

The Office Cat

BY JUNIUS

She pulled her ears and tweaked his nose. And sat upon his lap. And rumpled up his Sunday clothes— He didn't care a rap.

She rubbed her cheek upon his cheek. And smoothed his handsome locks. The while he sat, quite calm and meek. And fastened up her socks.

She did some things that were quite bad— My gosh, that girl was bold! But still she couldn't fuss her dad— She was but two years old!

Greetings folks! Have you finished paying for last year's Christmas presents yet?

"Do you know who's talking in there now?" demanded a stranger briskly, pausing for a moment beside the farmer on the meeting house steps. "Or are you just going in?" "No, sir; I've just come out," said the farmer decidedly. "Congressman Smiffkins is talking in there." "What about?" asked the stranger. "Well," continued the countryman, passing a knotted hand across his forehead, "He didn't say."

If the human race is as stupid as Thomas A. Edison thinks it is the case is practically hopeless. He says that no self-evident fact can be written so plainly that 2 per cent. of those who read it can understand it.

The shadow of "Fatty" Arbuckle no longer falls on screen or newspaper column. He has lost his place in the sun.

MARRYING FOR MONEY is reprehensible, but it is more commendable than the modern practice of marrying for variety.

JUST OUTSIDE THE DOOR AT THE STRAND TONIGHT

Besides two new comedies at the Strand tonight there will be presented an intense photo drama, in which Edith Hallor, said to be the most perfectly formed woman on the silver screen, sustains the title role. In "Just Outside the Door," full opportunity is given this talented actress for the display of the genius that has made her place in filmdom unassailable.

EDITH HALLOR in "JUST OUTSIDE THE DOOR." SELECT PICTURE.

"Just Outside the Door" is a pulsating drama of present day people and conditions. It contrasts the lives and thoughts of people of poverty and wealth, but without any of the melo-dramatic exaggerations that have become so familiar.
