

Personal Mention

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Webber arrived here last night from Lakeview and left on the morning train for Grants Pass, where they will visit for several weeks.

Mrs. Dorothy Luce is expecting to leave Monday for Lava Hot Springs, Nevada, where she will visit with her mother for an indefinite time.

Mrs. Helen Curry and brother, Tom McDonald, have returned from San Francisco, where they went for the funeral of Joe McDonald.

D. V. Kuykendall and family are arranging for a trip to the coast and expect to leave some time Sunday by car for Crescent City.

J. J. Furber returned last night from the Lake o' the Woods, where he took his family and settled them in their summer camp. They expect to stay until berry time if all goes well.

Rev. R. T. Cookingham, missionary to the Klamath Indians, was in town yesterday attending to business affairs from Williamson river bridge.

"We have traveled to Klamath Falls over the Canadian Pacific route, and visited at Lake Louise and British Columbia, besides many other interesting places, but none of them surpass in beauty the view from Look-Out point on the Algonia road, right here in Klamath county," said Mrs. Grace Schyver just before she boarded the train this morning to continue her trip south. She is traveling with her daughter, Miss Florence, and they have been here as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fleet for the past few days, from their home in Chicago.

Estelle Marias, Threse Marias, Mrs. M. Seipie and Miss Marjorie Seipie are all registered from Portland at the White Pelican hotel today. They are touring the country in search of the interesting scenic spots of their state.

Sidney Smythe, in charge of work for the Warren Construction company, arrived last night from Oakland, California, and will be here to superintend paving operations.

Jack Wolfe, assistant manager for the Standard Oil company, left this morning for San Francisco and Oakland on a two weeks' vacation trip.

R. C. Cook has returned from Eagle Ridge where he reports he had some of the finest fishing of his experience. He also brought back a great number of new views of Upper Klamath lake and the surrounding country.

J. J. Miller, Dr. L. D. Gass, V. V. Hedgepath and F. L. Holmes, traveling auditor for the Southern Pacific railroad company, are planning a fishing trip for tomorrow.

D. M. McLemore was a passenger on the outgoing train this morning booked for Oakland, California.

Mrs. J. J. Steiger left this morning for the south after a brief visit here with friends and relatives.

Mrs. V. J. Daley, who recently moved to Kirk, came in on the train this morning expecting to spend the week-end here.

Lyle Mills came in on the morning train from Chiloquin where he has been spending several days attending to business affairs.

D. E. Loosley is a visitor here from Portland. He is registered at the White Pelican hotel.

Boyd Yaden, aged 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lynn D. Yaden of Portland, arrived here last night to spend the summer with his grandparents, Dr. and Mrs. E. J. Boyd. Boyd Yaden was born in Klamath Falls and his parents have many warm friends here.

J. A. Gordon T. A. Stevenson and others formed a motor party bound for Lake o' the Woods this afternoon.

Mrs. H. D. L. Stewart left today for Spring creek on an extended camping trip.

Miss Myrtle Hayford is a charming California girl, who is the house guest of Mrs. Irving H. Hibbert of Pelican city. Miss Hayford's home is in Berkeley.

M. L. Johnson, deputy county assessor, has returned from several days spent in the Sugar Pine mountain region in the northern part of the county where he was engaged on official business.

F. P. Keen is back in the pine beetle control offices today after a week spent on the reservation getting camps established for the location of the infested areas.

Mrs. C. E. Bowman is in town today from her home at Chiloquin attending to business and making purchases.

Mrs. Price McCormack is a county seat visitor from her home at Keosauqua this week-end. She is a guest at the home of her sister, Mrs. Jennie Hurs.

John F. Hoesig of Fort Klamath is spending a couple of days here on school board matters.

W. L. Frane, who operates a ranch near Topsy Grade, drove into town this morning and made purchases from local merchants.

R. E. Bradbury is attending to business affairs here today from his ranch in the valley south of town.

Anton Petrask of Malin is a county seat business visitor this week-end.

C. J. McCollum is in the city today from his ranch near Worden looking after business matters.

Lewis Alt was a passenger on the boat bound for Odessa this morning, where he will spend several days looking after his ranch lands in that section.

John Utter, a prominent Fort Klamath stockman, left this morning for the Wood river valley after several days spent in Klamath Falls.

THE STAR

A scene with the much-sought punch was the fray between Wallace Reid and Mofatgu Love in the Paramount picture "Forever," starring Elsie Ferguson and Wallace Reid, when the two meet in the stage dressing room of Dolores, the Spanish dancer, played by Dolores Cas-sinelli. "Forever" will be shown at the Star theatre tonight. It is a George Fitzmaurice production.

Sunday afternoon and evening Norma Talmadge will appear on the screen at the Star, and if ever Constance Talmadge has a dangerous competitor for premier place as a screen comedienne it will be her sister Norma, in the same sort of a story as "The Wonderful Thing," the Associated National pictures production in which she is starring as the current attraction at the Star theatre. In the first three reels of "The Wonderful Thing" Norma is delightfully amusing, and then in the last two she has a part more characteristic in the emotional acting which no one can do quite as well as she.

Conway Tearle who is now starring in his own productions, and has for years been one of the screen's most popular leading men.

Jobyna Howland, who gained fame through her work for a whole season in "The Little Journey," and Hazard Short, who appeared with Fay Bainter in her great Broadway success, "East Is West," play a comedy pair in "The Way of a Woman" which gained them world-wide recognition.

Sunday—Clara Kimball Young in "The Claw."

THE STRAND

Among the outstanding features of "The Way of a Woman," the picture starring Norma Talmadge, which comes to the Strand theatre for the last time tonight, is the truly remarkable cast which supports the famous movie queen. It is an aggregation of players, some of whom are stars in their own right, and are known the world over, who has a delightful role, and plays it in a manner which she has attained today. Miss Talmadge's leading man is McCullough a decorative and convincing lounge lizard. The photography is by Arthur Martinelli and the art direction by A. F. Mantz.

