ELKS SEEKING QUEEN

Lodges Throughout State Asked to Nominate Convention Rules

PORTLAND, April 10.—Elks lodges throughout the state have been asked to nominate a queen contender in the contest that has been arranged by the festival commission, in charge of Elks' Prosperity week, May 15 to 21. The winner in this popularity contest will preside over all the activities of that week beside being presented by Portland lodge with a high class automobile. An automobile also will be given the young woman second in the race and to the third will be tendered her choice of a diamond ring or a trip to San Francisco at the lodge's expense during the Shrine convention. The unsuccessful candidates will be taken care of, too, for they will be brought to Portland and be made attendants upon the reigning queen. Thus they will have a prominent part in the spectacular "Pageant of Peace, Progress and Prosperity" which will be staged each evening at the Municipal auditorium.

TWO MORE DIE

PORTLAND, April 10.—Two more deaths from septic sore throat today made a total of 13. A boy, aged 3, and A. R. Whiting, aged 72, deputy county assessor, were the latest victims.
