

WATSON SOUNDS KEYNOTE OF G. O. P. CAMPAIGN

Efficient Results Claimed for Administration; Democrats Flayed

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., May 25.—Efficient and wise management of the nation's affairs, both domestic and international, and substantial results in relieving "the evils of eight years of democratic misrule," were claimed of the Harding administration in an address here yesterday by Senator Watson, republican, Indiana, before the Indiana republican state convention.

For years it has been the custom of Indiana republicans to have the keynote of the national campaign sounded before them, and Senator Watson's speech, which was discussed in advance with President Harding, will be incorporated in the party literature for the congressional campaign this fall.

Senator Watson praised the executive, legislative and diplomatic record of the present administration and flayed the recent democratic administration as "debt-incurring, deficit-creating, bond-issuing, surplus-scattering, factory-closing, industry-paralyzing, prosperity-destroying, social-upheaving and cat-astroph-producing."

"We are not responsible for all this waste," he declared. "We did not produce all this wreckage. We did not incur these debts. We have not piled up this mountain of obligations and those gentlemen who are responsible for all this riotous orgy of extravagance and all this upsetting of industry and un-settling of financial conditions now stand and leer at us because in 14 months we have not overcome all the evil they produced in eight years."

"We have not yet accomplished all that we have set out to do," he continued. "We have not cured all the ills and corrected all the mistakes and overcome all the evils of eight years of democratic misrule, but certainly we have taken long strides in the right direction, and assuredly if the republican party can not adjust matters, what hope is there in turning to the organization that caused all the disaster in the beginning? Reduction of taxes and appropriations, reorganization of the shipping board, agricultural relief, the tariff bill, and diplomacy of the present administration were emphasized by Senator Watson.

"This administration does not need an apologist," said Senator Watson. "No administration ever before came into power confronting such problems of such complexity and difficulty as those which were inherited by President Harding and the republican congress."

President Harding's call for the arms conference, he declared, "was the largest step toward international peace with justice the world has known in all its history, and the whole world," he said, "applauded the results." The four power treaty, the senator said, brought understanding and assurances for peace.

Declination of the invitation to the Genoa conference also was commended by Mr. Watson, who said it was a political, and not an economic conference.

"The world by this time ought to understand," he continued, "that we do not intend to become involved in their political wrangles and that we

RAILROAD HOLIDAY BELIEVED SOLUTION OF GRAVE PROBLEM

Return to Competition Said to Be Favored by Mellon as Best For Nation

WASHINGTON, May 25.—The declaration of a railroad rate holiday, during which time the railroads could make their own rates without government restrictions, was suggested today as a possible solution of the transportation problem.

Secretary Mellon was represented as favoring the removal of restrictions and a return to the old competitive basis under which he was understood to believe the country had the cheapest and best transportation facilities in its history.

AUTO RACES MAY 30

Four Former Winners to Compete In International Sweepstakes

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., May 2.—Four former winners, eleven drivers who never have piloted a car in a 500-mile race, and 17 others who have tried on numerous occasions for the $10,000 prize money comprise the field scheduled to start in the tenth annual international sweepstakes automobile race at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway May 30.

Tommy Milton, A. A. A. champion in 1921 and winner of last year's 500-mile race, Howard Wilcox, winner in 1919; Ralph DePalma, the victor in 1915 and Jules Goux, who crossed the tape first in 1913, are drivers who have won the big prize and who are scheduled to pilot mounts again this year.

Other star drivers who have entered the 1922 contest include Jimmy Murphy, winner of the 1921 French Grand Prix; W. Douglas Hawkes, of London, England; Roscoe Sarles, who finished second in the local race; Ralph Mulford, Jules Killingsbee, dirt track champion; R. C. Durant, and E. G. (Cannonball) Baker, transcontinental motorcycle and automobile driver. Although an Indianapolis man and a veteran automobile driver, Baker never has participated in a race at the speedway.

For the first time in the history of the local course, a woman has nominated a car to start the race. She is Mrs. Mac Harvey of Los Angeles, Calif. Mrs. Harvey had obtained the services of Jerry Wunderlich to drive her machine, but lost him when he purchased a racer himself. She has not announced who will be at the wheel if her car qualifies. The machine is one of a famous racing make and is said to be fast enough to give real competition.

