Personal Mention

Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Cozad accompanied by their daughter, Mrs. Phillip S. Pope, left this week for Reno, Nevada, on a vacation trip.

John Driscoll was in town yesterday on one of his infrequent visits from his ranch beyond Ply.

Dr. and Mrs. T. C. Campbell have returned home after an absence of several weeks spent motoring to various interesting points in the northern and western parts of the state.

P. L. Campbell, president of the University of Oregon, and Dr. W. J. Kerr, of the Oregon Agricultural college, arrived last night from their respective colleges and left today for Lakeview, where they will attend a meeting of the Bernard Daley "million dollar fund" board. Both are ex-officio members of the board.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Collier and family returned last night from a vacation trip of two weeks which they passed at the Oregon beaches and in Eugene, where they visited with relatives and friends.

A. R. Wilson and family will leave in the morning for Swan lake, where they will establish a camp for the summer. Mr. Wilson will return to town after the 4th, leaving Mrs. Wilson, Pearl Jean and Bennie at the camp.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Kennedy will arrive here this evening from Rock Island, Illinois, for a visit with Mr.

Kennedy's sister, Mrs. G. T. Porter, and family.

Dan Driscoll, Bill Woods and Jerry McCarthy left this morning for their homes in Langell valley after several days spent here in attendance on the Vinson trial.

Mr. and Mrs. James Bell and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Givans and family, Mrs. E. T. Givans, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Edsall, Mr. and Mrs. Boss Richardson, and Mr. and Mrs. Mike Wallis were among the residents who arrived in town today on their way to Yreka where they are expecting to attend the combined celebration of that city and their own.

S. T. Henshaw, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Prosser arrived here last night from San Francisco and are registered at the White Pelican hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Miles, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Coleman, and Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Hennessy are members of a party from Bend who stopped over here last night on their way to McCloud. The men are all members of a Bend lumber company.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Austin are guests at the White Pelican hotel from Seattle, Washington.

W. A. Allen and W. T. Drury are in the city today from San Francisco. They are registered at the White Pelican hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Magée returned last night from San Francisco and other California points where they have passed a very pleasant month's vacation.

The Rev. E. P. Lawrence accompanied by his daughter, Miss Alma, came in yesterday from Medford. The Rev. Lawrence returned this morning, but Alma will remain for several days as the house guest of Miss Dorothy Delzell.

Will Hill, one of the county's prominent farmers, with a ranch on the Merrill road, was in town this morning attending to matters of business.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Underwood drove over to Ashland and returned yesterday accompanied by Mrs. Underwood's mother, Mrs. H. C. Chamberlin and small daughter, Cecil, who have been visiting for the past few weeks with friends in the Rogue river valley town. They also brought Mrs. Nettie Rogers, of Alameda, California, back with them for a week's visit. Mrs. Rogers is an aunt of Underwood's.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Wilson, accompanied by Mr. Wilson's mother and by Mrs. Knight, are all here visiting with relatives and friends from their homes in Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Hauger and little daughters, Joan and Betty, accompanied by Bob Ryan, left this morning for Tacoma, Washington, where they will visit for the next two weeks with relatives and friends. The trip will be made by car.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Strahorn left this morning after several days spent here looking after business connected with the O. C. & E. railroad, of which Strahorn is president.

STAR THEATRE

She was the most beautiful girl in all the group of islands, and yet no one thought her even fairly attractive, because the standard was black and fat. Half French and half Japanese, with a foster father who never paid her a compliment, and not enough clothes to even occupy her attention for half a day, she spent most of her time dancing, swimming and climbing the tall trees for coconuts. Nimble as a boy, she was strong and growing more beautiful every day.

The natives called her a swinging name meaning White Almond Blossom but her foster father called her Mary, and as Mary the beachcomber knew her when he arrived with his bottle of gin as his only asset, and as Mary the New England college boy knew her when he arrived. They thought she was wonderful, so much so they wished to marry her. Thus Clarine Seymour as Mary becomes a very important figure in the story of "The Idol Dancer." David Wark Griffith's latest First National production now showing at the Star Theatre.

THE STRAND

Marriage, so some claim, is a gamble at best, therefore, it behooves everyone to give serious thought to its many angles before applying for the license. How often do we read, in fact may actually know, of marriages that turned out disastrously because it was a case of fascination and not real love. Most of us, perhaps, have been fascinated by different women at different times. It usually takes some hard blow or sudden loss to test one's feelings toward another. So it is with Jack Hoxie in "Hills of Hate" coming to the Strand theatre tonight.

Jack is in love with a social butterfly who apparently loves him dearly until misfortune in business causes him to lose all his money. Like the butterfly, she immediately flies away. His next adventure is with a girl of the dance hall in the far northwest. Fortune smiles on him there, not in recouping his losses, but bringing a realization she is not the girl for him. Into his life comes a mountain girl, pure and natural as the great outdoors itself. Love comes to them and also the realization of what true love really means.

THE LIBERTY

In these days of carping criticism of motion pictures and everything pertaining thereto, it is gratifying to realize that there is at least one film production in the field in which the most zealous hunter for things to criticize can find not the least fault.

Blushes—there is not one in the entire subject. Crime suggestions—none, unless one who sees the picture feels a strong impulse to do violence to any man or woman caught in the act of abusing his or her aged mother.

In addition to being the reigning screen success for many months in New York city, "Over the Hill" is noted as the most persistent breaker of theatrical traditions that ever located in Broadway. In the first place, the traditional New York screen success in a picture that enlists the services of highly paid screen luminaries, who work amid massive and gorgeous settings in stories that sometimes fail to appeal to our best instincts. In the second place, tradition has held that a play could not, without financial damage, change its theatre in the midst of a successful run. Yet "Over the Hill" has occupied six different Broadway theatres since its premiere a year ago.

"Over the Hill" will open an engagement at the Liberty today.

COPCO PAYS DIVIDEND

$1.75 Per Share Declared on Preferred Capital Stock

At the meeting in San Francisco June 27, the board of directors of the California Oregon Power company declared the regular dividend of $1.75 per share on the preferred capital stock of the company, payable July 25, 1922, to stockholders of record on July 15, 1922. This dividend is for the quarter ending July 15, 1922, and amounts to $38,850. This was announced here today by J. C. Boyle, division manager.

FIFTH FRIDAY SOCIAL

Klamath Lodge No. 137, I. O. O. F., will give another of their enjoyable Fifth Friday social evenings and dances tomorrow evening at its hall at Third and Main streets. Good music has been engaged for the occasion and an entertaining time is promised. These affairs occur in every month in which five Friday's occur, and while the regular session of the lodge is held, business is soon over and the remainder of the evening is given over to the entertainment of friends and visitors.

M. A. Dobbin is a Klamath Falls business visitor here this week from Eugene.
