

The Office Cat

BY JUNIUS

SAD
Beneath this stone lies Nick Mac Murray. Who always drove in a helluva hurry.

"Oh, my," she exclaimed impatiently. "We'll be sure to miss the first act. We've been waiting a good many minutes for that member of mine."

"Hours, I should say," he replied. "Ours," she cried joyfully. "Oh, Jack, what a neat way to propose."

Admiral Kato, of Japan, who was attending the conference at Washington, says American short skirts are shocking.

Somebody should tell the admiral that he was sent to this country to discuss arms, not legs.

"Is your daughter prominent in the girls' club?" "She's chairman of the committee on face-powder."

I saw two girls walking down the street. They wore galoshes on their feet. The day was cold and their heads were bare.

Creditors have better memories than debtors, says George Wirtz.

The Galosh Code
A code whereby a flirtation may be carried on with the galoshes worn by girls has been devised and Klamath Falls girls and the fellows, too, are getting next to it.

When a girl wears her galoshes entirely open so that the tops flap about her calves, it signifies in flirtations galosh language: "I am free and open for engagements."

When she wears them completely buckled it means: "I am engaged, but may see you later." When they are worn with the lower buckles closed and the upper buckles open, the meaning is: "I am in doubt, don't know you, but willing to make your acquaintance. Follow me."

One galosh buckled and the other unbuckled it means: "I am married and my husband is very jealous."

There is said to be more of it, but the above are the leading signals of the code.

We noticed a Ford radiator sunning itself in front of a hardware store on Klamath Avenue. Another sign of an early spring.

F. U. Patrick says he don't blame Ziegfeld for giving it up. As a producer of follies Congress has him buckled completely off the boards.

But Didn't throw His All At Her Feet
"Poor old maid—has she ever had a proposal, I wonder?" "No—the nearest she ever came to it was when she went into a shoe shop, made a shoemaker angry and he threw his awl at her feet."

Falling in his avowed purpose of purchasing the entire French navy, Mr. Ford might try his luck on the Swiss navy by way of consolation.

POPE
The frost is on the pumpkin. The corn is on the cob. The bath is in the bath tub. The door is on the knob.

Nature, own cure. Hot mineral water at the Natatorium.

PRINCESS MARY WILL PROMISE

In addition to the king and queen members of the royal family expected to be present at the abbey include Queen Dowager Alexandra, Princess Victoria, the princess royal and her daughter, Princess Maud; the Duke of Connaught and Lady Patricia Ramsay, the Duke of York and Prince Henry, Princess Alice and the Earl of Athlone, the Marquis and Marchioness of Cambridge, Princess Christian and her daughters, Princess Louise

MARCH 15 DEAD LINE FOR NON-PAYMENT OF DUES

PORTLAND, Feb. 27.—In a wire received by the American Legion of Oregon from officials of the American Legion Weekly, March 15 has been designated as the "dead line" for holding unpaid members on the mailing list of the weekly. The 119 American Legion posts in Oregon will make strenuous efforts in the next 15 days to obtain the dues of all delinquent members, in order that they will receive every issue of the organization's weekly magazine, the foremost ex-service men's publication in America today. This magazine is sent to every legion member to conserve the memories of the world war and to keep alive the friendships made in the service, in addition to presenting to legion members an authentic account of the activities of the legion in the 19,754 communities of the world where legion posts are established and functioning.

The meeting will call in George A. Coddling of Medford, vice commander, a national committee man, George A. White of Salem; B. F. Pound of Salem, Fred E. Kiddle of La Grande, George R. Wilbur of Hood River, Oliver B. Houston of Portland, executive committeeman, and Rev. Frank James of Dallas, chaplain, and Present W. Cookingham of Portland, department finance officer.

JACKSON COUNTY SPORTSMEN TO HOLD ANNUAL MEETING

The Jackson County Sportsmen's association will hold their annual meeting of the year at the home of the Duchess of Areyll and the Duchess of Albany.

Major Sir Victor Audley Mackenzie, D. S. O., of the Scots Guards, will be "best man." He entertained King George when Prince of Wales at his Scottish home, and was also an intimate friend of the late King Edward. He commanded a battalion in France and was wounded in 1916.

Viscount Lascelles' brother, Edward Cecil Lascelles, was to have been groomsmen, but he has not sufficiently recovered from an accident while in the hunting field some months ago to permit his attendance.

Eight bridesmaids will attend the princess. They are Princess Maud, the king's niece; Lady Victoria Cambridge and Lady May Cambridge, two of the queen's nieces; Lady Rachel Cavendish, daughter of the Duke of Devonshire; Lady Elizabeth Howes-Lyon, daughter of the Earl of Strathmore; Lady Mary Thynne, daughter of the Marquis of Bath; and Lady Diana Bridgeman, daughter of the Earl of Bradford.

Their ages range from 14 to 28, and all of them are blondes, except the latter two, who are brunettes. The Earl and Lady Harwood, parents of Viscount Lascelles, arrived in London ten days before the date of the wedding. Authorities have been beset by all sorts of people to attend the ceremony, but it is stated that after the guests have been accommodated, very little space will be available for the public.

meeting and banquet at Medford Wednesday evening, March 1, according to information received by Leo Bean, secretary of the Klamath association.

If any members of the local organization expect to be in Medford Wednesday and will see Bean before leaving, he announces that he will fix them up with credentials entitling them to attend the banquet.

We furnish a nice warm dressing room, a bathing suit, towel and shower for 25 cents. The plunge is free to spend what time you like. Come and have a good time. J26 P. 28
