DORRIS

DORRIS, Calif., April 12.—Mrs. Edward J. Clode arrived Monday evening from New York city to spend a fortnight visiting with her mother, Mrs. Bertha Thompson of Dorris, whom she has not seen for some time. Mrs. Clode is the wife of a prominent New York publisher. Mr. and Mrs. Guy Quackenbush departed on yesterday morning's train for Talent and Medford where they will spend a week visiting with Mr. Quackenbush's parents. G. K. Kesterson has arrived from his home at Grants Pass preparatory to beginning operations for the season at his mill west of Dorris. Kesterson expects to begin active operations within the next few days. Carol Chase is visiting with friends and relatives in Dorris after having spent the winter in Oraville, California. Earl Stanlake is back in town after an extended absence. He suffered an injured foot while employed in a box factory and is barely able to walk. J. O'Neil of Mt. Hebron was a Dorris visitor on business yesterday afternoon. O'Neil will operate the Cartie mill near Mt. Hebron this season. He expects to begin sawing within the next few days. Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Jordan were local visitors over the week-end. Jordan is manager for the Dorris Lumber and Box company. Mr. and Mrs. J. Goff and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barr of the Associated Lumber and Box company departed one day last week by auto for Stockton and Red Bluff where they will spend a week visiting with relatives and friends. A very pleasing entertainment was furnished local citizens Friday evening by a group of Macedon young people who presented "Miss Cherry Blossom," a pretty little Japanese skit. Miss Frankie Adams as Miss Cherry Blossom carried the heaviest role of the play with credit. A. F. Padgett was a business visitor in Dorris yesterday from his ranch southeast of town.

They said the roads were still very bad and a few cars were stuck along the road.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Johnson, who for the last few years have been at the depot here, left last week for Salem, where they will make their home. Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Cartwright and H. V. Griffin visited at Silver camp Sunday. Ruby Magness and Charlie Corbin from Chiloquin walked up to Pine Ridge Sunday to spend the day with friends. Mr. and Mrs. Feder motored to the Falls yesterday. The baseball grounds are now dry and the boys will soon begin practicing. The school team is to play the Agency and some of the near-by schools as soon as they get a little practice. On account of the camps being closed the Chiloquin hotel for the last few weeks has been full. Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Harrington were Chiloquin visitors Monday. Plans are being made for a dance here. Theodore Walker was a visitor in Chiloquin Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Phil Pedigo were up Friday from Klamath Falls on business. There has been lots of absence from school the past two weeks on account of sickness.

BLY

Charley Scott Warren had quite a serious accident Monday evening when he started home from school. He was riding a young horse and in mounting it the horse got him down and either kicked or walked over him and cut a very deep gash in the fleshy part of his leg, and just missed cutting the artery. His parents were called by telephone and came to town as quickly as horses could bring them over bad roads. Warren and Marvin Cross started with him for Lakeview as soon as they could get ready that evening. Driving all night it took them 17 hours to go into Lakeview where they immediately took him to the hospital. Dr. Leithhead and Dr. Smith attended him. His wound had to have many stitches taken and they found there was some infection in it. However, he is resting easier and the swelling is going down. It is hoped he will be able to leave the hospital within a week. Mrs. Warren was not strong enough to make the trip so visited with her sister and friends in Bly for several days until Warren returned from Lakeview. Herman Trott spent a part of the day Tuesday visiting in Bly. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Campbell and daughters, Ruth and Helen, returned home from Klamath Falls on Monday. They had an accident coming home, their back upset with them but fortunately none of them were badly hurt. Mrs. Emma Keady returned home with the Campbells Monday from Klamath Falls, where she had attended the funeral of Drew Campbell. Frankie Obenchain has been out of school all week on account of illness, but was able to go home the last of the week. Mrs. Charles Collier visited in Bly on Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wallis and small son spent a few days visiting Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Givan. James Givan returned to Klamath Falls for a short stay after which he expects to return to the ranch. James Dixon, who was transacting business in Klamath Falls a few days this week, returned home Sunday. Walter Campbell has been quite ill at his home the past week. Little Ruth Campbell has been ill all week and her mother took her to Klamath Falls on Sunday to consult a doctor. It is feared she has appendicitis. O. W. Howard has been confined to his home with a severe cold the past few days. Miss Ruth Owens and Basil Hall were among the outgoing passengers on Monday's stage. Their friends have all their old shoes and rice ready for their return. Miss Goldie Whetstone, who has been ill for a short time, was taken to Klamath Falls by her mother on Wednesday. Consulting a physician she was immediately taken to the hospital and operated on for appendicitis on Saturday. She stood the operation nicely and the last report was getting along as well as could be expected. Miss Jessie Boyd is able to be out of the hospital after her operation and she and her mother are expected home in the near future. C. W. Warren moved one bunch of his sheep from the J. B. Mitchell ranch where they were being fed, to his ranch south east of Bly on Saturday. Albert Keady, who has been in Drew's valley for the past few months is visiting his mother and friends at Bly for a few days. Miss Hazel Whetstone is staying at the home of Mrs. Jas. Dixon during her mother's absence.

CHILOQUIN

Mr. Radcliffe, who is connected with the Modoc Lumber company, returned home today after being in Portland a few days on business. Mr. Strowbridge left on the train this morning for Klamath Falls. Mrs. C. Bowman and little daughter, Alice, also left this morning on the train for Klamath Falls. Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Steake went to Klamath Falls Saturday in their car.
