

The Office Cat

BY JUNIUS

"Judge, I'm down and out." "Maybe you're down," said the wise judge, "but you're not out. Six months!"

"Our mama is very kind to us. Every time we drink our cod-liver oil without crying to get a dime each."

"And what do you do with the money?" "Mamma buys more oil with it."

Ted Case says, most men like little women and little women like most men.

Everything comes to those who wait and the lazy man waits to greet it. But success comes on with rapid gait to the fellow who goes to meet it.

Today's Fireside Puzzle If a young horse is a colt, a young cow a calf, a young sheep a lamb, could you call the young camel a camiole?

Doc Goble says if men had the gift of second sight there would be fewer cases of love at first sight.

Naturally "My wis used to play the banjo beautifully." "Now she picks on you, I suppose."

"Be kind to animals week" should include motor cars, John Auten says, since a car now is the only pet many persons have around the place.

VOLSTEAD MATHEMATICS Two pints, one quart. Two quarts, one fight. One fight, two cops. Two cops, one judge. One judge, thirty days.

Columbus: "Was there any chewing gum?" Sailor: "No, sir." Columbus: "Then it must be the West Indies we're coming to, and I'd hoped it was going to be America."

Tell me not in mournful numbers That Klamath Falls is on the bum. Now lets all pull together, And see how quick she'll hum.

Most women think that if they had all the money their husbands spend for tobacco they could get everything that is needed about the house.

Lloyd Low says once upon a time there was a county sheriff who refused to wear his bright star badge of office.

Deacon: Do you know anything about parts?

Choir Leader (formerly automobile mechanic): Sure. The soprano needs a new valve, and the bass ought to have his exhaust fixed.

Digging wells is about the only business where you don't have to begin at the bottom.

Food for thought is the only kind that remains at the old price in the restaurants opines Fred Fletcher.

Foolish Fable Once there was a woman who never talked about anybody else and who did not even listen to scandal when others gave utterance.

A Night Raider "Never ask your husband for money," counseled the old married woman.

"I never have to," retorted the young bride, proudly. "Charley's such a darling. He sleeps like a baby all night long."

All men are born free and equal in this country—but some of them get married—gargles Amos Tash.

These spring days are getting pretty fine, but there are some who seem to prefer moonshine to sunshine.

Silence is golden, especially when the tax assessor is around—opines M. L. Johnson.

The Way "A sixty dollar hat?" "Yes." "My husband wouldn't buy me a sixty dollar hat." "He would if you started to yell for a grand piano."

Don't be a wheelbarrow man in a motor age. It takes high-power ideas to buy high-power cars.

WHY IS IT? They lift their eyebrows. They heighten their complexions. They tilt their chins. They raise their voices. They elevate their skirts. They build up their heels.

About the only thing to say in favor of bobbed hair, is that it is obviously fastened at one end.

One genius has put revolving appliances on a pair of Fords and is using them for military hair brushes.

WILL NOT INCLUDE LAKE PORTLAND, May 5.—Granting of a 15-year lease of five acres of land at Diacomd lake to George L. Howard of Jacksonville is believed to indicate that the lake will not be included in Crater National park. Fourteen hundred tourists visited the lake last summer.

HAS KEYS TO ELEVEN CITIES

Hanging in the room which Marshal Foch of France has reserved in his home for the thousands of presents he received while touring the United States under the auspices of the American Legion are the keys to eleven America's largest cities. All the gifts which America bestowed on the marshal are in his "American room" except the famous Montana bob cat which now paces a cage in the Paris Zoological Gardens.

COUPLE TELLS FRIENDS WHAT CHANGED THEM

It Is Hard to Tell Which of Us Is the More Enthusiastic About Tanlac, Says Husband.

"It is hard to tell who thinks the most of Tanlac, my wife or myself," said C. L. Johnson, well known carpenter and farmer living on R. F. D. 1, Box 72, Troutdale, Oregon. "My stomach and kidneys bothered me a lot. No food seemed to agree with me, and gas seemed to stay in my stomach all the time. My back was weak and lame and it was all I could do to get out of my chair at times. My sleep was all broken up and it took all my grit to pull through every day."

"My wife was troubled with chronic indigestion and wasn't eating hardly as much as I was. Well, Tanlac has done us both so much good we have fine appetites, eat anything, and feel better than in years. We both think a lot of Tanlac and are always telling our friends about it."

FARMERS WHO SUCCEED

Of all the successful farmers whom you know, is there one who does not maintain a banking connection and a checking account?

A checking account is particularly useful for a farmer, as it enables him to safeguard his funds by prompt deposit in person or by mail, and simplifies the paying out of money to meet obligations—supplying a legal receipt for every check written.

Farmers' accounts cordially welcomed here—always.