JITNEY MAN BEATEN

Controversy Said to Have Been Over Matter of Lights on Car

Dave Worden and Eddie Mann are in jail today as a result of an altercation on the Pelican Bay road last night when Bob Endres, a jitney driver, was badly beaten.

While reports are conflicting, the trouble was said to have arisen over the lights on the car driven by Worden and Mann. Endres having stopped his car to expostulate with the others, whose car was standing on the roadside, for not dimming their lights.

Two women passengers were with Worden and Mann. No charges had been filed by Endres today.

OFFICERS LAND 3 MORE I. W. W. IN JAIL CELLS

Large Quantity of Red Literature Taken; Attempt to Organize Seen

Three more I. W. W. organizers landed in jail this morning when Chief of Police Wilson, Sheriff Low, Deputy Ambrose and others conducted a raid on a residence at Fourth and Oak, confiscating a suit case packed with I. W. W. literature and organization paraphernalia. The names on the men's pack sacks were Morris Daily, Adolph Vangness and Leonard Bolton.

The arrests came as a result of four days of watching the men's actions, during which time Deputy Sheriff C. C. Low stayed at the express office where the men had received packages containing I. W. W. literature. When arrested today none of the men offered resistance, but none denied membership in the I. W. W.

Among the pamphlets contained in the suit case were a number purporting to justify the Centralia massacre of ex-servicemen, who were marching in an Armistice day parade. Several of the marchers were killed and later one of the murders was hanged to a railroad trestle. A sketch of a hanging figure is on the cover of the pamphlet.

Among the men's effects were a secret code, based on numbers, and a list of names, supposed to be those of men now employed at various mills. The names were: Ewauna Box company—Oscar Jolly, Jimmy Parker, and Victor O'Neil; Pelican Bay Lumber company—Jack Simpson, J. J. Brown, Wm. Shannon, E. D. Reeves, L. Reed, Wm. Biedleman and W. Ray; Shaw Bertram—Paul Wampler, Tom Smith, J. J. Jeffers, Jud Short (labeled "gunman"), Arnold Hughes, J. Casey, Lou Weiner, Emmett Hinckle and Arthur Keenan; Chilquin Lumber & Box company—Billy Huff, Jack Mennick and Red Morgan.

The notation, "gunman," after Short's name, was due to his being a deputy, Sheriff Low said. That an I. W. W. local has been established here is the belief of Chief Wilson. Notations showing payment of dues from Joe Smith, M. Daly and W. D. McKinzie, a quantity of matter relative to the organization, in general numerous books of by-laws and the constitution and

THREE ARRESTED BY OFFICERS ON LIQUOR CHARGE

Find Made During Arrest of I. W. W. Being Restaurant Proprietors to Grief

Charged with illegal possession of liquor, Emanuel Rivers and Pete Roeko, proprietors of the Savoy cafe, and E. J. Van Horn, were arrested shortly after noon today by Officer McLoughlin, Sheriff Low, Chief Wilson and lodged in the city jail.

The arrest resulted from the officers finding a suit case full of liquor in a house at Fourth and Oak this morning where the three I. W. W. organizers were arrested. Two quarts concealed beneath a mattress were also found.

When the officers entered the cafe, the sheriff said, Van Horn attempted to empty the contents of a bottle but was frustrated.

Rivers was arrested some time ago on a federal liquor charge, which is still pending.

He lived in Klamath county for several years and after leaving always took a great interest in local development.

He was superintendent of the Hollister Water company, a director of the Bank of Italy branch at Hollister and had heavy property interests there.

MEDICOS IN SESSION

Speaker Says Organized Practice Is Spreading Widely

ST. LOUIS, Mo., MAY 2.—That a transition from individual to organized medical practice is spreading widely was asserted here tonight by Dr. George E. de Schweinitz, president of the American medical association, and his presidential address before the opening meeting of the annual session. That reform of the curriculum of the undergraduate medical school is urgently needed, that rural districts are apparently being drained of doctors, and that the public is dissatisfied "with a service which is devoted only to the cure of the maladies and the mending of injuries," were other assertions in the address.

