

The Office Cat

BY JUNIUS

Somebody Is Always— Old Hiram Kellar, he went to the cellar. To get a wee nip on the sly. At the foot of the stair he found his wife there— And didn't she give him the eye?

Up to Him

He: A kiss in the language of love. She: Why don't you say something.

T. A. Stevenson says the trouble with most of us is that our past is too near and our future too far away.

We can't understand how that bank in Germany failed for 305,000,000 marks. Some accident in the press room, probably.

His Sacrifice

"It's got so that some fellows will do almost anything to get a motor car," peevishly declared the grunt Missourian. "The Shook swapped five of his best hounds yesterday for a second hand Ford."

Mary Papa, did Jack ask you for my hand last night? Dad Why, no, Jack talked quite sensibly all evening.

But Pass the Collection Box First We will stand and sing, "My Father Was a Confederate Soldier" 'Til He Wore a Union Suit."

You Said a Mouthful

"Very distinguished, isn't he? But, if you know, I think I noticed a little garlic about him." "My dear young lady, there's no such thing as a little garlic."

MEN WANTED! For service as Railroad Machinists, Boilermakers, Blacksmiths, Electricians, Sheet Metal Workers, Pipe Fitters, Copper Smiths, Car Repairers, Tinner, Car Inspectors, Helpers—all classes. Under strike conditions best explained by Chairman Ben W. Hooper of the U. S. R. Labor Board, in his statement of July First reading as follows:

In this case the conflict is not between the employer and the oppressed employees. The people of this country, through an act of congress signed by President Wilson established a tribunal to decide conditions which are submitted to it in a proper manner over such dispute. It is the decisions of this tribunal against which the shop crafts are striking. Regardless of any question of the right of men to strike the men who take strikers places are merely accepting wages and working conditions prescribed by a government tribunal and are performing a public service. They are not accepting the wages and working conditions which an employer is trying to impose. For this reason public sentiment and full government power will protect the men who remain in their positions and new men who may come in. Adequate provisions have been made for the full protection of all new employees the same as old employees who have remained loyally at work. Applicants should apply to the office of the Superintendent at Portland Union Station, or to the assistant Superintendent at Roseburg. J. H. DYER, Gen. Mgr. Southern Pacific. 12-Jy 5-6
