FOR ONE AND ALL OF US

It ain't the guns or armament.
Nor the tunes the band can play.
But the close co-operation That makes us win the day.
It ain't the individual, nor The army as a whole.
But the everlasting team work Of every bloomin' soul.
—Kipling

SOUND SENSE

THE ultra-sound, every-day, plain American horse sense of William Allen White, editor of the Emporia (Kansas) Gazette, first came to national attention some twenty years ago, with the wide publication by the newspapers of the country of his famous editorial, "What's the Matter With Kansas," in which he advanced the theory that the state would benefit by raising "less hell and more wheat."

White has since been, and still is, a recognized leader of American thought, that brand of thought that comes from the ranks of the plain people. His opinion on any topic is a worth while opinion. Here's his opinion of the Ku Klux Klan; an organization that is trying, with no alarming degree of success, to gain a foothold in Oregon:

An organizer of the Ku Klux Klan was in Emporia the other day and the men whom he invited to join his band at $10 per join turned him down. Under the leadership of Dr.
J. B. Brickell, and following their own judgment after hearing his story, the Emporians told him that they had no time for him. The proposition seems to be anti-foreigners, anti-Catholic, Anti-negro.

There are, of course, bad foreigners and good ones; good Catholics and bad ones, and all kinds of niggers. To make a case against a birthplace, a religion or a race is wicked, un-American and cowardly.

The whole trouble with the Ku Klux Klan is that it is based upon such deep foolishness that it is bound to be a menace to good government in any community. Any man fool enough to be Imperial Wizard would have power without responsibility and both without any sense.

That is social dynamite. American Institutions, our courts, our legislators, our executive officers are strong enough to keep the peace and promote justice and good will in the community. If they are not, then the thing to do is to change these institutions and do it quickly, but always legally. For a self-constituted body of moral idiots who would substitute the findings of the Ku Klux Klan for the processes of law to try to better conditions would be a most un-American outrage, which every good citizen should resent.

It is to the everlasting credit of Emporia that the organizer found no suckers with $10 each to squander here.

Whatever Emporia may be otherwise, it believes in law and order and absolute freedom under the Constitution for every man, no matter what birth or creed or race he may claim, to speak and meet and talk and act as a free, law-abiding citizen.

The plebeian cowardice of a man who would substitute clan rule and mob law for what our American fathers have died to establish and maintain should prove what a cheap screw outfit the Klan is.

News From the Country

DORRIS

DORRIS, Cal., March 22.—Mrs. J.
E. Lowery of Oakland is visiting with her brother, K. B. Taft and family.
Mrs. Lowery formerly resided in Dorris.

James O'Keefe, a prominent sheepman of Siskiyou and Klamath counties, was in town on business yesterday. O'Keefe has a large number of sheep at the McLaughlin ranch in the Mt. Dome country where they are being winter fed.

L. H. Bryan was a business visitor in Dorris yesterday from the H. W.
Mitchell ranch on Willow creek.

Mrs. Alfred Petersteiner of Klamath Falls, who has been visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Fall and other relatives and friends in Dorris, returned Monday evening to her home at Klamath Falls.

Local members of the International Timber Workers' union gave a very successful dance at the Knights of Pythias hall Saturday evening.
Accordion and drums furnished the music, which was thoroughly enjoyed.

Herbert Cowley, fireman in the United States navy, is here on twenty day leave from his ship, the Hampton Rhodes. Cowley is a nephew of Mrs.
C. B. Fall of Dorris.

Louis Boldischar, real estate and insurance agent of Klamath Falls, spent yesterday in Dorris on business.

F. C. Klazuba of Melin was a business visitor in Dorris yesterday.
Klazuba is one of the extensive farmers of the Tule lake district.

L. H. Bryan was a passenger on last evening's train to Klamath Falls where he will spend a few days.

Mrs. Margaret Kerwin is having her building on California street remodelled inside preparatory to assuming charge of the postoffice. Mrs.
Kerwin was recently appointed postmistress for Dorris and will relieve B. M. Richardson, who was appointed to fill out an incomplete term.

"THE GREATEST LOVE" WITH VERA GORDON AT STRAND

Vera Gordon, whom Lewis J. Selznick presents as the star of the Select Special "The Greatest Love" at the Strand Theatre tonight has probably had the most sensational rise of any star in photoplays. From obscurity she has just become a star through her magnificent work as "Mother," the Mother of "Humoresque," and it is claimed that her role of Mrs. Lantini in "The Greatest Love" is an even more remarkable characterization.

For years Miss Gordon played in the various stock companies, those excellent training schools in which so many of our great stars acquired their first rudiments of stagecraft, and later she became known by playing "Mother" parts in the stage plays "The Land of the Free," "Why Worry," and "The Gentle Wife," all of these roles bringing her the highest commendation from both press and public.

However, it remained for the patrons of the photoplay to acclaim Miss Gordon as a star. This occurred during the initial showing of the screen version of Fannie Hurst's story, "Hu-moresque." Although Miss Gordon was not advertised as the principal player in this production the critics and patrons alike were unanimous in the opinion that her work completely overshadowed everything else in the picture. Next followed a similar type of part in the Rex Beach story,

"The North Wind's Malice." Lewis J. Selznick then secured a "beat" on all competition by getting Miss Gordon's signature to a contract calling for her stellar appearance on the screen, the result of which will be seen in "The Greatest Love," which will be at the Strand theatre tonight.

WOMAN BRAVES PAIN

Rides Three Days on Stage With Broken Hip to Reach Bend

BEND, March 24.—The torture of a broken hip which would not stay set, accentuated by three days travel by sleigh and by auto over almost impassable roads, was endured by Mrs.
Lloyd Beeler of Silver Lake, who was brought to this city by her husband, to go on to Portland for treatment.

The trip from Summit station was made in the Silver Lake auto stage.
