JAP FISHERMEN WILL BE MAROONED ALL WINTER LONG

TOKIO, Dec. 15. (By Mail).-Resof the 40 fishermen left stranded Kamchatka when they missed the ally impossible this winter, acg to an announcement by Mr.

gom the natives. Boats have been sent out and wireless messages have been sent but the boats have been forced to veture without attaining their objects. Indignant at what they term "half hearted attempts" to rescut the 40 Japanese fishermen s group of Waseda students have join ed Lieutenant Shirase, widely known for his polar explorations, on outfitting an expedition which will start to the relief of the aufferers this week. Lieutenaut Shirase offered his services to the government when the plight of the marooned men was first known but no enthusiasm was shown by the authorities.

Two ships were sent to the rescuof the fishermen but both have re turned with the report that the ice of which Melvin T. Copeland is impassable. The government rescue parties added that it is probable there are native villages in the vicinity of the fishermen's camp and that they will most likely be provided for.

The marooned fishermen are be lieved to be at a point 63 degrees north and 172 west. Whether they are alive is a matter of conjecture according to Lieutenant Shirase, He has hope, however, that he will reach the men in time to save them from perishing.

The relief party hope to make the 1000 mile voyage from Hakodate with speed and to effect the rescue but with a view to emergencies, the ship is being provisioned for

WOMAN, 87, DEFEATS COLLEGE GRADUATES IN SPELLING BEE

BUCYRUS, O., Jan. 10 .- The lit tle red brick schoolhouse won a uni que victory over the modern up-todate school with its domestic science and vocational training, during ar old-fashioned spelling bee here. Mrs E. B. Pinley, 87 years old, defeating twenty-five graduates of high schooland colleges. The contest lasted more than three hours.

Five of Mrs. Finley's opponents were eliminated when the word "renaissance" was reached. After seven sen more rounds the word "virtigin ous" caused seven more to quit. The word "rendezvous" left only three.

This lineup lasted almost an hou and Mrs. Finley was entertaining fears of a draw when "fortissimo" saved the day, eliminating her two opponents. She became so excited over the "grand finale" however, that she missed the next word, "tubercul-
