IT'S QUEER

SOME folks believe what they want to believe.

If ten responsible citizens, of proved integrity, would go to the nearest notary, and take solemn oath that the mayor of this city is an honorable man; that his private life is exemplary; his public acts honest, and their results efficient and conducive to the general welfare—would they carry weight in quarters from which the mayor has incurred censure?

We venture to say they would receive scant attention.

But a paid spy, irresponsible to any save those who hire him, having no fixed place of abode, with no known reputation, makes an affidavit besmirching the character of the city's chief executive, and presumably intelligent citizens profess to believe it.

We will not degrade our own self-respect by attaching one shred of weight to testimony in which there is such reason for perjury.

We believe in the fundamental christianity and justice of this community too greatly to think that many of our neighbors will give ear to the attack upon Mayor Wiley.

It is unfortunate that a public official, because he has done his duty, should have to defend himself from accusations from such a source.

It makes it hard to secure high-minded men of independent mind to stand for public office, at a time when we sorely need the most calm and resolute leadership.

It is an injustice to the individual against whom the charges are brought; but it is a far graver injustice against the future welfare of the community.

CHURCH NO ISSUE

(Oregon Voter)

ANTI-CATHOLIC feeling is behind the opposition to the reelection of Congressman N. J. Sinnott in the Second Congressional district, the Eastern Oregon district. As a congressman Sinnott has made good in a manner that is peculiarly satisfactory to his constituents, and besides that, he has attained a standing in Congress that has caused him to be discussed extensively as of cabinet caliber. The only criticism against Sinnott is that he is, or is supposed to be, a Catholic. So the Ku Klux Klan and all of the old-time anti-Catholic organizers are busy.

James H. Gwinn of Pendleton, a strong candidate because of his excellent reputation for energy and enterprise, is the opposing candidate and has this anti-Catholic backing. But there are too many people in Eastern Oregon who are indifferent as to a man's religion, believing it to be his own business, for the anti-Sinnott effort to attain any formidable proportions. In spite of his great popularity, it is doubtful whether Gwinn can carry his own home town against Sinnott.

James Harvey Graham of Baker, a reality operator, is as usual after the democratic nomination. His name is getting some good advertising as a result of his regular running for Congress, so much so that if Eastern Oregon should ever go democratic in a landslide Graham might get to be congressman for a term.

SIX SPECIAL ACTS AT STRAND THEATRE TONIGHT

Six big special acts, a riot of fun, will mark amateur night at the Strand tonight, in addition to which will appear Henry B. Walthall in "The Boomerang," a picture replete with thrills.

Wednesday night will be shown "One Shot Ross," with Roy Stewart in the stellar role.

SHASTA VIEW

The ranchers in this section are beginning to wonder if spring has forgotten to come this way. Unless we get warmer weather soon we will all be wondering where our outables will come from.

We understand the roads in Pee valley are the worst ever seen at this time of year.

Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Hunt and wife were visitors at the county seat Saturday last.

C. M. Kirkpatrick and daughters, Beth and Eliza and W. A. Layman were Merrill visitors Saturday.

Mrs. John Liskey has returned home after spending a few weeks with her mother near San Francisco.

Mrs. A. Turned of Klamath Falls spent a few days last week visiting her daughters, Mrs. Lida Kirkpatrick and Mrs. Emma Wilson.

F. W. McManus, wife and children Elizabeth, Estent, Dorothy and Wilfred of Klamath Falls were visitors at J. L. Bailey's Sunday and Monday.

Mrs. Bell Kirkpatrick has returned from her visit at Merrill to her home here with her daughter, Mrs. W. A. Layman. We are sorry to note that she is in quite poor health.

The school at Shasta View will give an entertainment at the school house Friday evening, April 21. A small admission will be asked to defray expenses of costumes for the play.

A most pleasing Easter program was given at the Union high school building at Malin Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Macken had charge of the program assisted by Mrs. Hannon and others. Children from the adjoining districts and the Sunday school from Shasta View took part and they all deserve much praise considering the distance some live from Malin and the limited rehearsals. Rare musical talent was shown among the young ladies and we must mention the sweet solo sung by baby Mullenex, four years old, who did not miss a note from start to finish. Charlie Dobry, cornetist and Raymond Van Meter, violinist assisted in the choruses which was highly appreciated by all. It is hoped that this is only the beginning of other programs given by the children and young people.

BLY

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Parker were in town in their car on Monday.

Miss Louise Howard visited Mrs. Clarence Wallis Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Bell spent Sunday with Mrs. Bell's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. James Dixon and family were in Bly on Sunday.

Amos Lundy was a Bly visitor on Sunday.

Friends of Charley Scott Warren will be glad to know he is no able to sit up in a chair, and is getting along nicely from his wound.

