CRED NOT ISSUE

EVERY sensible citizen in the state deprecates the attempt to inject a religious issue into the primary political campaign in Oregon. It is utterly foreign to American principles. There is no justification in reason for a religious feud in this state.

The responsibility rests solely upon the Ku Klux Klan, an organization born in the south and fostered under the leadership and paying tribute to an "Imperial Wizard" who resides in the south. It must not, can not and should not find any abiding place in Oregon.

Protestant leaders are opposing the pernicious doctrines of the Ku Klux Klan with as much vigor as Catholics or Jews. Masons, Knights of Pythias and Elks lodges are condemning the Klan more severely than we have any record of the Knights of Columbus doing.

We know of no denunciation of the Ku Klux Klan from the lips of priest or rabbi that has as much stinging, logical force as the exhortation of such destructive and un-American tactics by the Rev. Robert G. Armstrong, a Congregationalist minister, who from his pulpit at Spencer, Massachusetts, according to the Worcester (Mass.) Telegram, delivered the following reasons for refusing an invitation to join the Klan:

The man who joins the Ku Klux Klan betrays his lack of the real spirit of American democracy. How do you like the words, "Imperial Palace," "Invisible Empire"? It makes me think of the Kaiser and his vain boasting or Satan and his hosts as described in Paradise Lost.

Invisible Empire? What does a true American want of an invisible empire? What America wants and needs is not men who fight under cover parading in nightgowns when they would better be asleep, but men brave enough, courageous enough to come out in the open and fight the evils that you see. The world is never going to be saved by subterfuge. American democracy does not need the secrecy of the Ku Klux Klan.

The man who joins the Klan shows his lack of appreciation of the men who have made this country what it is. Who will say that Chief Justice White was not a true American because he happened to be born a Catholic? Yet he served, as few men have served, in one of the highest positions in this nation, placed there, not by a fellow Catholic, but by a Protestant president of the most extreme position of faith.

Who will say that Morgenthau was not a true American because he happened to be born a Jew? And yet he served America as few men have in his critical position as ambassador to Turkey before he entered the war.

To join the Ku Klux Klan means to deny the fundamental teachings of God who has told us in His revealed word that He is no respecter of persons.

In the appeal sent out by the Klan soliciting new members for the order, the kind of men wanted is summoned up in these words: "American, native born citizens of the United States, white, Protestant, Gentile, intelligent, honest, loyal and fearless."

If a man is intelligent he will see the futility of such an organization. If he is honest he will recognize his debt to all races and classes of men who have helped in the marvelous growth and development of this nation. If he is loyal he will be able to abide by the constitution of this nation and will recognize all men as having a free and fair right here. If he is fearless he need not cloak his fight against evil behind a nightgown and under cover of darkness. He will take his stand for law and order and challenge other men to stand with him. If he is 100 per cent American he will welcome every man and woman who contributes to the welfare of the nation. If he is Christian his charity will be broad enough to receive Jew and Gentile, Protestant and Catholic, black and white, on their merits.

BLOCK 10 'MASS' MEETING

those responsible for Martin's candidacy, naming H. N. Moq and Ed Vanice, "that kind of men," whom he declared were trying to keep prices up and wages down through manipulation of the merchants' cartons.

Emmitt then spoke of Emmitt. He told of his boyhood admiration for one Robert Emmitt, "Irish liberator." He told how this patriot had fought a just fight for the oppressed, hinting that he himself was carrying on an equally just fight. He ended by modestly admitting a distant relationship to the Irish patriot.

Upon returning to his seat, Emmitt, suddenly remembered he had forgotten to mention the league candidate for county judge, E. L. Elliott. He said he felt obligated to Elliott and told of the candidate's "sacrifice" of his law practice "for this particular cause."

Now came Marx. Marx said that "speaking as an attorney, the circuit court situation requires a remedy. We don't want cases lying in court until they become putrid," he shouted. The remedy he proposed was Elliott, whom he appeared to believe was essential to the welfare of Klamath county. He asserted that Elliott should not be censured for his participation in the lawsuit, defending his candidate at some length in this connection.

Fordyce appeared as the next speaker, gaining the gratitude of some present because of his brevity. He declared his program was based on completion of the Hot Springs court house and gave as the reason why this program had not been carried out that a "small body of men" had stood in the way. He gave the league to understand that a determined fight would be made against this annoying obstruction.

Elliott, speaking for himself, ventured the belief that a majority of the people were back of him. He joined with Marx in asserting that the circuit court was in a bad way, saying that every case should be tried in court and not behind closed doors. He believed court should be called not less than twice monthly. He said one should not be compelled to have a certain attorney who was in favor with the court, adding that he believed a majority of the attorneys were with him. Delving into the court house controversy, with frequent reference to the "Hog Combine," he said he had been in the fight from the beginning and was "proud of it."

This ended the league's program. Now appeared J. H. Carnahan, espousing the cause of George A. White for governor. Carnahan blamed most of the other candidates, including the incumbent, for what he termed the present "deplorable condition." He blamed other candidates for injecting the religious issue, declaring that both religion and politics should be kept out of the gubernatorial race.

Carnahan was followed by C. W. Eberlein, the last speaker, who appeared in behalf of G. H. Fithian, republican candidate for national committeeman, opposing Ralph E. Williams, incumbent. Eberlein based his plea for support on the assertion that Williams' 14 years in office had resulted in little benefit.

TRY SULPHUR ON AN ECZEMA SKIN

Cost's Little and Overcomes Trouble Almost Over Night

Any breaking out of the skin, even fiery, itching eczema, can be quickly overcome by applying Mentho-Sulphur, declares a noted skin specialist. Because of its germ destroying properties, this sulphur preparation instantly brings ease from skin irritation, soothes and heals the eczema right up and leaves the skin clear and smooth.

It seldom fails to relieve the torment without delay. Sufferers from skin trouble should obtain a small jar of Mentho-Sulphur from any good druggist and use it like cold cream.—Adv.

TURN HAIR DARK WITH SAGE TEA

If Mixed with Sulphur It Darkens So Naturally Nobody Can Tell

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is grandmother's recipe, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage.

Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the mussy mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product, improved by the addition of other ingredients, called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." It is very popular, because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply moisten your comb or a soft brush with it, and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also produces that soft lustre and appearance of abundance which is so attractive.—Adv.

TAKE SALTS TO FLUSH KIDNEYS

Eat Less Meat If You Feel Backache Or Have Bladder Trouble

Meat forms uric acid which excites and overworks the kidneys in their efforts to filter it from the system. Regular eaters of meat must flush the kidneys occasionally. You must relieve them like you relieve your bowels; removing all the acids, waste and poisons, also you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sour, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment; the channels often get irritated, obliging you to get up two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids and flush off the body's urinous waste get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine and bladder disorders disappear. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys and stop bladder irritation. Jad Salts is inexpensive; harmless and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then, thus avoiding serious kidney and bladder diseases.—Adv.
