

SPORTS

Jake Shaefer Wins From Willie Hoppe

(By the Associated Press) CHICAGO, March 29.—Young Jake Schaefer, world's 18.2 balkline billiard champion, tonight defeated Willie Hoppe, former titleholder, 500 to 466 in the first block of the 1500-point match.

SPANISH VETS GROW

Twenty-Eight New Camps Organized Since July 1, 1921

CHICAGO, March 29.—Twenty-eight new camps of the United Spanish war veterans have been organized since July 1, 1921. Oscar E. Carlstrom, commander-in-chief, announced today, Illinois, with five new camps, heads the list.

Commander Carlstrom has asked all state commanders to investigate conditions at soldiers' homes in their states and report to national headquarters here.

At the last national encampment the commander has authorized to appoint a committee to inspect the soldiers' homes but Commander Carlstrom has decided to save the cost of financing such a committee by placing the duty upon the state commanders.

R. R. MEN TO CONVENE

Open Shop Will Be Principal Question Before Brotherhood

HOUSTON, Tex., March 29.—The 29th convention of the brotherhood of locomotive firemen and engineers, to open here May 3, will consider the question of the open shop, that of the effort for universal wage reduction, and a proposal to develop the labor press. It will also consider reports of two conferences in Chicago, the political progressive conference of February 21 and the conference of February 22 between representatives of the United Mine workers, the longshoremen, and the railroad employes' organizations, to promote closer relations.

ONE CUP OF SUGAR PRICE OF ADMISSION TO STRAND

One cup of sugar will be the price of admission to the Strand theater for children next Saturday afternoon at the "sweet matinee." "Last Saturday at the 'egg matinee' thirty-one and one-half dozen kids brought in thirty-one and one-half dozen eggs," said Ted White, manager of the theatre. The proceeds go to aid the strikers' soup kitchen.

RED CROSS SEEKS TWO

Walter Manuel Barber and Mattie May Barber, who are believed to have lived here, are being sought by the Red Cross. Persons knowing their whereabouts should notify the Red Cross or Miss Lydia Fricke, county health nurse.

RODEO PLANNED

SANTA BARBARA, Cal., March 29.—Arrangements are already under way here for the big rodeo to be held in this city on the Fourth of July. Several surrounding towns have been invited to participate.

Say it with flowers. Flowers for all occasions. Klamath Flower Shop, 834 Main St. Phone 589.

NEW TODAY

FOR RENT—Furnished and unfurnished apartment close in. Phone 342W.

FOR SALE—A good logging outfit in A-1 condition, 5 ton truck and 8 1/2 ton trailer at half price. Box 383, city.

FOR RENT—Furnished one room cabin. 741 Walnut.

ATTENTION! Royal Arch Masons—Special convocation, Klamath chapter No. 35, Thursday evening, March 30, 1922, 7:30 p. m. in their hall, 409 Main St. over Golden Rule store. Visiting companions welcome. J. E. Bratton, Sec'y.

By Our Country Editors

DORRIS

DORRIS, Calif., March 29.—R. Jones and Floyd Ingram departed yesterday morning for Alaska, where they will seek their fortune at prospecting during the coming summer. Jones has been in Alaska before, and has several claims in view which he expects to re-visit. Both young men have been employed in local box factories until recently.

Mrs. John Lund is confined to her bed this week with a slight illness. Mrs. Z. A. Bobbs, bookkeeper for the Dorris Lumber & Box company, is visiting with her relatives and friends at Sisson.

Thomas Foreum, who for the past six weeks has been connected with the local Southern Pacific depot as express and mail clerk, has gone to Dunsmuir where he will remain in the employ of the company. The local office will be conducted by the agent, S. F. Warren, without an assistant for the time being.

Candidates for the coming municipal election, April 10, are announced by the city clerk. Those running for the four vacancies on the city board are R. L. Oliver, W. G. Hagelstein (incumbent), J. F. Wist (incumbent), R. D. Craig and J. R. Adams. W. P. Sherman seeks to succeed himself as city clerk. No candidate has announced a desire to become city treasurer. Mrs. Jennie Lang holds the office at present.

