

The Office Cat

BY JUNIUS

"There is both good and bad jazz music," says a former director of music in St. Paul schools. What he means is that there is both good and bad jazz, but you have to have a keen nose to distinguish one from the other.

It takes about two to three hundred years of time, to eliminate the feller that remembers a lot of 'compromisin' stuff about the gay that really became great.

There's been no movie scandal about Ben Turpin yet, but he does look crooked.

"Madame Galli-Curci robbed of $100,000 in Gems." Yes, but it took a mighty slick press agent to put it across!

The wife: "Isn't that your eye doctor?"

The husband: "I thought so until he sent me his bill. He's a skin specialist."

"Do you want a job diggin' potatoes?" asked the farmer.

"Yes, provided it's diggin' 'em out of gravy."

An Iowa man reports finding in his cellar a mouse that sang like a canary bird. He got off easy. The last time I visited a cellar, says Bill Lee, "I saw a green elephant that flew like a humming bird."

Verbal Barrage

"Shall I go over the top?" asked the talkative barber, posing his shears.

"Yes, as soon as your gas attack is over," answered the weary customer.

Everybody is talking about the problems of marketing nowadays. Might there not be a lesson taken from the bees? Just see how they cell their honey.

Nate Otterbein says: Common sense is the most talked of, and least used, of any of the human senses.

Right in Her Line

"Would you convict a man on circumstantial evidence?" they asked the lady juror.

"I would," she replied. "I've convicted my husband that way dozens of times."

Below her bosom—

Her new suit fit her perfectly.

Below her knee—

All that one could see was she.

—PEGGY G.

Getting to the bottom of things the fact is, the discouraged and dissatisfied American farmer is likely to produce some funny cities.

A Cozy Time Was Had

WANTED—Wardrobe large enough to accommodate two persons—Ad in Cleveland News.

I do the very best I know how; the very best I can; and I mean to keep doing so until the end. If the end brings me out all right, what is said against me won't amount to anything. If the end brings me out wrong, ten angels swearing I was right would make no difference.—Abraham Lincoln.

"The baby is crying because he can't pull the fur off your muff, mother. What shall I do?"

"Give him the cat."

I remember, I remember

The house where I was born—

The little window where the sun

Came peeping in at morn

I always loved to see the sun.

I was a rural quince—

And then I moved to Klamath Falls,

and

I haven't seen it since.

MT. LARI AND FAIRVIEW

Con Curtin came in from the sheep camp Friday to visit his ranch. E. M. Dobb made a trip to C. A. Hill's place with some fine seed potatoes a few days ago.

Mr. J. R. Elliott moved his cattle to the agency last week. R. L. Cheyne sold a small bunch of sheep to L. Short a few days ago. J. S. McClellan was surprised to find his yard near the store in flames Tuesday. The fire was extinguished before any damage was done. John Koontz is helping Mr. DeHinger with his potatoes. W. T. Lee was a Fairview caller last week. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sexton were callers in Fairview Friday in the interest of club work. Picnics are the fashion at present. Merrill high school passed through here last week on a picnic and Henley high school students went to Bartlett Springs last Friday for a picnic. There will be a program given on Memorial day at 2 o'clock at Mt. Laki church. Rev. A. L. Rice of Klamath Falls will speak. John Matney had the misfortune to have his house burn Wednesday evening. Although the neighbors rushed to the fire they were unable to save but very little. Mr. and Mrs. Matney were in town at the time.
