"Personally, I don't believe grocers ever put sand in their sugar."

"They don't have to around here," answered old Mr. Putterby.

"What with automobiles an' one thing an' another zippin' through higgerville from sunup to dark, all a groceryman's gotta do is to leave the cover off his sugar barrel an' let it accumulate."

Nate Oterboin says Darrin he hanged! The closest animal to man is the bed bug.

Saturday, payday; bath night (don't step on the soap and bust your complexion); get up early and go to Sunday School and church tomorrow. Atta Boy! Then you won't be ashamed to look at yourself in the glass. There's an old saw what says: "Every dog has his day," and adjust your spectacles and read this little story from Indianapolis."

The time was Saturday, 5:30 p. m., the place, a local movie house, the girl, a large robust middle aged woman.

Rushing up to one of the ushers in the foyer she excitedly cried: "Say, boy, I left my husband in here while I was shopping. Our car leaves in five minutes and he ain't out here. Don't want to buy a ticket, how can I get him?"

"We aren't allowed to page anyone," replied the usher, "but if you describe him perhaps I can find him."

The woman apparently did not hear a word he said.

"Do you care if I whistle for him?" she asked.

Thinking she was only joking he said: "Go to it."

Immediately shrill and wild whistle startled the quiet audience.

A meek little man sitting well toward the front jumped as though shot, bolted up the aisle, appeared in the foyer and meekly ran in the wake of the robust woman who was rapidly making tracks for the inter-urban station.

THE COWBOY'S MOTTO

"Life ain't in holdin' a good hand, but in playin' a pore hand well."

Plumbers are it on coppers—it's easier to wipe a joint than pull one.

NOT HIS BOSS
The judge was evidently getting a bit fed up with the jury, and at last he announced:
"I discharge this jury."
A tall, lean member of the twelve then rose.
"Say, judge, you can't discharge me."
"Can't discharge you? Why not?" thundered the other.
"Well," replied the jurymen, pointing to counsel for defense, "I was hired by that guy over there!"
The next day after John D. Stock-feller gave a little girl twenty cents after hearing her sing the price of gasoline went up a cent a gallon.

WOMAN LIVED ONLY ON MILK

MRS. LYNCH SUFFERED FOURTEEN YEARS FROM CASE OF STOMACH TROUBLE
"For fourteen years my life was just one unbroken period of misery on account of the awful suffering I endured from stomach trouble, but I believe I am the happiest woman in town now since Tanlac restored me to health," said Mrs. Francis E. Lynch, 6811 Sixteenth Ave., N. E. Seattle, Wash.

"I was confined to my bed for more than half the time, and although I tried everything under the sun I knew of or ever heard about, it was no use. I had forgotten what a good night's sleep was like, couldn't retain anything on my stomach, and I lived for weeks on nothing but milk."

"I have a splendid appetite now and eat things that for years I didn't dare to touch. I never have a trace of indigestion and am feeling just like a different person; such results as I have received from Tanlac are enough to make anybody happy."

Tanlac and Tanlac Vegetable Pills are sold by druggists everywhere.—Adv.

"Thank You"

This acknowledgment of a courtesy or service is somehow the satisfactory end of a transaction. Both parties are pleased and the relations of the moment, however unimportant, are more happily closed.

There is no occasion when an effort made for the comfort or convenience of others is not worth a "thank you."

In the daily routine of telephone operations, where the saving of time is the great consideration, the opportunity of expressing an appreciation of a service rendered seldom arises.

But remember that the telephone operator is human. Courtesy to her means more cheerfulness in her work. It will be reflected in your own self-satisfaction.
