DORRIS

DORRIS, Calif., April 13.—Merrill Evans is reported critically ill at his home on California street. Although he has been confined to his home nearly all winter, Evans recently showed signs of improvement and was seen about town. He is 82 years of age and one of the earliest pioneers of this section.

J. C. Graham expects to leave soon with his family for San Francisco where they will make their future home. Graham will participate with his uncle, T. W. Graham, formerly of Dorris, in a retail lumber business near San Francisco.

Mrs. Olive Myers, who has been engaged at the ranch home of H. W. Mitchell as cook, has accepted a position in the same capacity at the mill of J. O'Neil near Mt. Hebron.

Miss Betty Rone, who has been confined to her home for the past two weeks with a severe cold, is again able to be about town.

Ladies of the Congregational church are preparing a program for Easter services Sunday, April 14. Several young people are participating in the musical numbers.

Harley Richardson has returned from Sacramento where he spent a few days with his wife and children.

C. R. Jordan spent yesterday in Dorris looking after local interests of the Dorris Lumber and Box company of which he is manager.

MIDLAND

A big "hard times" dance will be given in Midland Friday evening, April 21. Houston's four-piece orchestra from Klamath Falls has been secured to play. A midnight luncheon will be served. Everyone is invited to come and have a good time. The road from Midland to Klamath Falls is fine, so autos can easily get here.

Matthew Del Patti was a Klamath Falls visitor Saturday.

Howard B. Wynant returned here Wednesday from Merrill, where he had been repairing a flume. Wynant said it was in bad condition.

Frank Sexton, county club agent, was a Midland school visitor Tuesday. Sexton will give an illustrated lecture on club work after Easter.

Hilbert Largent of Miller Island was a Klamath Falls visitor Saturday.

Dominic Ferrari of this place visited friends at Olene Sunday.

George Furber was a Klamath Falls visitor Monday.

Roscoe Largent, from Klamath Falls, was a Midland visitor Thursday.

T. D. Young, local merchant, was a Klamath Falls visitor Wednesday.

Jim Backner is in Midland again after an absence of several weeks.

B. N. Lewin and Dan Gorden, plumbers for the Southern Pacific, installed a storage gasoline tank at the section house Tuesday.

Opal Hooper was absent from school Wednesday on account of illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Quimby, who had been visiting their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Young, have returned to their home at Klamath Falls.

Matthew Del Patti was a Midland visitor Friday morning.

MERRILL

Tom Dixon, county road master, has made several trips to Merrill and vicinity, looking after conditions of the roads.

Miss Young, Miss Bettis and Miss Wilson, teachers in Merrill schools, and Elmer Merrill and Chas. Stukel were members of a party that motored to Klamath Falls Sunday.

John Callahan of Klamath Falls was a Merrill visitor the first of the week.

W. N. Walker, Sr., and W. H. Turner went to Swan Lake Tuesday.

Max Hartlerode has moved into the Hunning home.

Edna Jones, who has been ill, is able to be in school again. Mrs. Jones is also reported much improved.

Mrs. Chester Hasken and two children left Saturday for Los Molinos, California, to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Wolfe, former residents of Merrill. Mrs. Hasken expects to be away about three weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Haskins and Mrs. E. H. Edgar spent Monday in Klamath Falls, shopping.

G. L. Casper, sheep inspector, has been in the Merrill valley looking over the sheep and also superintending the dipping of sheep at the Miles Moore place. Casper expects to make his home in Klamath county for some time.

A telegram was received Tuesday by N. S. Merrill, announcing the death of his brother, W. R. Merrill, at Colusa, California. The brother

General Land office, under provisions of Sec. 2455, R. S., as amended by the Act of March 28, 1912, pursuant to the application of Joseph Smith of Dairy, Oregon, Serial No. 91155, we will offer at public sale, to the highest bidder, but at not less than $3.99 per acre, at 2 o'clock P. M., on the 2nd day of May, next, at this office, the following tract of land, SE 1/4 NW 1/4, E 1/2 SW 1/4, Section 8, Township 28 south, Range 11 east, Willamette Meridian. This tract is ordered into the market on a showing that the greater portion thereof is too mountainous or too rough for cultivation. The sale will not be kept open, but will be declared closed when those present at the hour named have ceased bidding. The person making the highest bid will be required to immediately pay to the Receiver the amount thereof. Any persons claiming adversely the above-described land are advised to file their claims, or objections, on or before the time designated for sale. F. P. LIGHT, Register. A-1,8,15,22,29 M-6

OUR ANNUAL OFFER

Subscribe for The Herald during the month of April and make 75 cents do a dollar's work.

It has long been the annual custom of The Evening Herald during the month of April to reduce the rate of subscription to all annual subscribers, old and new, paying cash in advance.

THE EVENING HERALD IS A NEWSPAPER THAT IS Up to a Standard, not Down to a Price

We offer no cut rates, no special privileges, except this one annual inducement.

The Herald during the coming year, as improving business conditions justify the expense of expansion, will be a bigger and better paper.

It offers you today a service unexcelled by any paper in any town of this size on the Pacific Coast. It gives you all the local news, the cream of the daily telegraph news, and sport, comic and fashion features. It is a clean home paper, and its highest endeavor is to maintain a policy in news presentation that will not offend the most sensitive woman, or suggest aught but good to the mind of the growing child.

For thirty days only, beginning Monday, April 3rd, The Evening Herald's annual subscription rate will be:

$5.00 per year by carrier; regular price, $6.50.
$4.00 per year by mail to any home in Klamath county.
$5.00 a year by mail to all points outside Klamath county.