A. J. Jaenicke, supervisor of the beetle camps in the Bly unit, arrived from Klamath Falls on the stage on Friday, and is looking the territory over before establishing camps. He rode out on the Lakeview stage on Saturday to the Lake county line, and in looking over that section thought he would be able to establish a camp near the Owens ranch within a few days.

Miss Bernice Howard spent the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Bell.

INTENTIONS OF CIVIC LEAGUE

matters, and all talked freely. His impression of what the mayor said along the line suggested was that citizens should co-operate with officials in enforcing the laws and that the executive officer was often powerless to enforce the law fully without the co-operation of the people.

Merrill Evans of Dorris Is Dead at Age of 82

DORRIS, Calif., April 18.—Merrill Evans, one of the oldest survivors of the group of early pioneers who penetrated the wilderness to Stakiyou county to find homes, died at his home here Sunday night following a gradual decline due to his extreme age of 82 years. At his bedside were his two sons and two daughters, Mrs. Jennie Lang, Mrs. George Otto, Charles Evans and Williams Evans, and his wife, who also was one of the early pioneers to this country.

Merrill Evans had been active in many business enterprises, influential in the development of Dorris and vicinity. Until a few years ago he was president of the Butte Valley bank, and at the time of his death was one of the directors of that institution. During his many long years of activity he accumulated not only worldly wealth, but a host of friends who mourn his passing. The remains will be laid to rest in the local cemetery Wednesday afternoon.

TO DEPICT HISTORY

Children of Riverside School Plan Pageant of Early Klamath Days

Pupils of the Riverside school on Friday afternoon will stage a pageant of early Klamath history, depicting the early days in this territory through personification of pioneer characters. This is in conjunction with the plan adopted by the city schools for study of early Klamath history.

Captain O. C. Applegate, W. A. Delsell, and E. M. Chilcote are among the speakers who are appearing at the schools this week to recount historic facts and legends in order to assist the children in their studies.

SCHOOL FUND RICHER

$400 Goes in Treasury When Indicted Men Jump Bail

Klamath county's school fund was made $400 richer yesterday by the turning over of the cash bail of George Snyder and Jim Davis, $250 and $150 respectively. The men were indicted by the grand jury for running a gambling place. Both had entered a plea of guilty by their attorney, as they were not required to appear in person in a misdemeanor case, but both "jumped" their bail and left for parts unknown.

BLY MAN DROPS DEAD

A. Vandeger Expires at Garrett Ranch Following Hearty Supper
 A. Vandeger, 72, a resident of the Bly country, dropped dead at the Tom Garrett ranch near Bly following a hearty supper last night. Death was due to acute dilatation of the heart.

Vandeger had been working on ranches near Bly and was well known in that section. County Coroner Whitlock said he was unable to find trace of any relations.

The funeral was to have been held at Bly this afternoon.

BERRY CULTURE

ANTLER, Calif., April 18.—Culture of strawberry vines is becoming an important industry in this mountainous section. Over 1,000,000 vines have been shipped this year to central California points, local growers state, and plans are under way for doubling the production next year.

Livestock needs grass and water, forest fires mean an end of both.

Plant Near Chiloquin Operating on Nine-Hour Basis

Work resumed yesterday morning at the Sprague River lumber company sawmill, on Sprague river six miles from Chiloquin, with 25 men employed. The mill is operating at about three-fourths of its capacity of 40,000 feet daily and on a nine-hour basis. J. M. Bedford, a member of the firm, said that the only storage on men was in lumber piles.

The Chiloquin lumber company mill at Chiloquin has not resumed, as was reported here today. The only work underway, it was learned, is road grading.

The Shaw-Bertram sawmill is continuing on a 10-hour basis with 25 men employed, according to J. R. Shaw.

KUYKENDALL UPHELD

Supreme Court Affirms Former Circuit Judge in Two Cases

SALEM, April 18.—The supreme court today decided two Klamath county cases affirmed former Circuit Judge Kuykendall in the case of A. E. Yoden versus A. Kinney and Lena Barkhurst, appellant. The suit was to determine title to property. The court also affirmed Kuykendall in the case of John Brown, appellant, versus Thomas Drake and others, a suit arising out of settlement of an estate.

OUCH! BACKACHE! RUB LUMBAGO OR STIFFNESS AWAY

When your back is sore and lame or lumbago, sciatica or rheumatism has you stiffened up, don't suffer! Get a small trial bottle of old, honest "St. Jacobs Oil" at any drug store, pour a little in your hand and rub it right on your aching back, and by the time you count fifty, the soreness and lameness is gone. Don't stay crippled! This soothing penetrating oil needs to be used only once. It takes the pain right out and ends the misery. It is magical, yet absolutely harmless and doesn't burn the skin. Nothing else stops lumbago, sciatica, backache or rheumatism so promptly. It never disappoints!

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Bring Back Color and Lustre To Hair

That beautiful, even shade of dark, glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray or streaked, just an application or two of Sage and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundredfold. Don't bother to prepare the mix-