Dr. de Schweinitz called attention to the fact that the association was organized seventy-five years ago and efficiently reorganized 21 years ago, making the occasion a celebration of its diamond jubilee.

RETURN OF GEORGE TO BRITISH HOUSE GREETED BY CHEERS

Premier, Tella Members War Atmosphere Remains, Despite Declaration of Peace

LONDON, May 25.—Loud cheers greeted Lloyd George in the house of commons today when he appeared to discuss foreign policies, especially the Genoa conference.

The premier said that although peace had been established in Europe it was quite clear that a war atmosphere to certain extent remained. He declared it was hopeless for Russia to extricate herself from the pit of squalid misery without assistance. He said leaving Russia to her fate would involve peril such as the Russo-German agreement and expressed the hope that The Hague conference of experts would achieve something.

TELLS HOW TO LIVE

Chautauqua Speaker Will Expose Philosophy of Health

"It isn't healthy to be sick," is the keynote of the philosophy which will be expounded tomorrow afternoon at the Chautauqua by Dr. Lydia Allen De Vilbiss, medical editor of the Better Babies Bureau of the Woman's Home Companion and celebrated New York physician. Her lecture "The Business of Living" is an intelligent plea for a higher standard in national health, brought about through general attention to individual health matters.

The evening performance is held by many to be the biggest feature of the six-day session, consisting of the production of the well-known play "Turn to the Right" by the Keighley Broadway players of New York. It is the story of an erring boy's redemption through the influence of home and mother. While not lacking humor—in fact in ranks as one of America's greatest comedies—the play says the critics is one that one would want his mother, wife or daughter to see.

The big tent was crowded again last night with an audience that showed by their applause appreciation of Private ePat's peace lecture. Glen L. Morris, electrical wizard, played some mystifying tricks with current apparently trained to obey his slightest whim.

The Jugo-Slav Tamburicans will appear at both afternoon and evening performances today.

Today's lecture feature is the address of Arthur Wainwright Evans, nephew of the British premier, Lloyd George, on the international responsibilities of the English speaking people.

Arrangements were made today for heating the tent while the cold weather lasts.

10,000 CATTLE TO BE BROUGHT TO KLAMATH CO.

Cattlemen Plan to Build up Live Stock Industry; Jerseys Imported

In order to build up the livestock industry of Klamath Falls, practically demolished during the war because of excessive prices offered for beef, prominent cattlemen of Klamath county are shipping in 10,000 head of beef cattle to be distributed over a number of ranches.

D. L. McLemore, prominent cattleman of Oakland, California, and C. S. Miller of Roseburg, Oregon, are two of the largest shippers and a number of Klamath county ranchers are included in the deal.

The timber lands of Klamath county offer excellent grazing for cows and sheep, and an effort is being made to build up this industry in order to capitalize on the natural advantages for livestock.

Ed. Casebeer, one of the prominent dairy men of the county recently shipped in 165 thoroughbred Jersey heifers to be distributed over the county to further the interests of the dairy industry, which has been advancing rapidly since the organization of the farm bureau about two years ago. Farmer Smith of the Union Pacific System and Eugene Grubb, a prominent Colorado rancher, have visited the community at the request of the chamber of commerce to interest the farmers in dairying. A cheese factory at Malin and a large creamery at Klamath Falls are furnishing a ready market for the farmers' products.

WU REMAINS ALOOF

Chinese General Takes Charge of Nations at Pan Ting Fu

PEKING, May 25.—General Wu Pei Fu has assumed active direction of the nation's affairs from his headquarters at Pao Ting Fu, capital of Chihli province. He refused to locate in Peking, because he explained, he does not desire to associate himself with the government headed by President Hsu Shih Chang.

He also wants to remain aloof from the Canton government with view to ascertaining the sentiment of the country as to whether the old parliament should be summoned to elect a new president acceptable to both the north and the south, thus eliminating both Hsu Shih Chang and Sun Yat Sen.
