

"Isn't It Funny What a Difference Just a Few Years Will Make" --- In Easter Bonnets

MISS 1862 TRACING back to the days of the civil war girl. She wore an Easter bonnet with wide crown swathed in ostrich feathers. A few flowers peeped through on a brim of black taffeta above and white silk underneath.

MISS 1872 SAUCY, to say the least, was the be-feathered bonnet worn by fair Easter paraders a half century ago. White ostrich plumes cascaded down over a brim just wide enough to cast a shadow over the brow.

MISS 1882 SHE would come to town in her Quaker gown and bonnet—would the Miss of 1882. Soft straw covered with gray silk and trimmed with shy pink roses. This gave a youthful look and appealed to the youth of that day.

MISS 1892 INTRODUCING the last word in chicness and dash. It prevailed just 30 years ago on Easter morn. 'Twas a sailor bonnet with pert crown and saucy brim. Ostrich feathers drooped far down over the side.

MISS 1902 LIKE the headgear of proud cavaliers was the hat which the early twentieth century girls wore on Easter morn. There was a wide brim of flower embroidered silk and a drooping ostrich feather at the side.

MISS 1912 ONLY 10 years ago—yet Miss 1912 peeps at us from a bonnet that would appear queer in this day. Truly a picture hat. It was exceptionally large, with paragon brim of flowered silk and ostrich feathers covered the brim.

MISS 1922 HERE we are, up to date! Ostrich feathers, after a run of 50 years, have passed out. And Missy of the present day steps forth in a unique bonnet of woven straw with clusters of color silk and a dash of ribbon.

"FALL OF BABYLON" TO BE SHOWN HERE SUNDAY D. W. Griffith's "The Fall of Babylon," produced on an even more elaborate scale than "The Birth of a Nation" and "Hearts of the World" comes to the Strand Sunday. Some idea of the startling magnitude of this latest of the Griffith super-pictures may be gained from the statement that it cost more than $550,000 to produce, is presented by a company totaling 125,000 men and women, and has 7,500 horses taking part in the great chariot races and pageants attending the Feast of Balthazar. The great walls of Babylon, with their giant height of 200 feet and the spacious boulevards built up on their tops; the wonderful halls in the Temple of Balthazar, halls a mile in length, with giant elephants of alabaster rising up along their sides; the vari-colored lights that play and glow upon the fountains of perfume and wine; the dancing girls, the High Priestesses, and all the mighty splendor and luxury of those ancient days—these are but the outstanding features of Griffith's "The Fall of Babylon."

"The Fall of Babylon" will be the Easter feature at the Strand Sunday. There will be no change in prices—10 cents and 20 cents.

300 IN CLUB WORK

Boys and Girls of Klamath County Showing Good Progress

Three hundred boys and girls of Klamath county are now enrolled in county club work, according to Frank Sexton, county club agent. Among those who are doing excellent work, Sexton says, is Stella Schreiner of the Spring Lake district, who began club work three years ago. In the sewing division she has completed three divisions of ten hours each, as well as the cooking project of ten lessons. Her work was exhibited at the county fair each year, and was awarded two first and one second prize. In June she will attend the two-weeks' free course for boys' and girls' clubs at Oregon Agricultural college. "Habits of industry and thrift, initiative and resourcefulness are developed in the club work," Sexton said. "And we feel that the practical knowledge the children are gaining in the work will make them more useful citizens and help them to make their way in the world."

TOPSY GRADE IS OPEN

Going Reported Rough in Spots, But Possible for Automobiles

W. L. Frain, road supervisor, reports that Topsy grade is now open to travel, although rough and muddy in spots. Rocks which made passage of the road difficult have been blasted out and cars are now using the road without trouble. The road has never been entirely closed, says the supervisor, although passage has been difficult and cars have essayed the trip infrequently. Autoists returning from Chiloquin report the road to be in bad condition in many places, particularly in the vicinity of Lamms' mill. While the stages are making regular trips, a number of cars were reported to have been stuck in the mud.

IN THE COURT

Allen vs. Allen

Default order was entered in the circuit court today in the divorce case of Earl Glenn against Josephine Allen. The case will be heard during the early part of next week.

