

SOCIETY

Because of the Chautauqua being held here this week there are very few social activities. Many of the clubs postponed their meetings and there were few parties given. The weather has been too cold for picnics but several have been planned for next week, among them P. E. O. and the Kedron clubs.

Mrs. John Slater entertained at her home 1731 Huron street, Monday afternoon, in honor of Miss Emily McBrown of Pendleton who is visiting her aunt, Mrs. H. D. Newell. The afternoon was spent in playing auction bridge. Mrs. B. F. Hardenbrook won the prize for high score and Mrs. H. W. Henderson was given the consolation prize. The house was beautifully decorated with flowers in shades of pink. Delightful refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Dunbar and Mrs. Terwilliger. Those present were Mesdames H. D. Loyd Stewart, Leslie Terwilliger, Fred B. Dunbar, F. U. Patrick, Leslie Rogers, Chas. Martin, Thad Stevenson, H. D. Newell, E. D. Lamb, T. C. Campbell, J. S. Elliott, Hardin Carter, Glen Jester, B. The psychology class will not meet Monday evening but will have their next meeting June 5th when Archdeacon Van Waters will be present. It is hoped that a large number will attend for it will be the last meeting of the year.

Mr. and Mrs. Halliwell left at once for Rocky Point where they will spend a few days. Mr. Halliwell has been local manager for the Standard Oil company for the past two years. The bride is a popular member of the younger set here.

Wilton Wadleigh and Helen K. Wirtz, both of Modoc Point, were married at the Christian church parsonage yesterday evening by the Rev. A. B. Bristow. The couple will make their home in Modoc Point where Mr. Wadleigh is employed by the Lamm Lumber company.

The juvenile ensemble, pupils of Harry Boul, assisted by Miss Dorothy Elliott, soprano, and Beatrice Walton, pianist, will give their first concert Tuesday evening, June 6, at the Presbyterian church auditorium. A varied and interesting program will be given which, in addition to the ensemble, numbers will include violin solos by Katherine Walton and Gordon Smith. The program will be announced later. The public is cordially invited.

One lone boy, Walter Hannon, composed the class graduated from the Sacred Heart academy this term, but that did not prevent a class picnic Thursday afternoon. So enthusiastic was the response that met with Hannon's intention of having a class celebration, that it was found necessary to divide the picnic into two groups. On Thursday afternoon 40 of the high school children gathered at the enterprise ranch, where games and refreshments were enjoyed, while afternoon an equal number of the grade children are enjoying a similar good time at the same place. The graduating "class" declares this to be the most successful affair the school has ever held.

SPENDS MILLIONS TO FIND LOST DAUGHTER

Not long ago the parents of a beautiful young country girl were driven distracted when their daughter was kidnapped from their farm not far from this city. Shortly after this the mother died of a broken heart. The only clue to the strange disappearance of the girl was a letter received by the mother which told of a wild plan for revenge but with no name signed to the missive.

Too poor to even give his loved wife a regular burial the father dug her grave in a secluded spot on his farm and, with the irony of fate, while doing so discovered that his land was rich in oil. Thus in the midst of all his sorrow was wealth untold thrust upon him.

Soon he determined how he would use his unexpected wealth and the man determined to spend every penny of it if by so doing he could find his lost child. The postmark on the letter told him that it had come from New York city and he went there. He spent weeks in grooming himself to become a gentleman and put forth every effort to find some trace of his missing girl.

His efforts led him to the dressing room of the favorite star of the "Midnight Revels." This woman at last was able to put him on the right track, the money there was in it for her being a strong incentive as well as the opportunity she saw for revenge. This dancing girl took the man to the home of a well-known millionaire and there he found his precious daughter about to be forced into marriage with a man more than twice her age, as a part of his craftily conceived campaign of hate and revenge.

What happened when the father found his daughter in this awful situation is thrillingly told in the wonderful motion picture masterpiece "Madonnas and Men" which comes to the Strand theatre Sunday. No bigger, greater or better picture from every standpoint has ever been filmed. It thrills, delights, and touches to the very depths every emotion known to mankind. It has rightly been termed "the utmost in photodramas" and should be seen by every man, woman and child who appreciates the best in motion picture entertainment.
