SAM ROSENTHAL TO LEAVE FOR SAN FRANCISCO

Sam Rosenthal of the Army Goods store will leave here the latter part of the month to engage in business in San Francisco. He will take over the general management of a large concern dealing in men's goods, in which he is also financially interested. His partner, Max Weiss, having taken over Rosenthal's interest in the Army Goods store, will continue the business here. Sam says he regrets leaving Klamath Falls, as the two boys have been unusually successful since they began doing business here a year ago, but the opportunities offered in a larger field, he feels, are too attractive for him to permit himself to yield to the lure of this section, to which he has become greatly attached.

The Music department of the Klamath County High School on Jan. 13 and 20, Thursday and Friday evenings, and Friday matinee will present the comic operetta "Bulbul", music by W. Rhy's Herbert, Libretto by Maad Elizabeth Ench.

Those who attended the performance last year of the Gypsy Rover, know that they have a musical treat in store for them, and those who did not hear that operetta, should not miss this one.

The boys costumes are from the Brookline Costume Shop, Seattle, Washington and those of the girls are being made especially for the operetta. No expense is being spared for costumes or stage settings. The students and Miss Applegate are working hard to give the public an excellent program.

The cast is as follows:

Lamit, A well meaning but fussy little monarch.....Delos Mills
Bulbul, His beautiful daughter.....Kather Calkins
Caspian, an amiable young prince.....Clifford Hogue
Ida, the court chaperon.....Josephine Meissner
Lilla, a friend of Bulbul.....Margaret Schubert
Alain, a friend of Caspian.....Kenneth Maier
Dossy, keeper of the royal scepter.....Robert Milam
Justo, keeper of the royal cash-box.....Chester Shriver

Special Chorus.

1. Maids of Honor, Martha Upp, Violet Gale, Bertha Feltz, Joan McDonald.

2. Friends of Caspian, Robert Goetz, Roger Montgomery, Harry Feltz, Wendell Smith.

3. House-maids, Gertrude Cofer, Bonita Kessie, Helen Loosley, Mildred Lewis, Vivian Elliott, Claudina Witt, Jo Upp, Gertrude Smith, Clara Cornish.

Chorus: Lords and Ladies of the court.

Admission 75 cents. Evenings, 50c.

Matinees, For twenty-five cents additional tickets may be reserved at Shepherd's Music Store.

The present cold weather and the beautiful moonlight nights have been a great encouragement to skaters.

Various skating parties have been given on the Upper Lake this week which were very well attended and successful affairs.

A BANK ACCOUNT

Is something that every person should own.
Be it large or small, it gives you prestige.

A man who deposits regularly, even though his business may be small, establishes an acquaintance with his bank that may be very valuable to him at some future date; he may not be as well fixed financially as the man who feels that a bank connection is unnecessary, but he is a member of the family and that entitles him to first consideration.

Take our advice and open an account with some good bank.

We would welcome you.