Colahan vs. Colahan

Decree of divorce was entered by Circuit Judge Stone yesterday to Amy L. Colahan from Stephen J. Colahan. From the testimony given at the trial yesterday, lack of support and excessive indulgence in gambling and drinking caused the separation.

Snook vs. Snook

Judge Stone today signed an order of default in the divorce case of T. L. against Bertha G. Snook. The testimony of the plaintiff will be taken this coming week.

Martin vs. Wilson, et al.

Return on execution for $5457.76 was filed by the sheriff's office this morning in the case of the Alexander Martin estate against C. D. Willson and A. T. and Alta Edith Lobert Miller. The execution covered lots five and six in block 32, of Klamath Falls.

Mitchell vs. Hooper, et al.

Deposition of the testimony of J. B. Mitchell, covering 58 pages was filed in the circuit court this morning, which pertains to the $100,000 damage action now pending between Mitchell and Marshall Hooper and others, wherein Mitchell claims he has been damaged in that amount.

SPORTS

Nifty Nine Will Play Merrill Here Tomorrow

If the weather permits, baseball fans will be permitted to see the "Nifty Nine" in action here tomorrow afternoon against a team from Merrill.

The snow this last week has made the dragging of Modoc field impossible until tomorrow morning. Should the weather stay warm, the initial game of the season should prove a good one.

The Klamath team will be composed of Chas. Grove, catcher; Robert Goetz, pitcher; Chet. Shriver, first base; Frank Peyton, second base; Gen. Dow, short; Harold Wortley, third base; Pat Montgomery, left field; Kenneth Mater, center field; Vern Christy, right field.

A five inning preliminary between the "Nifty Nine" seconds and Del. Robertson's "Bear Cats" is planned.

TONIGHT AT THE STRAND 10c WHERE EVERYBODY GOES HOME OF THE HODKINSON FEATURES Tomorrow, Easter Sunday the Great Biblical Picture "The Fall of Babylon" A Purple Romance of Another Day The story of a brilliant people who were dust when the Gentle Carpenter was born; who hungered for food and love and happiness—EVEN AS YOU AND I. They built a marvelous city, Babylon the Mighty, with massive walls that only treachery could reduce. A lover, the good Belshazzar, wore the legal robe, torn from him in death by the politicians, the schemers, who betrayed the city and enslaved a people that they might humiliate their ruler—EVEN AS TODAY. And a wild, lovable little sweetheart from the mountains, who adored the king and loved a singer, might have saved them all. But there was laughter and wine and feasting, and romantic plans. It is the story of Today, as well as Yesterday. The story of you and me. 125,000 men and women in the mighty production; 7,500 horses in the marvelous chariot races along the Euphrates. Studebaker LIGHT-SIX Five-passenger, 40-horsepower 112-inch wheelbase Card Type Standard Equipment $1045 THE Studebaker LIGHT-SIX will appeal to every buyer who wants a low-priced car that will be satisfactory in performance, appearance, comfort and endurance. And in addition to its recognized superiority in these essentials, the LIGHT-SIX carries refinements found only on more expensive cars. The LIGHT-SIX is equipped with cowl ventilator operated from the instrument board; cowl parking lights; inside and outside door handles and large rectangular plate-glass window in rear curtain. A thief-proof transmission lock, which reduces the rate of insurance to LIGHT-SIX owners 15 to 20 per cent, and cord tires are also standard equipment. Long, semi-elliptic springs (50-inch in rear; 36-inch in front) and soft, genuine leather upholstered cushions, nine inches deep, provide unusual comfort. Its 40-horsepower motor delivers ample power for the hard pull. And vibration is practically eliminated by Studebaker's method of machining the crankshaft and connecting rods. The intrinsic value of the LIGHT-SIX is unmatched at anywhere near the price because Studebaker does not skimp on materials or workmanship but uses the best. It is built complete in the most modern and complete automobile plant in the world, making possible its low price of $1045, f. o. b. factory. Studebaker has been building quality vehicles and selling them at fair prices for nearly three-quarters of a century and is the largest builder of six-cylinder cars in the world.
