All women's styles, my dears.
I'll guarantee they'd never change

J. T. Salmich says if the styles keep on growing more extreme we shall not be able to call the girls "skirts" any more.

Which means, we guess, that the poor old shimmy will have to go back to being just a common old unimportant garment again.

We read a lengthy article the other day, headed "How to Kill Rum." A description of the old fashioned and popular way of killing it would only take two words, "drink it."

Youngstown, Ohio, now has an official "cop sniffer" whose duty it is to get a whiff of all police breathes every four bells. Absence of a hotchpot aroma, giving place to cloves, onions, peppermint, or other modes of breath camouflage, will not be accepted as an alibi. It's got to be just plain breath or the cop gets the gate.

EDITOR'S "PSALM OF LIFE."

Tell me not in mournful numbers, that our merchant, are unwise, 'tis the business man that slumbers who will never advertise. Life is real, life is earnest, and if his is on the blink see that thou at once returnest to the use of printer's ink! Keen enjoyment and not sorrow will be galloping your way if you wait not till the morrow, but will advertise today. Art is long and time is fleeting, just be nifty and keep brave; if your rivals you'd be beating, make the "ad" your silent slave. In the world's broad field of battle be a "big gun" midst the strife; advertise and make things rattle—it will pay—you betcher life! Trust no future however pleasant;

DON'T YOU CALL ME A THIEF!! YOU'LL FIND YOUR BIG BUS AROUND THE CORNER WHERE I PUSHED IT!! WHAT IS THERE ABOUT A NO PARKING SIGN THAT LOOKS LIKE A JOKE TO YOU?

Take no chance of luck ahead; with no advertisement present, how can business be but dead? Lives of business men remind us we can have the luck they've had, if we'll have our nerve behind us and will place a little "ad." You should then be up and doing, if you're going to grab the cash. If your "ad" the world is viewing you will never go to smash!

SULPHUR BEST TO CLEAR UGLY, BROKEN OUT SKIN

Any breaking out or skin irritation on face, neck or body is overcome quickly by applying Menthosulphur, says a noted skin specialist. Because of its germ destroying properties, nothing has even been found to take the place of this sulphur preparation that instantly brings ease from the itching, burning and irritation.

Menthosulphur heals eczema right up, leaving the skin clear and smooth. It seldom fails to relieve the torment or disfigurement. A little jar of Menthosulphur may be obtained at any drug store. It is used like cold cream.—Adv.

RED PEPPER FOR RHEUMATIC PAIN

Red Pepper Rub takes the "ouch" from sore, stiff, aching joints. It cannot hurt you, and it certainly stops that old rheumatism torture at once.

When you are suffering so you can hardly get around, just try Red Pepper Rub and you will have the quickest relief known. Nothing has such concentrated, penetrating heat as red peppers. Just as soon as you apply Red Pepper Rub you will feel the tingling heat. In three minutes it warms the sore spot through and through. Pain and soreness are gone.

Ask your good druggist for a jar of Rowles Red Pepper Rub. Be sure to get the genuine, with the name Rowles on each package.—Adv.

IF BACKACHE OR KIDNEYS BOTHER

Eat Less Meat, Also Take Glass of Soda Before Eating Backache.

Uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish, ache, and feel like lumps of lead. The urine becomes cloudy; the bladder is irritated, and you may be obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night. When the kidneys clog you must help them flush off the body's urinous waste or you'll be a real sick person shortly. At first you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, you suffer from backache, sick headache, dizziness, stomach gets sour, tongue coated and you feel rheumatic twinges when the weather is bad.

Eat less meat, drink lots of water; also get from any pharmacist four ounces of Jad Salts; take a table-spoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean clogged kidneys, stimulate them to normal activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness. Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active. Druggists here say they sell lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.—Adv.

LADIES! DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

Use Grandma's Sage Tea and Sulphur Recipe and Nobody Will Know

The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmother's time. She used it to keep her hair beautifully dark, glossy and attractive. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied, with wonderful effect.

But brewing at home is messy and out of date. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get this famous old preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients, which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two it becomes beautifully dark and glossy.—Adv.
