

The Office Cat

BY JUNIUS

INTRODUCING GENTLE SPRING
The gentle spring will soon be with us
There is evidence galore.

Topeka Kan. merchants announce a "Ford Day" when all Ford cars be invited to make themselves at home on the streets.

Preflatable Lifts
I notice you frequently pick up people and take them to town in your car.

Yes, said the enterprising citizen. "I've sold quite a number of life insurance policies in that way. A man can't very well refuse to hear what you have to say when he's getting a free ride.

True to Type
"Say, this blasted car you stuck me with I should think was meant to stall, judging by the way it acts."

Out in Omaha a gas meter reader turned out to be a burglar. Some times it does seem rather hard to make the distinction.

No Offense
Paul—At the party I thought you, costume was ripping.
Pauline—Well, if you were a gentleman, you would have told me so.

Two postmasters in one office is the unusual plight of Pleasant Valley, N. Y. What chance has a postcard there, we ask you.

TODAY'S FASHIONS

THESE STYLES HALT FLAPPERS Queen Victoria Herself Would Approve These Pretty and Conservative Frocks

Queen Victoria herself would have approved of these styles which cover shoulder blades and spinal column. The pendulum is swinging toward more conservative styles for spring and summer.

Embroiderings in bright colors, appliqued ornaments in velvet and silk and hand-painted designs, are sprinkled lavishly over frocks and even suits of neutral shades.

A plain little dress in sand shade homespun emerges from obscurity through a riot of field flowers spattered across the lower part of the skirt in silk embroidery. Daisies, poppies, corn blooms, wheat and buttercups climbed from the hem almost to the waist line.

A taffeta evening dress in old blue is ornamented with a flock of birds hand-painted across its full, stiff skirt. Some are bluebirds, with brown and gray wings, others are gay songsters of the tropics in orange, crimson, emerald.

Another dress in Copenhagen taffeta is finished with old-fashioned nosegays, all tied with gold cord and with stems wound in gold tinsel, cut from velvet and appliqued at irregular intervals over the entire garment.

Still another design is worked out in Egyptian figures and symbols, embroidered or painted on silk blouses and skirts.

The Just and the Unjust
Lavendar stockings, speaking in generalities, are reminders that good and evil walk on equally comely legs.

ON HER
I went to a fountain with Mary And met with an awful mishap: For I awkwardly emptied a bottle Of soda all over her lap. But Mary was gentle and gracious (For none is so tactful as she) And smiling with perfect composure, Said sweetly "The drinks are on me."

The Change
Wife—Before we were married you used to swear you would love me always—now you only swear.

Something Wrong
Bobby's dog was limping along on three feet. "Look, Daddy! Tag's not hitting on all four cylinders."

There was a time, expostulates Harry Borel when the saxophone was a very useful and respected citizen, but, like some kind of people they got to running around in pairs, trios and sextets and proved once more that two's company, three's bad company.

More earthquakes in California They're awfully sensitive about mentioning them out there. It's said that newspapers now use the heading "Latest Movements in Real Estate."

Success often brings poise, but more often avoidupoise.
