

The Office Cat

BY JUNIUS

An Easy Way Out
Jud Tunkins says there's a big advantage in using long words. Anybody would rather take what you say for granted than to be put to the trouble of looking in the dictionary.

Virginia (who has just been operated on for appendicitis) "Oh, Doctor, do you think the scar will show?"
Doctor: "It ought not to."

His Curiosity
"Say, take a look at that kid out there by the ash hopper, and see if he's one of our'n, will you?" said Gap Johnson of Rumpus Ridge, Ark., addressing his wife. "Probably he is, but I've been noticing him off and on for the last four, five days, and he's sorter got me guessing. Mobby you'd better catch him and wash his face, to make shore."

Fond of Excitement
"I can rent you a house but it is next door to a boiler factory."
"I won't mind that, I used to live next door to a song shop."

Poor Jones!
Several ladies sat in the clubroom discussing the virtues of their husbands, over their knitting.
"Mr. Jones," said one of them, referring to her life partner, "never drinks and never swears, indeed, he has no bad habits."
"Does he ever smoke?" someone asked.

"Yes, he likes a good cigar just after he has eaten a good meal. But on an average I suppose he doesn't smoke more than once a month."
Some of her club mates smiled, but she didn't seem to understand the reason.

Studying Golf
"Going to take up golf?"
"Just learning a few terms so I can appreciate the stories of the boys."

ONCE TOO OFTEN
His ma oft warned young Willie Green
To steal truck rides no more.
His residence may now be seen
With crepe upon the door.

It may be said that brass makes the best bearings, but the bearing of some men indicates too much brass.

Two kinds of women are hard to understand. Blondes and brunettes.

Bill Ganong says every mother thinks that there is no baby like her own, and every other is glad of it.

"First Seedless Grapefruit Appear on Local Market."
Ah, but wait until this first squit-less grapefruit appears!

He Wanted a Pet
"My good man, you had better take the trolley car home."
"Sh! no uhh! My wife wouldn't let me—hif—keep it in th' house."

Jimmy, somewhat of a braggart, was telling his father and mother of his experiences while out camping.
"And all at once I stepped right on a big rattlesnake," he began.
"How did you know it was a rattlesnake, Jimmy?" asked his father, skeptically.

"I could hear its teeth chatterin' the minute it saw me."

Some men grow so upright that they fall over backward.

Radiograms

"HIS MASTER'S VOICE"

An Airload dog in the radio receiving room of the University of Kentucky heard his owner at Pittsburgh, Pa., call him. The owner, J. Paul Anderson, dean of the university, was speaking from the Westinghouse broadcasting station. The dog was sleeping as Anderson's voice came in. He sprang to his feet, wagged his tail, and then scampered about the radio outfit.

CAMPAIGN BY WIRELESS

Radio entered politics for the first time in Tacoma's history when candidates for mayor, speaking from the broadcasting station of the Tacoma Ledger delivered opening campaign addresses.

DETROIT POLICE JOIN RANKS

The Detroit city council approved an appropriation of $2,500 for installing radio equipment for the police department. The innovation was suggested by Dr. James W. Inches, police commissioner, who told the council the radio would increase the effectiveness of the department. Receiving equipment will be set in the district station, and a sending outfit at headquarters.
