

The Office Cat

BY JUNIUS

JAZZ!

A tin hispan and an auto horn,
A squeaky fiddle and a rat eating corn,
A baby's rattle and a puppy's whine,
A cowbell jangle and a rosined twine—
That's jazz.

A saxophone, an exploding bomb,
A locomotive whistle and a big bass drum,
A yawling tomcat and a frightened fowl,
A ripping seam and a hound dog's howl—
That's jazz.

A callope and a whirlingig,
An alarm clock tattoo and a squealing pig,
A heathen Chinese saying his prayers,
A monkey in a china closet falling downstairs—
That's jazz.

There is $1.05 worth of silver in a dollar and $9.30 worth of steak, opines R. E. Wright.

He Was a "Wiser"

"I suppose you will take friend wife to the automobile show this year."

"No, sir, I haven't the price."
"What are you talking about, it will only cost you a buck to get in."
"That's all right; but it would probably cost me a sedan or a roadster to get out."

There's always room at the top for the cream.

Ted White says it takes a drug store to make the girls blush.

A farmer living near Flint, Michigan, dropped dead while splitting wood. It would be a great saving of manpower if men would let their wives split the kindling.

The report that Babe Ruth struck out twice during a practice game caused more excitement at our house than the recent conference did.

We have noted, from our past experiences, that a whole lot of folks sort of run to seed about this time every year. Watch your step.

Our Leisure Class

"You have no leisure class in America," said the Englishman.
"Oh, haven't we," returned the American. "Did you ever see one of our plumbers at work?"

A magazine writer hails Messrs. Mellon and Schwab as our leading "financial revivalists." Won't Billy Sunday be jealous?

Russia claims we owe her several million rubles. That's almost a dollar.

The Rating Passion

Percy—"Now that we've been all through the exhibits, what has pleased you the most in the show?"
Polly—"The ladies' gowns, old dear."

Will Baldwin says the most needed auto accessory is a bank balance.

The female after specie knows how to work the male.

"No, We Wouldn't Look"

"Did you ever see a salad dress in the Boston Transcript inquiry?" inquires a waggish correspondent.

Clatskanie—One camp output of 5,000,000 ft. logs per month.

Vernonia to build $25,000 high school.

Newberg to build community hall.

SAGE TEA KEEPS YOUR HAIR DARK

When Mixed With Sulphur It Brings Back Its Beautiful Lustre At Once

Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advancing age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray, and looks streaked, just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundredfold.

Don't stay gray! Look young! Either prepare the recipe at home or get from and drug store a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which is merely the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients. Thousands of folks recommend this ready-to-use preparation, because it darkens the hair beautifully; besides, no one can possibly tell, as it darkens so naturally and evenly. You moisten a sponge or soft brush with it, drawing this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two its natural color is restored, and it becomes thick, glossy and lustrous, and you appear years younger.—Adv.

NOTICE OF SHERIFF'S SALE

BY VIRTUE of an execution in foreclosure duly issued by the clerk of the circuit court of the county of Klamath, State of Oregon, dated the 21st day of April, 1922, in a certain suit in the circuit court, "vs" said County and State, wherein The First National Bank of Klamath Falls, Oregon, a corporation, as plaintiff, recovered judgment against Fred M. Gordon, defendant, for the sum of $200 with interest thereon at the rate of 8 per cent per annum from May 4, 1920, attorney's fees in the sum of $100 and costs and disbursements taxed at $36.10, on the 21st day of April, 1922.

Notice is hereby given that I will on the 29th day of May, 1922, at the front door of the county court house at Klamath Falls, Klamath County, Oregon, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of said day, sell at public auction to the highest bidder, for cash, the following described property, to-wit: Southwest quarter of northeast quarter of Section 32, Township 49 north, range 12 East of the Willamette Meridian, in Klamath County, Oregon, together with all and singular the tenements, hereditaments and appurtenances thereunto belonging or in any wise appertaining.

taken and levied upon as the property of the said Fred M. Gordon, or as much thereof as may be necessary to satisfy the said judgment in favor of plaintiff and against said defendant with interest thereon, together with all costs and disbursements that have or may accrue.

L. L. LOW, Sheriff,
by BURT E. HAWKINS, Deputy.
Dated at Klamath Falls, Oregon,

HOARDING MONEY HURTS BUSINESS

Hoarding money—hiding it at home or in other secret places—is a positive hindrance to business, affecting also those who hoard.

Credit, so necessary in business, is based to a certain extent upon money in circulation. Withdrawal of money from circulation necessitates a reduction of credit or brings about a state of inflation.

Hoarding money is neither good business nor patriotic. Keep your money working all the time in a bank account.

We cordially invite you to keep your savings in this strong, friendly bank.
