

The Office Cat

BY JUNIOR

HERE WE COME

Said the devil to his angels,
Heat up another vat,
An' fill 'er up with brimstone,
Here comes the Office Cat.

"Pa, what is a joke?"

"Shet up! Don't you know any more than to criticize the government?"

It is said the average man uses three hundred words in his vocabulary. "The fellow that found that out," growls H. R. Hill "ought to hear our vocabulary when the power goes off or the press breaks down."

What To Do

When you, office building blows over.

When the building begins to totter, if your office is on the top floor, step into the hall and say "going down!"

On the way down notify the agent that you are going to move to the ground floor.

As you emerge from the debris, remark to a policeman that there were more bricks in that building than you thought.

Pick your stenographer out of the ruins. Dust her and say, "Guess that'll be about all today."

Then go and work off the old one about "the rapid tumble in real estate."

Foolish Etiquette.

"Many a family skeleton insists on wearin' short skirts."

Paste this one in your hat: Home-made whisky sure is risky. Bootleg stuff's a certain killer. If you wish to linger with us. Stick to pop and aspartiller.

Success is run on the serve-self plan.

There's one bigger fool than the man who "knows it all"—that's the man who argues with him.

An attorney of Los Angeles advertises for a chauffeur. Some twenty odd responded and were being questioned as to qualifications, efficiency and whether married or single. Finally, turning to a negro chap, he said:

"How about you George; are you married?"

Quickly the negro responded.

"Naw-air, boss, naw-air. Ah makes mah own livin'."

Doc Hunt says a friend is a man who'll help you smoke the Christmas cigars your wife gave you.

Wouldn't it be a good thing if all the grouches were as bad off as they think they are? asks J. I. Beard.

Girls born on Monday are beautiful, but jealous, according to an old belief. Girls born on other days of the week are about the same, only more so.

How To Make Money

Get a dozen eggs, a pumpkin pie, a loaf of bread, a pound of wieners, a cash register and a box of paper napkins and start a chain of restaurants. The public has learned how to make this sort of business profitable. You can retail egg sandwiches at 20 cents each, giving you a profit of 350 per cent. By using a razor you can cut pumpkin into twelve pieces and can retail the piece at 30 cents, thus each pie would bring you $2.40, representing a profit of 1,000 percent as the original pie cost you 12 cents. You can get $1 out of every loaf of bread by serving two small slices of toast for 10 cents. It is being done every day, and so far as the fare is concerned the public simply eats it up.

joyable social hour was spent. Those present were Mesdames, Fred Fleet, J. V. Brewbaker, R. C. Groesbeck, Karl Cummings, Clay Mason, Harry Goeller, L. I. Truax, A. M. Collier, Bert C. Thomas, C. V. Fisher, H. D. Lloyd Stewart, J. I. Beard and Miss Vera Houston.

The Episcopal Guild will meet Thursday with Mrs. T. C. Campbell at her home at 425 Pine street. A large attendance is desired as important matters will come up for discussion.

The Rebekah Lodge met Thursday evening and at the business meeting the representatives to the state assembly which meets in Eugene, May 23, were elected. They are, Mrs. Effie Garcelon, Mrs. Jennie Hurn, Mrs. R. E. Wattenburg, and Mrs. J. F. Goeller.

The Woman's Library club met Friday afternoon at the library club rooms. After the business meeting T. A. Stevenson, secretary of the chamber of commerce, gave a short talk relative to the forming of the new Community Council committee. The president of the library club will appoint its representative to that committee at the next meeting, May 12th, which is also the time of annual election of officers. Mrs. R. H. Harrison read an interesting paper on "Short Story Writing".

A delightful social hour followed. Hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. Robert Robertson, Mrs. Chas. Wood Eberlein, Mrs. H. M. Manning, Mrs. Chas. Martin and Mrs. R. E. Wright. Mrs. Eberlein poured tea.

Mrs. Forrest Pell entertained very delightfully at bridge Thursday evening at her home in Pollock City. The prize for high score for ladies was won by Mrs. P. S. Pope and for gentlemen by P. S. Pope; the consolation prize was won by Mrs. Harrison. Those present were Messrs. and Mesdames P. S. Pope, James Foster, John Enders, Hardin Carter, Ed Pike, Irving Hubbard, R. H. Harrison, Louis Pritchard and Horace Bridgford.

Miss Augusta Parker entertained a few friends at the White Pelican hotel Wednesday evening with a delightful chafing dish supper.

Mrs. Estelle E. Carrier, who has been head of the history department at the Santa Rosa high school, will arrive here tonight to spend Easter vacation with friends. Mrs. Carrier was formerly a teacher in the local high school.

Plans are being made by the American Legion for a dance on Wednesday, April 19 at Scandinavian hall.

The Psychology class will meet Monday evening in the library club rooms at 8 o'clock. Dr. T. C. Campbell will be the leader for the discussion.

