GIRLS' SCOPE WIDER

Speaker Declares Louisa M. Alcott Notions Out of Date

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., April 21.—The horizon of an intelligent girl of 18 today is wider than that of the savant of 1800. Mrs. Robert C. Speer of New York city, president of the national board of the Young Women's Christian association, said in presenting the report of the board to the national convention of the association here today.

"Notions of girls derived from Louisa M. Alcott are out of date," she said.

"Girls are beset with complex interests; a Pandora's box of new emotions and experiences fills the air with thrills and stings for them. The sense of adventure, of 'something lost beyond the ranges, something calling for us,' summons them out of the old highroad of custom. Unless they are led aright there may be years of wandering in the wilderness.

"There could be no greater challenge. We are interpreters of life for young women. The negative of Sinal no longer has power with a world where curiosity has displaced fear. Our place is not with the tables of stone, but with the followers of the Master who sat on a hillock in Galilee and told the listening crowd where the satisfactions of life are to be found."

OPEN SHOP WAR ON

Activities of Bakersfield Curtailed From 50 to 70 Per Cent

BAKERSFIELD, April 21.—Building activities in Bakersfield today is curtailed from 50 to 70 percent of normal as a result of union men quitting jobs where the "open shop" had been placed in force and the discharging of men who declared their unwillingness to work with non-union craftsmen, according to varying estimates of union officials and officers of the Bakersfield builders' exchange and the Industrial association of Bakersfield.
