that they were working upon a strike job, they asked to be delivered to police officers for "holding" or be freed.

One man escaped and reported the matter to union officials here. They immediately sought the aid of state authorities in taking action against the railroad company.

Five trains of approximately 25 cars each, all laden with fruit, have gone out of the Roseville yards today.

vention. Lumber men were blamed for wasting timber resources, he said, but they operated for the service of the nation. Fire caused needless loss, amounting thousands of dollars worth of timber without benefit to anyone. Reforestation research is making strides, he asserted, and it is possible that the forests may be maintained indefinitely at the existing rate of manufacture by conservation and replanting.

Other Problems Discussed

The movement for a city band was discussed by A. L. Wishard. He urged everybody to lend their support to maintaining a band, declaring that if the movement failed this time it would be dropped as far as the band members are concerned.

Arthur Wilson, R. H. Dunbar and Dr. A. A. Soul, spoke in favor of the county public health association and urged all to take out memberships. The dues are fifty cents yearly. The money is used in the work carried on by the county nurse. While her salary is paid by the county, some extra expenses are incurred that need attention until the county budget is revised.

Here's orchestra played several selections and a quartet composed of W. A. West, Dr. Mallett, W. W. Southwell and R. E. Patterson sang a couple of numbers. E. B. Hall gave a brief resume of the forum since the reorganization of the chamber of commerce, mentioning the growth from the initial luncheon 150 years ago with 17 persons present to gatherings of upwards of 100 that are now frequent.
