LIBERTY—TONIGHT

The worst thugs in the wilds of the Transvaal have frequently been the stage drivers, recruited from the floams and jessams of humanity that float to the African shores. One such is impersonated by Wallace Berry, famous screen "bad man" in Priscilla Dean's Universal-Jewel starring vehicle, "Wild Honey," now at the Liberty theatre. Other character parts are played by such well-known artists as Noah Berry, Landers Stevens, Raymond Blathwayt, Carl Stockdale and Harry DeWay.

Liberty—Sunday

Sunday "Sky-High" opens at the Liberty theatre. Tom Mix is the star, and you'll never really know what speed is all you see this Fox picture. A leap across a chasm 2,000 feet deep, a dash through the Grand Canyon of Arizona in an airplane and a drop from the plane into the Colorado river—that's Mix. Don't neglect to be in trim for this picture. You'll need your nerve. Remember! It will be here tomorrow.

THE STRAND

Story book, novel and natural history, since time without memory, have always made it known that bears are famous for the proverbial sweet tooth. Likewise everyone of them have agreed that honey is brim's delight in any country or clime. Good proof of this may be obtained by those who see the big James Oliver Curwood photoplay production, "God's Country and the Law," which comes to the Strand theatre Sunday.

In this picture a big black bear takes the part in the action of the early scenes when in one especially interesting scene he is shown performing a notorious bear's trick of stealing honey from the cabin of a woodsman. The old bear used in this scene, while not a highly trained animal, was the property of a Maine farmer. His master doubted his ability to go through with the scenes when Sidney Olcott, the director, asked for a loan of him. According to the director, the bear performed his task with less rehearsal than any of the human members of the cast.

THE STAR

The greatest talent in the motion picture industry has been enlisted in making "The Lotus Eater," an Associated First National attraction, which will begin an engagement of two days at the Star theatre on Sunday. Here is the evidence: John Barrymore stars in it. Marshall Neilan directed it. Albert Payson Terhune wrote the story.

George Ade wrote the subtitles. Wesley Barry, Colleen Moore, Anna Q. Nilsson, J. Barney Sherry, Ida Waterman and Frank Currier are in the supporting cast.

The tale opens in the Mediterranean where some wonderful scenic shots are shown. Later the action is diverted to New York city and then to Palm Beach.

Finally the principals are transferred to an island in the South Seas populated by persons who have been shipwrecked and tossed upon the little garden spot in the Pacific.

It is a story of tragedy, love, humor, adventure and romance, woven together in such a skilful manner that it reaches the heights of entertainment.

Week days, 8 a. m. to 8 p. m.

Most of Klamath Falls society folk spent the first of the week in the country or at some of the nearby towns where Fourth of July celebrations were held. Very little time, therefore, was devoted to actual entertaining. There were a few picnics, however, and several affairs for out-of-town guests who are visiting here and at Pelican City.

The Luncheon Camp Fire girls spent a very pleasant week at Spring Creek under the chaperonage of the Rev. and Mrs. Arthur Rice. The girls who went on this trip were Evelyn Amick, Joan Thompson, Elvira Call, Marie Lewis, Marlene Reid, Jennie Melzell, Margaret Cummings, Thelma Grizzle, Ruth Klingenberg, Lydia Von Bergendorff and Mildred Rideout. The young ladies, as a club, wish to thank their many friends who made the wonderful trip to Spring Creek possible.

Another activity of the club was the shower given the week before for Miss Fannie Virgil, now Mrs. Eldon Dennis, who up until the time of her marriage, was the assistant guardian for Luncheon.

Mrs. C. M. Ramsby and daughter, Miss Elizabeth, accompanied by Miss Alice Miller, who is spending the summer months here visiting her father, J. J. Miller, from Berkeley, California, are at Rocky Point for a week's outing.

The Ladies' Elks club will not meet on Tuesday as previously announced, but has been postponed until July 18. The delay was caused by the death of Dudley L. Hamilton, who is the brother of Mrs. C. I. Reckard, secretary of the club.

Thursday of this week Mesdames E. L. Elliott, Leslie Terwilliger, H. D. L. Stewart and Jack Furber spent the day at Spring Creek as guests of D. B. Campbell and Mrs. Fred Daubar.

Mrs. E. S. Elliott chaperoned a party of young people to Crater Lake on Tuesday. They were Misses Lucille Harlan, Grete Madison, Grace Elliott, Rex LaPrarie, Jack Lindman and Lot Beatie.

Another picnic of interest will be the one on Sunday for the members of the Happy Hour Sewing Club, which will meet with Mrs. Curtis Hedrick at Chiloquin.

Mrs. A. D. Pierce and Miss Olive Pierce, of Rhode Island, and Miss Marjorie Cutting, of San Francisco, were the inspiration for a delightful bridge party yesterday, for which Mrs. Leslie Rogers was the charming hostess. The eastern guests are visiting Mrs. E. H. Pike and Miss Cutting is the house guest of Mrs. H. W. Bridgford. The house was beautifully decorated in roses and purple cloths and ferns. At the close of the bridge games dainty refreshments were served by the hostess. Prizes went to Mrs. Peter Albertson and Miss Marjorie Cutting. The guests were: Mesdames E. B. Hall, W. E. Lamm, H. D. Mortenson, Mary Moore, Charles L. Moore, E. H. Pike, Forest Piel, H. Hibbert, Alice Hibbert, H. W. Bridgford, H. D. Newell, A. D. Pierce and Misses Olive Pierce and Marjorie Cutting.

Friday of last week Mrs. Sidney Abbott and Miss Elizabeth Sullivan entertained for Mr. and Mrs. Alfred D. Severance of San Francisco, who were here as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Jones. Those who enjoyed the evening at cards were: Mr. and Mrs. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Crump, Mr. and Mrs. Severance, Mr. and Mrs. Abbott and Miss Sullivan.
