PERSONAL MENTION

W. L. Brown, of Portland, representing a Portland music house, was a visitor today at the Earl Shepherd Music company's store.

Mrs. Will Houston and children returned last evening from Southern California, where they have been visiting relatives for the past three weeks.

Jeff W. Moorman was in town today on matters of business from his ranch in the valley. Mrs. Moorman has been ill for quite some time but is getting along nicely.

EGGS TUMBLE AGAIN

Portland Price Lowered Five Cents by Sale of Two Cars

PORTLAND, Jan. 12.—The egg market is still demoralized, and prices dropped five cents today. The Pacific Co-operative Poultry Producers association dumped two carloads of selects on the market, owing to lack of an outlet. The wholesale price of selects is 30 cents, representing a drop of 20 cents since January 1st. Livestock and butter remain steady.

ATTRACTIVE PROGRAM AT STRAND TONIGHT

There's a big bill on at the Strand theatre tonight, which besides presenting O'Neill & Neill in their decidedly clever vaudeville attraction, "A Bit of Everything," which includes monologues, singing and dancing. J. Warren Kerrigan will be seen in what is characterized as the strongest role in which he has appeared, "The House of Whispers." It is undoubtedly one of the finest pictures Kerrigan has produced in years, and is excellently adapted to his virile, romantic type. He is seen in the role of an adventure loving young clubman who undertakes to solve a baffling mystery which surrounds "The House of Whispers," an exclusive apartment house.

Then there is a laugh-provoking comedy and the "Country Store." Among the prizes to be given away tonight there is another "live baby" and a list which includes two chickens, three pounds chocolates, five pound pail lard, a bag of sugar, a sack of flour and other things.