Lucian Snodgrass and William Raymond have moved their families to Topsy, where the two young men will engage in cutting wood for Marion High of Dorris.

Ray Rhodes was a Klamath Falls visitor one day this week.

H. J. Goff, manager for the Associated Lumber & Box company, spent one day this week in Klamath Falls on business.

A. B. McDonald was in town from the J. F. ranch yesterday attending to matters of business.

Mrs. Margaret Kerwin has her postoffice equipment installed and ready for occupation as soon as she is authorized to relieve the present postmaster. Mrs. Kerwin was recently appointed for a four-year term.

MERRILL

Miss Zena Mae Dillard and Clyde Barks were married Friday, March 17 in Klamath Falls. Miss Dillard is a daughter of Mrs. Dillard, teacher of the primary department of the Merrill schools. The bride was a student in Klamath county high school until Christmas. Since then she has attended the high school at Merrill where she was a popular student. The groom is the son of Wm. Barks, pioneer farmer of the Lone pine district.

They will reside on the Barks ranch a few miles from Merrill. They have the best wishes of a host of friends for a long and happy married life. Friday night a crowd went out in a hay wagon and gave them a charivari. Games were played and later in the evening refreshments were served. Those going were, Mrs. Dillard, mother of bride, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Holbrook, Mr. and Mrs. Burt Turner, Misses Bettis, Metskin, Lusby, Ballis, Griffith, Messrs Joe and Arthur Bramhall, Fred Simmons, John Turner, Tom Turner, Harold and Will Hill, Otis Metsker, Lyle Merrill, Roy Stephenson, Clarence Woodhouse and Chas. Stuke.

Mrs. Lou Story who has been receiving surgical treatment in Klamath Falls has returned to her home 2 1/2 miles northwest of Merrill.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Weinert, who have been living on the Perry Whitney place the past winter, have moved to Klamath Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Haskins and family have returned from a visit with Mrs. Haskins' parents in Grants Pass, Oregon.

Harry Peltz of Klamath Falls was a Merrill visitor during the week.

A social was held in Merrill hall Wednesday evening. It was a stormy evening and only a small crowd was out, but those attending spent a pleasant evening in playing games etc. Mr. Edgar plans to have these socials every month, which are to be without charge.

Mrs. R. H. Anderson spent Wednesday in Klamath Falls as the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Martin, who have recently returned from spending the winter in California.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Frasier were Klamath Falls visitors on Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Anderson of Klamath Falls spent Sunday in Merrill.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Wishard of Klamath Falls spent Sunday with Mrs. Wishard's sister, Mrs. Chas. Brown.

Miss Elda Offield, one of the teachers in the Klamath public schools, was also in Merrill for Sunday.

The card party to have been given by the Merrill library club Friday was postponed for the present on account of the death of Mrs. Shuck.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Woodhouse were in Klamath Falls the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Taylor and daughter, Miss Bee, were in Klamath Falls Saturday.

R. C. Anderson, who recently went to California, has returned. He reports his granddaughter, Miss Katherine Colwell to be much improved in health.

Mrs. Randall of Klamath Falls has been spending a few days in Merrill.

A dance was given at the home of the Sullivan brothers two miles from Merrill on Friday March 23. A good sized crowd attended and an excellent lunch was served. Something like $50 was taken in which is for the benefit of the convent in Klamath Falls.

Services were held in the Catholic church on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Brown are home after a weeks' visit in Klamath Falls.

W. F. Hill is in Klamath Falls on jury duty.

The death of Mrs. Shuck came as a shock to the entire community as she was ill only a short time.

The large crowd that attended the funeral testified to the esteem in which she was held by her home town. There were many beautiful flowers.

