ATTRACTIVE PROGRAM AT THE STRAND

Whenever J. Warren Kerrigan is billed in a screen production, the public take it for granted that it is a good one. In the production at the Strand tonight he is seen at his very best in "30,000". It is a swiftly moving comedy drama, with the vim, dash and thrilling adventures that always characterize a Kerrigan picture. The vaudeville is exceptionally good, presenting William Durant as Sing Hi in "Oriental Echoes", in which he introduces and gets the sweetest melodies out of Chinese instruments. And then there are "The Goldies" in a clever skit, "Apple Sauce." Both these acts made decided hits last night and the house was crowded. Capt. Sam Harris, who is one of "The Goldies," was an American Ace during the late unpleasantness with Germany, has a round dozen German planes to his credit and has been awarded the Distinguished Service Medal, the Victorian Cross, The Cross De Guerre, the Legion of Honor and other medals in recognition of his gallant services. It is "Country Store" night at The Strand, too, and among the numerous presents which Manager White will distribute tonight is a fine young turkey which tips the scales at 15
