

The Office Cat

BY JUNIUS

HIS IDEA OF IT

"I don't have to go to the movie theater to see a one-reel comedy."

People who dicker in second-hand automobiles have all the characteristics of the old-fashioned boys who traded horses, opines Roy Call.

His Excellency, the Christmas turkey, is also beginning to worry over getting the ax.

Why is it that a man never thinks of mending his ways until he finds that he is broke? asks Jim Driscoll.

The successful man, unlike the poet, is made, not born, says John Breit.

When a garage advertises "starting and lighting a specialty," seems they ought to go into the aeroplane business if they can start and light successfully.

What we can't understand is why men object to wearing knickerbockers. Look what they did to New York.

If you don't feel that you are able to patronize the exclusive firm of Turkey & Cranberry Sauce remember that the old reliable institution of Cornbeef and Cabbage and Porkchank & Beans are still conducting popular price sales says C. F. Werner.

Cold weather will make 'em roll up their socks quicker than any threats of arrest or going without dinner will do it.

A Pittsburgh hotel presented the council in that city with a bill for $3,019.97 for entertaining Marshal Foch. He was only in that city part of one day and did not stay overnight so he must have had all the hotel had to give.

From the number of people who bought records this Christmas Earl Shepperd thinks that they must have all gone on a musical drunk.

CITY HALL AXIOM
What does it profit a man to save the whole world, if he doesn't get on a payroll?

POME
Here lies the body of Ferdinand Kilek; Who drank T. N. T. To get a kick.

Fred Fleet says if the pen is mightier than the sword, why not call an international conference for disarming the penmen.