Mr. Edgar had an impressive service. A quartet consisting of J. W. Taylor, Geo. J. Walton, Mrs. Edgar and Mrs. Hill sang. All places of business were closed during the funeral. The family appreciate the many kindnesses shown them at this time.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Sheets of Klamath Falls were in Merrill Saturday to attend the funeral of their old friend and neighbor, Mrs. Shuck.

Stukel and Offield recently shipped several carloads of cattle.

Elmer and Chas. Stukel drove the cattle to the railroad.

Ratcliff and Offield bought a fine steer in the Malin country. It weighed 1750 pounds.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Henline of Klamath Falls spent Sunday in Merrill.

Orin Dillard has been out of school on account of sickness.

BLY

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Watts visited Mrs. Emma Keady in Bly on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Dixon were visiting and trading in Bly on Monday.

Elmer Laurey was attending to business in Bly on Monday. Victor Miller, who has been working in Langell Valley for the past few months returned to Bly the first of the week to visit with friends here for a short time before going to Yreka where he expects to take up other work.

Friends of Harold Thurston will be glad to learn that he is able to be back on the stage again after his illness of a couple of weeks.

Mrs. James Owens has moved from Bly where she has been for the past few months with Miss Barbara who attends school here. Barbara is staying with Mrs. Keady for the remainder of the term.

Friends and relatives were delighted to hear on Wednesday that Mr. and Mrs. Philip Peters were the proud parents of a fine baby girl.

Little Mary Dixon has been ill the past few days.

Sykes Hamaker made a business trip back to Klamath Falls the first of the week. He is not fully recovered from his recent illness.

Andrew Murphy made a business trip to Lakeview on Thursday.

A Platinum covered Wedding Ring for $17.50

Payable $1.00 down; $1.00 a week "Bridal Blossoms and Platinum" put into the hands of Master Craftsmen have been wrought into a thing of beauty breathing happiness.

The Platinum Wedding Ring.

Bring in your Gold Wedding Ring and we will cover same with a liberal sheet of Platinum, and carve the entire Ring with Bridal Blossoms, hand carved in the three cornered effect with sides and top hand engraved, for

$17.50

Payable $1.00 down; $1.00 a week for Rings 2 1/2 mm wide. Wider Bands in proportion; estimates cheerfully furnished. We preserve inscription on inside of every Ring.

We are direct representatives of a large eastern factory, hence above special price. They put the same skill and workmanship into this work as they give their solid Platinum Wedding Rings.

W. C. Davenport

The home of the non-divorce lucky wedding ring. Official watch inspector for the S. P. and O. C. & E. railroads.

Honest Work at Honest Prices 122 S. Sixth St.

Albert Richardson, James Redding and Lawrence Griffen were summoned to Klamath Falls on Thursday as witnesses in the Doak-Hixon trial.

Dallas Givan has been having another siege of bronchitis and is very ill.

Mrs. Jack Watts spent the day Friday with Mrs. George Boyd.

James Owens came down to his sheep camp at James Watts on Friday. This high water is about to wash the camp away, he says.

Elmer Jones who has been working at the Hamaker-Parker sawmill in Swan Lake for some time returned to Bly the latter part of the week.

Johnnie Driscoll was subpoenaed on the Doak-Hixon trial and went to Klamath Falls on Friday's stage.

Fred Snodderly who is looking after C. W. Warren's sheep at the Jas. Bell ranch made a trip to the Warren ranch on Friday.

Shorty Morgan is taking care of L. A. Richardson's stock while he is on court duty.

The big run of mullet or suckers are coming up the river now. They say there is a big run of them this year.

Miss Jessie Boyd who has been out of school for the past week and a half on account of an attack of appendicitis, had another attack on Friday and her parents started with her to Klamath Falls on Saturday, where she will have an operation at an early date.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wallis spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Howard and family.

Word has been received from Lakeview that Mrs. W. H. Casebeer was seriously ill with complications of influenza and tonsillitis.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hamaker and Mrs. James Edsall made a trip to Klamath Falls on Sunday where they were called as witnesses.

Little J. C. Hamaker is staying with Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Garrett during the absence of his parents.

