MOTHER'S DAY

Who said: "Hitch your wagon to a star?"
Who seeks inspiration from afar?
God hitched my wagon to a star—
MY MOTHER
And far or near, long day or year;
I need no other.

WE WISH that we could recall the name of the author of the foregoing tribute to Mother. It has slipped our memory, but he expresses beautifully a sentiment common to the hearts of all true men and women.

Tomorrow is the day set aside by custom for honoring the mothers of all of us; by renewed devotion and evidence of the affection in which we hold them, if they are still with us, or by rendering silent tribute at the shrine of memory if they are not.

Fortune favors every individual who today has opportunity to pay homage to his mother in the flesh.
He may be poor in worldly goods, rank low in the esteem of his follows, but if he can go tomorrow—or write, if distance bars—and pour four words, "I love you, Mother," into ears that never failed to attend his most idle speech, then he is fortunate far above the most wealthy of his fellows whom death has deprived of that privilege.

Men and women prize lightly the gifts they possess. Not until the rare jewel has slipped beyond their grasp do they appreciate it at its true worth. So it is with the overflowing wealth of mother love. It is taken for granted while we have it; not until it has become a memory is it highly prized.

Let the world know, as well as her to whom the tribute is directed, that you have a true man's or woman's reverence for the great gift that the Creator endowed you with as part of your inalienable birthright—mother love.

A flower in mother's memory—red if she is living, white if she lives only in loving memory, will be not only a token of respect due your mother, but in honoring her you will stamp yourself as one whom—regardless how undeserving otherwise—the world must honor.

DOES SHE SMILE ENOUGH?
When she learns of the conveniences, she will be satisfied with nothing but electricity in her home.
Why do thousands use electricity—When electric cleaners cost $50.00 and laundries $60?
Electric irons cost $6.00 and fuel heated cost 20¢?
Automobiles $400.00 to $6,000.00, while a horse and buggy costs $200.00?
It's the SERVICE she gets; the ease in accomplishing the everyday tasks of life.
