

The Office Cat

BY JUNIUS

FALL POEM

Seen hot chestnuts on sale?
Heard the call of the quail?
Noticed football begin?
Seen the leaves getting thin?
Got an empty coal bin?

But then, of course, short skirts may still be necessary to clear the ladies of the Volsteadian suspicion of being boot-limiters.

And our observation is that as a general thing a uniformed chauffeur looks better pleased than the owner of the car.

Do you remember the days when there used to be "help wanted" signs in the shop windows?

Still, I can't see why it wouldn't be a good plan to make Liberty bonds a legal tender. They draw interest, while the Federal reserve notes are worth about sixty cents in actual cash on the dollar.

It might help some if a lot of rich fathers would hold a conference with their sons concerning unemployment

POEM

Beside the spreading billboard tree
The filling station stands;
Its hold upon the Nation's wealth Is strong as iron bands.

POSSIBLY HELPFUL

"This magazine says that whenever he has a scheme in view, he always communicates his intentions to his wife."

"That's a quick way of getting at the objections."

Probably the prettiest women in the world today are the kitcher queens in the magazine ads.

A. L. Wishard says a gifted public speaker can use a truly remarkable number of great words to express a very small thought.

Title Clinger says the reason sh-len't getting on very well with his new boss is because sometimes he is as grouchy at the office as he is at home.

MAN KNOWS BUT LITTLE HERE
HELLOW
From Fashion Notes
When the dressmaker told her husband that the customer said her new skirt did not come up to her expectations he was silent, but at first opportunity he consulted a dictionary.

To those who love modern art there is nothing like it. To those who don't this goes double.

ONE OF LOVE'S PROBLEMS
"I thank you for the flowers," she said, and then she smiled and dropped her head. "I'm sorry for the words I spoke last night—Your sending flowers proved that you were right—Forgive me!"

He forgave.
And as they walked and talked he neath the bowers.
He wondered hoo-inell had sent those flowers.

Saturday was the formal opening of the Merrill Drug company, and they were hosts during the day and evening. Sandwiches, coffee and ice cream were served during the lay. In the evening word was sent to the church for all to come for ice cream, and a second invitation was not needed, judging by the crowd that gathered. A tree was there, and the children were given nandy and presents, and there was something for the older ones also.
During the day some of Mr. Robinson's own compositions were played on "the Brunswick." We are to be congratulated upon having such an up-to-date store, and also efficient manager.

Mrs. John Wolfe is visiting here from her home in Los Molinos, Cal.
She is at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Chester Haskins.
Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Anderson went to the Falls Saturday to spend Christmas with Mr. and Ms. Chas.
Martin.
Santa Claus left a little daughter at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Haskins Saturday, December 24.
Mother and daughter are doing nicely.
Miss Louise Fessenden of Klamath Falls, spent Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Merritt.
Mr. Quisenberry of Los Angeles was in Merrill during the week.
Mr. Quisenberry is administrator of his aunt's estate, Mrs. Clinton Van Brimmer, who was a former resident of this section.

In the Presbyterian church Sunday new members were received into the church, and the services were conducted by Rev. Edgar. The Catholic church did not have services, some going to the Falls for church.

The Ladies' Aid will give a social at the Merrill hall Thursday. This is to be free.
Word has been received announcing the marriage of Miss Marjorie Sutherland and Richmond Wheeler at Berkeley December 21. Mr.
Wheeler is a brother of Mrs. G. H.
Carleton, and has visited Klamath county several times. Mr. and Mrs.
Wheeler will make their home in Berkeley.

MAHOGANY BARS TO
BE USED AS WOOD
FOR POOR PEOPLE
DETROIT, Mich., Dec. 28.—Dozens of mahogany, walnut and teakwood bars, tables and fixtures from saloons raided in the Detroit district since the advent of prohibition, a display of highly polished and costly wood valued at upwards of $300,000, may be chopped into firewood and distributed among Detroit's poor. Of these bars and tables, over which thousands of elbows have been crooked and that in years past have been made to glisten by constant application of towels in the hands of white aproned attendants may be converted into benches for august judges or into pulpits behind which clergymen will stand and voice the arguments for a saloonless world.
While state and city prohibition forces are making up their minds which course to pursue in disposal of the valuable store of wood, rats and mice are playing havoc with the bars and tables, that have been dumped in a heap near one of the city's police stations.
Under a state law prohibition officials confiscate the fixtures in any establishment found to be dispensing liquors. Lacking a place to store these articles the officials have piled them in a vacant place outdoors, thus creating what the police call the city's "mahogany dump." Judge William M. Heston of Recorder's court has decreed the collection be cut into fire wood and given to the poor. Others propose the water soaked pile be salvaged and that the wood be used to make pulpits and judges' benches.
For display purposes the wood is worth a fortune but for firewood it is no better than the more plebian varieties. City officials say that to cut the bars into stove wood would cost more than it would be worth for that purpose. Therefore the proposal of Judge Heston will not be put into effect, for a time, at least.

The electric railways of the United States carry more than 14,000,000-000 passengers annually; ten times as many as are carried by the steam railways.

Twenty-Five Years Ago in Linkville

WASHINGTON WOMAN HAD SUFFERED FOR YEARS AND WAS IN DEPLORABLE CONDITION

"I just can't begin to tell all the good Tanlac has done me; I feel and look like a different person since taking it," said Mrs. Anna Kanzeleiter, Omak, Wash.

"About five years ago my health began to fail. I lost my appetite and my stomach became so weak and upset that nothing agreed with us. My back hurt me like it would break in two and I would get so weak I would have to give up and go to bed. My neighbors had to come in and look after me at times, and I was as dependent and miserable as any person ever gets to be.

Tanlac has been a wonderful help to me in every way. I am so well and strong now I do all my housework without getting tired and am able to enjoy life again. Tanlac certainly has been worth its weight in gold to me."

Tanlac and Tanlac Vegetable Pills are sold by druggists everywhere.—Adv.

This Is a Good Story, Butt—

Clarence Goucher, of Bremerton, Wash., literally got the goat of the Pacific Fleet. "Battling Billy" was discharged from the U. S. battleship Texas because he treated officers too roughly. His new owner uses him as a sparring partner.