Mrs. Dallas Givan was a Bly visitor on Thursday.

The Morgan children were unable to attend school one day the latter part of the week on account of the high water.

J. P. McAuliffe has been over in this section for a few days looking after business interests here.

Donald Walters received the sad news on Wednesday of his mother's death after a brief illness. His parents live in Washington.

Miss Ruth and Helen Campbell are staying with Mrs. Keady while Mr. and Mrs. Campbell are in Klamath Falls with their son Drew, who underwent an operation at the Blackburn hospital on Tuesday for appendicitis. It was a very serious operation and he is slowly improving.

Miss Louise Howard was ill the first of the week with tonsillitis.

James Givan is out from Klamath Falls visiting with his two sons, who live here and looking after his stock interests in this section.

CHILOQUIN

Mr. Morrison of the Chiloquin Lumber company, was over from camp on business this last week.

H. M. Anderson left yesterday for Klamath Falls, where he will remain a few days on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Zumwalt, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Vanum and Mr. and Mrs. John Varnum attended "Way Down East" at the Chiloquin theatre Friday from their homes on Sprague river.

J. O. Goldthwaite of the Modoc Lumber company arrived home yesterday from San Francisco, where he has been for a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Jackson spent Sunday afternoon with the Anderson family.

C. C. Heidrich spent a few days in Klamath Falls last week.

A delightful evening was spent at the Anderson ranch Saturday evening. Among the guests were Orville Corbin of Chiloquin, the Cartwright boys and Robert Griffin from Pine Ridge. The evening was spent in playing cards and conversation.

Mr. Geinger and family intend to leave soon for Alameda, California, where they will remain for a while.

Mrs. Carr of Klamath Falls is here on a visit with her son, Earl Davison.

On account of heavy rains the past week the snow on the surrounding hills has almost disappeared.

JUNE BRIDES

Require April rings, if they haven't already received one—the kind that means so much to them for the balance of their lives. No matter what you want to spend for that solitaire, we have one to suit both you and her. Come in and see.

GEO. L. METZ 620 MAIN ST.

TONIGHT AT THE STRAND

WHERE EVERYBODY GOES HOME OF THE HODKINSON FEATURES

E. K. LINCOLN

TWO GOOD COMEDIES

Starring in

A tale of the Southland and its stiff-necked aristocrats—teeming with red-blooded action and 100 per cent pure Americanism.

Fighting Through

Written and directed by W. Christy Cabanne In Six Thrilling Acts

Tomorrow, COUNTRY STORE NIGHT

Hazel Dawn and Bert Lytell in "The Lone Wolf"

Admission 10c-20c. Show starts 6:30

Can You Beat It? What?

UNDERWOOD'S PHARMACY is selling GENUINE AUTOSTROP SAFETY RAZORS at the unheard-of price of

$1.00

It's Model C and consists of a REAL AUTOSTROP SAFETY RAZOR, packed in a velvet-lined, metal case, with extra blades and a selected leather strop, and all for $1.00.

Just think of it—this is the famous AUTOSTROP SAFETY RAZOR that is nationally advertised and universally used. It strops its own blades, shaves and cleans without taking apart, and is adjusting to the extent that you can get a close, medium, or rough shave at your pleasure.

A head-barber shave is yours for the asking. No waiting—no charge—no tips.

Our supply is limited. Only one can be sold to a customer, so it's FIRST COME, FIRST SERVED.

Underwood's Pharmacy KLAMATH FALLS OREGON WHERE PARTICULAR PEOPLE BUY THEIR DRUGS

The discriminating hostess serves Folger's Golden Gate Coffee

FOR the afternoon reception or for after dinner service, you may be sure that your coffee will be "right" if it's Folger's Golden Gate.

The experience of almost three quarters of a century has developed the distinctive flavor of Folger's Golden Gate Coffee. It really is "different in taste from other coffee and better."

Tell your grocer you want it.

J. A. FOLGER & CO. San Francisco Kansas City Dallas Shizuoka, Japan

