THE SENATE TALKS

The senate sits on the lid of hell Talking.
Bustly occupied for a spell Talking.

"Peace," men cry. "It is time to quit Talking.
There'll be hell to pay and you're aiding it."

Talking.
The world is troubled by bolsheviks. Trade and business are in a fix.
But the senate is dabbling in politics.

Talking.
The senate sits on the lid of hell.
Seeming to think it can do things well.

Talking.
It will sit and talk and talk until The lid blows off—as it doubtless will—
And the senators sail through space, still—

Talking.

Maid: Yes, Mrs. Cobb, he was that; but I fixed him this time. I see.

Here he paused for a moment. He needed a word to rhyme with you. Blue, true—all to trite. Then suddenly the last line came to him intact, and he added:

"I'll certainly send you a few."
