WHAT DOORS BELIEVE:
Every movie person's dirty
(Tisn't true)
Every flapper's bold and flirty
(Tisn't true)
All have sordid aims and views Except Hoover, Ford and Hughes.
Only lies are in the "news"
(Tisn't true)
C. O. & E. is always late (Tisn't true)
S. P. hits that same old gait (Tisn't true)
Every Englishman is dense, Yankees all have lots of sense, Optimists won't take offense—
(Tisn't true)
A fellow colyum ed says that after buying the Little Colyum a new pair of shoes the opinion persists that shoeleggers are as bad as bootleggers.
Bob Allen says about all the polish some men acquire through life is on the seat of their pants.
A certain Klamath Falls man says that currency has to be pretty elastic to go around his family.
"It's funny how quickly we get used to not paying the extra penny," marvels Fred Heilbronner.
C. P. Maguire says that just about the time that everybody is convinced that the public has no money along comes a stock salesman or a so-called financial "wizard" who scoops up a wagon load.
She sang quite prettily, but her favored song was called "Falling Down," and her father couldn't stand it. He said it reminded him of the rent.
Fred Fleet says an optimist is a worker on a job who determines that he is going to make good at it; a pessimist is a loafer out of a job who fears he will be offered one.
Ed Dunham says when you buy admiration you are compelled to pay for it regularly if you wish to keep it.
It is almost to the point now where the man who says he killed Taylor must prove it.
A RATTING GOOD REMEDY
A fellow who worked in Fall River, Was bothered to death with his liver;
Said the doc, what you need Is a shake-up at speed, Go and purchase a second-hand fly-ver.
The Love Story
"After a fellow has been saying it with flowers like I have—"
"Yes?"
"I think the girl ought to punctuate it with kisses." Bill Davenport says one of the obstacles toward getting ahead is that there are too many people who don't know how to manage a dime, who imagine that they could manage a dollar.
An East side maiden lady is said to scatter pepper under her bed every night. She figures that if a burglar should slip in and get under the bed he'll sneeze, and that will give her a chance to catch a man.
No Cause For Alarm
"What are girls coming to with their modern dresses?"
"Aw, it's just a different style package."
"Huh?"
"The goods are all right."
An anxious inquirer wants to know why a rooster flaps its wings when it crows. We'll confess that we don't know, but if any of the poultry experts can answer this "flapper" question we're willing to print the answer.
If failure is good experience, a lot of us are getting wise.
Of course the short skirt must go, and every time we look out of the window we see it going.
Every shoe in our store is greatly reduced. Sale Ends May 2nd. Enders.

BUSINESS OVER U. S. IMPROVING

ported inability to meet the demand for reliable farm workers. While no shortage of farm labor was indicated in the midwest, some states reported that there was work for everybody who wanted this type of employment, and Kansas declarations were that only good weather was needed to reduce unemployment to a minimum. Farm labor wages generally were around $35 a month, with board and lodging.
Considerable unemployment was declared to exist among Pacific coast marine workers, with no indication of improvement.
The most adverse statement from a state employment head came from Louisiana where F. E. Wood, commissioner of labor, declared that "the employment situation in Louisiana was bad." Wood said he estimated 25,000 men were unemployed in that state, 7,000 of them in New Orleans.
A reduction in wages was noted in statements from several states, along with declarations that the efficiency of labor was increasing. Several states reported that the recent campaign of the American Legion to place former soldiers in positions had met with considerable success and had helped materially to decrease unemployment.
Statements from some of the large industrial centers were encouraging.
Detroit reported that employment in the automobile industry was 70 percent of normal, while the general percentage of employment was 65 percent of normal, as compared with 30 percent a year ago.
Among the brightest reports were those from New Jersey, North Dakota, Ohio, Idaho, Utah and Nebraska although they were accompanied in one instance by the warning that no outsiders were in demand. Nebraska was listed May 1, 1921 among the states with considerable unemployment with 12,000 estimated as out of work.

CREAM CLEARS A
STUFFED-UP HEAD

Instantly Opens Every Air Passage—Closes Throat.
If your nostrils are clogged and your head is stuffed because of nasty catarrh or a cold, apply a little pure, antiseptic cream into your nostrils.
It penetrates through every air passage, soothing and healing swollen, inflamed membranes and you get instant relief.
Try this. Get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm at any drug store. Your clogged nostrils open right up. Your head is clear; no more hawking or snuffling. Count fifty. All the stuffiness, dryness, struggling for breath is gone. You feel fine.—Adv.

Saving
I HAVE often been asked to define the true secret of success.
It is THRIFT in all its phases, THRIFT as applied to saving.
A young man may have many friends, but he will find none so steadfast, so ready to respond to his wants, so capable of pushing him ahead, as a little leather-covered book, with the name of a bank on its cover.
Saving is the first great principle of all success. It creates independence, it gives a young man standing, it fills him with vigor, it stimulates him with the proper energy; in fact, it brings to him the best part of any success—happiness and contentment.
If it were possible to inject the quality of saving into every boy, we would have a great many more real men.—Sir Thomas Lipton
