,
But he's just as dead as if he'd been wrong.

REAL DISSIPATION
West: "What sort of a place for amusements is Middleburg?"
North: "Oh, great. There are two places to go—home and to bed!"

IT WAS MOVED AND RECORDED
Monday a year ago, fell on Sunday. Bank statement in Lima Ohio Times Democrat.
Sounds like someone had attended a Saturday night poker party which eliminated Sunday so they might go right on playing.

GETTING BY
Mr. Goodsole—"Well, what do you want?"
Benny the Bum—"I wanna know kin I borrow a red lantern off'n you? I find I gotta steep in the street tonight an' I'll hafta warn the traffic to drive aroun' me."

Mary Garden, actress lady, a beauty with natural bobbed hair and all that goes with the make up of a peach, says why should American girls with the prettiest feet and prettiest legs in the world give us short skirts. We agree heartily with Mary.

Briand says France will disarm if properly protected. Well, under those interesting conditions, who wouldn't?

"I simply detest people who are always blowing their own horn," remarked the Grouch.
"That so?" replied his friend. "I notice you blow yours pretty loudly at intersecting streets."

Rex LaPrairie says there's nothing new under the sun; but you can't say the same for the moon.

There are drivers of tractors and manipulators of gasoline engines who know much more about scattering fertilizer than about either driving or manipulating.

A FALL DITTY
The garden gate is now at rest.
As it were 'tis on the shelf
But the parlor sofa squeaks aloud
And the gas bill humps itself.

Ted White says he can't play billiards, but he sure can shoot a wicked stick at pool.

My Brow says you can't judge a chorus girl's voice by th' length uv her skirt.

DORRIS

DORRIS, Cal., Dec. 20.—Word was received yesterday from George Vance at Montague of the death of his father there. Mr. and Mrs. Vance were called to Montague last week by news of the serious illness of both of Mr. Vance's parents who are very old.

Gus Mansfield and family of Oklahoma were passengers on this morning's train for Yreka where they will spend a few days on business and pleasure.
The old time country dance held Saturday night at the K. of P. Hall in Dorris was a very realistic reproduction of the days of long ago. Old and young alike were in attendance from every corner of the valley. Old fashioned fiddlers took turns, and although somewhat rusty, a great variety of the ancient tunes were brought back and thoroughly enjoyed. Interspersed with the dancing were several unique and entertaining side issues consisting of practical jokes perpetrated upon various good natured "old timers" present. The kangaroo court was highly enjoyed also.

Friends are congratulating Mr. and Mrs. Walter Sinclair, who were quietly married Saturday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Wilson, of Dorris. The bride is one of the popular young ladies of the valley, having attended the local high school until recently. Mr. Sinclair is connected with the lumber industry here. They will make their home in Dorris.

W. G. Hagelstein and J. D. Waltz made a business trip to Tecnor on Friday of last week.

50,000 POUNDS OF TURKEYS TO BE SOLD IN S. F.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 20.—Fifty thousand pounds of fresh killed California turkeys will be sold in San Francisco through a free market for Christmas season distribution by the California Farm Bureau Federation. The bureau has notified Harry S. Maddox, state market director, that sixty thousand pounds of cold storage birds will be placed on sale by various concerns as a counter attraction to the fresh turkeys.

TRIANGLE FEATURE ON THE STRAND BILL TODAY

"The Maternal Spark," a Triangle feature, which is presented at the Strand tonight, is a wonderful story of the strength of mother love.

Howard Helms, to whom John J. Mills, railroad president, took a fancy, and brought from the little town of Pepperell, falls in love with Clarice Phillips, a "business vampire."

Mills, who is a frequent visitor at the Helms' home, sees Mrs. Helms is unhappy and learns that Howard leaves her alone at night, and that she feels she is losing him. Mills, who has worked this change in Helms' life, decides he is at fault and breaks Howard.

In the meantime, Mrs. Helms learns of the "other woman" and goes to see her, taking her son along. She plays on the spark of mother love which she believes lies in the bosom of every woman with the result that when Helms comes to his mistress' apartment he is driven from her, and back to his wife and child. The Helms then return to Pepperell to start life anew.

There will also be two new comedies and an act of vaudeville, the Lua Hawaiians, which made such a hit Saturday night. They will present an entirely new act and new music. The prices will remain the same—10 and 20 cents.

An inventor has patented a glass horn, said to improve the quality of phonograph music.
