YOUR GENERATION IS ENJOYING BOB-SLEDDING

Track! Track! Track! was the cry that assailed the ears of pedestrians on the streets in the vicinity of Fourth the last few evenings, as they dodged swift bobs and sleds piloted by the younger generation, who were in search of thrills and fun.

WILLIE COLLIER AT THE STRAND

William Collier, light comedy star, featured in "The Servant Question," a Select Picture, which will be shown at the Strand theatre tonight.

WILLIAM COLLIER IN "THE SERVANT QUESTION"

Collier as a bogus butler on the trail of a trio of diamond thieves, is said to be as amusing as Collier at his best on the stage. The photoplay is declared to be crammed full of laughs and calculated to make one forget that the cook just served notice. Of course Mr. Collier is most of the show, but the cast is just what one would desire, a lovely heroine, a villainous looking villain, and a good looking young man to play second fiddle to Mr. Collier.

In addition there will be two new comedies and the price of admission—10c and 20c.

FIFTY-FIFTY IS ARGOT FOR AN EQUAL DIVISION

"What's your opinion about the hypenated business?" "Oh, so long as nobody takes the hypen out of fifty-fifty I should worry."

A person who cant sing but will, ought to be muzzled, says Earl Shepherd.

After all, it isnt your needs that keep you broke. It is your wants.

The December 3rd issue of the Saturday Evening Post was designated the "Merrie Christmas" number. Next week will be the Fourth of July number.

The man who used to have his hair cut by his mother now has a son who has his finger nails cut by a flapper while the barber is shampooing his hair and the porter is shining his shoes.

When a cannibal woman won't do a thing, she wont, and no man can force her to change her mind," reports Mrs. H. F. Gilbert, a returned missionary from Africa. In which we fall to distinguish any great difference in habit from a whole lot of women hereabouts, although we number no known cannibals on our calling list.

A blotter absorbs everything and gives out nothing. Don't be a blotter.

A dress dispatch imparts the news that a well known banker on the Pacific coast would be a farmer if he had his life to live over again. What would you do? If you ask us—we'll, we'd like to be a pugilist so we could paste a couple guys we know in the jaw.

NEWS ITEM— at Dannemora State Hospital. It was reported today, the prisoner has so far recovered he is asked to be sent back to Sing Sing. Removal of the bullet has cured him of insanity. Some cure, we'll say.

LITTLE KNOWN FACTS OF HISTORY

Milton wrote "Paradise Regained" after his mother in law died.

THE FARMER

The farmer tills the stubborn soil From dawn till chilly eve. He breaks the clods for weary rods With many a heart-felt heave— He milks the cows at break of day And plows the corn and mows the hay.

He feeds the frisky pigs at dawn, And spades the frozen field. For garden sass and sassafras And other country yield. He cranks the Ford and hustles down To sell the chuck to folks in town.

The farmer breaks his bending back For sixteen hours each day. With mighty sweats he pays his debts And keeps the wolf away— He toils away in cold and heat For stuff for city folks to eat.

And when his bending back gives way And neighbors lay him out In his Sunday best, he'll get a rest— His first, beyond a doubt, In some Elysian, shining field Where town folks do not eat the yield.

This is Bring in your own wood week.

Of course there may be other viewpoints, but as a general thing it costs less to break an engagement than to get a divorce, gargles Doc. Westefeld.

The movement to have the boys write home oftener would make a bigger hit with dad if they could be persuaded to write occasionally without asking for money.

Hansen Crump wants the Office Cat to try to get Blackie McDonald to state a bout between Jack Dempsey and Mrs. Jiggs. We feel sure this bird bet on both Willard and Capentier and is anxious to see Dempsey put to sleep for keeps.

PUTTING REASON INTO SEASON

Cha ming girlsie deeked in fur Do brave the summer heat. But does it matter after all, So long as they look neat?

Silken hose in brave display, Enlook their pletty shins. But now they've added silk and wool To cheat the winter winds!

A leaf from Jim Driscoll's diary found on 5th St:

If every woman could do what she wished to do who would wash the dishes, asks Charlie Stone.

NEVER MIND; SPRINGS COMING

"On account of the cold weather Chilquin girls have been forced to abandon rolled stockings," writes a correspondent.