The Ladies club of the B. P. O. E. entertained Tuesday afternoon at the Elks' Temple. There were six tables of bridge and at the close of the afternoon tea was served. The hostesses were Mrs. Hardin Carter, Mrs. John Enders, Mrs. C. B. Browne and Mrs. Louis Hoagland. Mrs. L. F. Hansen won the prize for high score.

Friday evening at the Presbyterian church about fifty people enjoyed the annual dinner given by the girls of the Kedron club for their husbands and friends. The tables were beautifully decorated with baskets of roses and spring flowers and a delicious dinner was served by the Sunchaeo Camp Fire Circle under the direction of Miss Fannie Virgil, chairman of the refreshment committee. Later, in the parlors, a clever pantomime was given by a few of the high school girls, accompanied by a reading by Miss Vera Houston, chairman of the entertainment committee. Solos were given by Miss Augusta Parker, president of the club and Dr. Geo. Mallett. The remainder of the evening was spent in various games, and all present voted the evening a great success. Those present were Messrs. and Mesdames Burge Mason, A. M. Collier, A. D. Collier, Geo. Mallett, Herbert Mallett, R. C. Groesbeck, A. L. Rice, E. S. Veatch, B. C. Thomas, Herbert Phillips, Roy La Prairie, Bell, Grizzle, N. B. Drew, L. I. Truax, McDonald and Slough; Misses Vera Houston, Olive Carleton, Ball, Maude Carleton, Fannie Virgil, Augusta Parker, Payne, Evelyn Applegate, Florence Porter, Ralph, Mrs. Wood, Mrs. Goetz; Dr. Fred Westerfeld and Lloyd Porter.

A very happy time was spent by the following young folks: Arlene and Miriam Johnson, Helen and Hazel Richardson, Alfred and Ethel Carlson, Betty and Bobby Gallagher, Margaret and Chas. Cummings, Lela Taylor, Mary Ava DeLap, Vivian Rheats, Henrietta Wright and Helen and Bobbie Mason.

The Woman's Auxiliary of the Presbyterian church met Thursday afternoon in the church parlors. At the business meeting election of officers resulted in the election of Mrs. Marion Hanks, president; Mrs. Jennie Hurn, vice president; Mrs. B. M. Hall, secretary and Mrs. E. S. Henry, treasurer. At the close of the social hour delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. E. E. Ots. Mrs. Bert Hawkins and Mrs. Ida Grimes.

Mrs. F. J. Wilde gave a pleasant birthday party for her son, Mervin, aged nine, at her home at 243 North Sixth street last night. The small guests present were Misses Alexia Lyle, Mary Ellen Bradford, Virginia Richmond, Lorraine Lavenik, Vera Boldischar, Stella Hilton, Helen Low, and Masters James Jefferson, Charles Boldischar and John Lavenik. Virginia Richmond entertained the party with some clever fancy dancing and Mary Ellen Bradford and Alexia Lyle each contributed a piano solo. The remainder of the entertainment consisted of games, with prizes, and refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Brown were hosts at a charivari party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Smith, 137 Canal street, last Monday evening. The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Beck, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Seeds and daughter, Vera, Mr. and Mrs. R. Breunier, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Prouty, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Lewis, Chas. Whitmore and son Charles, Henry Guber, W. N. Hays, Earnest Beck, J. H. Steel and son Leonard, Everett Stevens, Karl Smith, Mr. and Mrs. F. Smith and the host and hostess Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Smith.

The Women's auxiliary of the chamber of commerce will meet Friday, April 21, in the chamber of commerce rooms. It is urged that all members and ladies of the city who are interested in the work of the club, reserve this date as very important and interesting business will be discussed. Further announcement will be made later.

The officers of St. Paul's Episcopal church have made announcement that the Rev. Dr. George B. Van Waters, arch-deacon of the diocese of eastern Oregon, has consented to devote his Easter to the church at Klamath Falls. Unusual preparations have been made to make the Easter services of the Episcopal church this year memorable. To this end the Easter services will be held in the Presbyterian church and a choir in full vestments will render a more elaborate choral service than has ever before been given in the city.

Holy communion will be celebrated by Dr. Van Waters and full vested choir at 8 a. m. at the Presbyterian church.

The chie fevening service, again in the Presbyterian church, will begin at 3:45 p. m. with an organ prelude on the new pipe organ, and the service proper, begins with processional by the choir in vestments at 4 p. m. Dr. Van Waters will read the service and preach.

Mrs. Blake's Favorite Recipe for
Cream of Spinach Soup

This makes an economical cream soup of very delicious flavor:

2 tbs. flour, 2 tbs. butter, 3 cups boiling water, 2 qu. or 4 lbs. spinach, pepper, 2 tsp. salt, 3 cups water, 1 cup Carnation Milk.

Wash spinach thoroughly and cook 20 minutes in boiling water. Drain and rub through sieve. Melt butter, add flour, then milk, and cook 5 minutes; add the spinach and season with salt and pepper. This recipe serves six people.
