DRIFTING

DRIFTING in the eddies of the world's whirling tide of humanity, flotsam on the sea of life, at times dangerous derelicts menacing the safe travel of stancher craft, they come and go, never with any definite purpose and never with any practical goal.

is laid in the Canadian Northwest, and the action is said to be rapid and thrilling. Neal Hart will be seen as Barr Conroy, a Northwest Mounted Police officer. The picture is a very recent release, and the camera work by which the shimmering glow of the Northern Lights is shown on the screen is said to mark an important step forward in motion picture photography. The legends and traditions of the Chippewa tribe of Indians, based on the occasional appearance of the aurora in the northern skies, have been utilized as the underlying theme of the story.

VIGILANT COMMITTEE
WANTS WOMAN JUDGE

SAN FRANCISCO, March 3.—The San Francisco women's vigilant committee today went on record in favor of having at least one woman judge on the superior bench and another in the police courts. The declaration was made following the report of a special committee that has been observing court procedure, particularly with reference to cases involving women and girls. Dr. Mariana Ber-tola, president of the committee, said a campaign to elect the women judges would be made at the next election.

CHICAGO, March 3.—Kidnaped by sympies on her way to school, Rose Heppner, 12 years old, of Glen View, out of an automobile two miles from her home. Charles Heppner, father of the child, immediately posted a reward of $100 for the capture of the assailants.

The little girl, bruised, but otherwise unharmed, walked to the school and told a hysterical story to her teacher.

MACHINE GUNS, GRENADES
USED IN FIUME ATTACK

LONDON, March 3.—The Italian Fascisti in the Fiume today occupied the postoffice and surrounded the government palace, attacking it with hand grenades and machine guns, says a Rome dispatch which claims civil war has broken out between the Italian and Croat elements. The Fascisti was also reported to have captured the Italian torpedo boat. The trouble started when Fascisti accused the local police of killing one of their members.

with Neal Hart, known as "America's Pal," for its star. The scene to the campaign when prizes of $15,

BOOZE QUESTION IS
HOT ISSUE BETWEEN
POLISH FACTIONS

WARSAW, March 3.—The "wets" and "drys" are having a hot conflict over proposals to restrict the use of intoxicants in Poland. The movement for more rigid control over the use of liquor is becoming more active. Newspapers are full of discussions of the question and there are numerous lectures on alcoholism, while moving pictures are shown to promote the reform movement.
The example of America is continuously cited with heated arguments as to whether prohibition is effective in that country.
The "drys" advocate a regulation, cutting down the number of places where liquor is sold by restricting them to one for over 2,500 of population. Another proposal would abolish all places where liquor alone is sold, but grant permits to cafes and restaurants.
A steady dry movement has been going on for some time in the national parliament, and the debates there have lately been made more heated by enforcement of an ordinance establishing a dry Sunday in Warsaw. It forbids the sale of liquors from Saturday noon to Monday noon, and is being enforced by the Warsaw police with an iron hand, despite the protests of cafe and restaurant proprietors.
One of the active figures in the campaign is General Joseph Haller, president of the Polish Red Cross and Polish Boy Scouts, who organized and commanded the famous Haller army, in which thousands of American volunteers of Polish blood fought in 1917 and 1918.
General Haller is now leading a fight against raising the percentage of alcohol in beer. This is now fixed at 2 1/2 per cent. The brewers have consented to this restriction.
Poland has just put a tax of 20 per cent on all retail liquor stocks.

Polish law makes a liquor dealer assume responsibility for drunkenness by providing that when an intoxicated person is arrested, the proprietor of the place in which he purchased his intoxicants must go along with him to jail.

HAD BOOZE KILLS 19
IN DETROIT IN MONTH
DETROIT, Mich., March 3.—Alcohol liquor was responsible for 19 deaths in Detroit during the four public today.
