

BERTON BRALEY'S DAILY POEM
AVE ATQUE VALE

GOODBYE, then 1921:
You were a good friend, in the main;
You brought a little more of fun,
And happiness, than woe and pain.
I don't think that we can complain
About the deal we got from you:
Goodbye—oh, here's your hat and cane!
Hello there, 1922!

We greet you very gladly, son:
Now that we've seen the old year wane,
We'll watch you wax. You have begun
In hopeful style; can you maintain
Your present pace without a strain?
If so there's much that you can do
Which in the past we've sought in vain—
Hello there, 1922!

PERHAPS you'll teach us how to shun
Grim wars that split the world in twain;
And by your magic may be spun
About the world a golden skein
Of love and peace. Ah, we are fain
To have a hope like that come true,
A hope that thrills the heart and brain
Hello there, 1922!

ENVOY
YOU come to bless and not to bane,
And how the old year's done and through,
We wish you luck throughout your reign—
Hello there, 1922!