"A Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur's Court," in film form, is showing at the Liberty theatre tonight as a special attraction. "A Connecticut Yankee" is the modern Don Quixote. It has done more than any other book or play to prove that men are as chivalrous today as they were in the days "when knights were held."

THE LIBERTY

Not even forgetting "The Right of Way," it is hard to recall a Bert Lytell picture in which the star has been seen to such advantage as in "The Right That Failed," his new Vayard Veiller production, which shows Sunday at the Liberty theatre. The story, by J. P. Marquand, adapted to the screen by Lenore Coffee, is a smash-bang tale of the prize ring, full of fresh observation and characters that are new to screen-dom.

Mr. Lytell plays with debonair charm as the "highbrow" prize ring hero; Virginia Valli brings beauty and distinction to the role of the society girl engaged in an unconventional courtship; Otis Harlan, the rotund veteran of the Charles Hoyt farces, is a rollicking tippler of the old school; De Witt Jennings is distinguished and courtly as the heroine's father; Max Davidson is a joyous "lowbrow" champion, and Philo McCollough a decorative and convincing lounge lizard. The photography is by Arthur Martinelli and the art direction by A. F. Mantz.

"A Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur's Court," in film form, is showing at the Liberty theatre tonight as a special attraction. "A Connecticut Yankee" is the modern Don Quixote. It has done more than any other book or play to prove that men are as chivalrous today as they were in the days "when knights were held."

THE STRAND

The Kempson picture which will be shown at The Strand all day and evening Sunday is entitled "The Claw" and is based on Cynthia Stockley's widely read novel of the same name.

The story is one of Cynthia Stockley's masterful novels of African life, and concerns a girl who on being told that her sweetheart is already married, breaks her engagement just as the sweetheart is ordered to quell an uprising of natives. Soon he is reported killed and the girl is on the point of marrying another when she not only learns that he is not dead, but the story of his former marriage is false. In the end they are reunited.

See it at The Strand tomorrow.

Klamath Falls is remarkable for its nice stores, and especially drug stores. We have nothing nicer than your store in our town. This is what a lady from Palo Alto, California said to us. Curran's for drugs.

ALWAYS IMPOSING
"He's such an imposing man!"
"Always so, but on whom was he imposing when you saw him, may I ask?"

MAKING MATTERS SMOOTH
"Don't—This is a pretty rough letter I've just received—file it, John."
"Clark—Perhaps it would smooth matters more if I sandpapered it, sir."

SUNDAY AT THE STRAND
10c—WHEN EVERYBODY GOES—20c
HOME OF THE HODKINSON FEATURES

Kempson Picture Corporation presents
Clara Kimball Young in
"The Claw"

Clara Kimball Young is a remarkable story of the African Veldt. See how true love conquers jealousy in "The Claw." See this wonderful exposition of "Beauty and the Beast"—Clara Kimball Young and her lion, tiger and elephant admirers of the African jungle.

Admission 10c and 20c Show Starts at 6:30

Special Round Trip VACATION RATES
To Various Resorts
KLAMATH FALLS TO

	15-day tkt. on sale Fri. and Sat.	3-mo. tkt. on sale daily
San Francisco	$17.75	$21.25
Oakland	17.50	21.00
Los Angeles via Stockton	33.25	40.00
Long Beach via Stockton	34.25	41.00
Santa Cruz	21.50	25.75
Portland	21.75	26.00
Monterey	22.75	27.50
Pacific Grove via S. F.	22.75	27.50
Paso Robles via S. F.	26.00	31.75
Monterey via S. F.	22.75	27.50
Truckee	19.75	23.75

Proportionately low fares to many other points.
Last Sale Date September 30th.
Return Limit October 31st.
TRAVEL COMFORTABLY BY RAIL
Easy riding coaches.
Smooth road-bed
Convenient schedules
All travel comforts
Service, rain or shine

For full particulars, call on
J. J. MILLER, Agent
Southern Pacific Lines

Oh,
Boy!
He's Happy

WOOD
Is Cheaper Than Last Year
BLOCK WOOD
Ten Loads $50.00
GREEN SLABS
Ten Cords $35.00
16-inch Body and Tamarack at Bargain Prices
Consult us before buying your winter wood. We buy and sell in large quantities with small profits.

O. PEYTON & CO.
419 Main St. Phone 535

Work MORE -earn MORE!

A Frank Talk With the Workers of Klamath Falls

There is hardly any need to call your attention to the many difficulties our business firms have to face—
—the problem of bringing down prices
—the hardships of slow collections
—the task of taking care of their organization
—the strenuous fight for business.

The thing to do is HELP THEM with your enthusiastic cooperation—NOT to hinder them and add to their troubles with INDIFFERENCE, CARELESSNESS and SHIRKING ON YOUR JOB.

We believe that home-building is the cornerstone of prosperity. We must, therefore, stand shoulder to shoulder in the development of the community spirit. We must realize that we most truly help ourselves when we help our neighbors.

Let us compete in service. This is the truest co-operation. Let us but emulate, not envy. Let us build up, not tear down. Let us take pride in our calling. Let us be boosters.

REMEMBER—your success depends upon the success of the firm you work for. If your concern should go out of business, you'd be out of a job—and jobs as good as yours are SCARCE!

IF YOU ARE A SALESMAN OR A SALESWOMAN—put every ounce of headwork into selling more. THINK HARD, and you'll find the answer to the difficulties you thought insurmountable!

IF YOU DO CLERICAL WORK—Concentrate on the job—let greater CAREFULNESS do away with the mistakes which cost the firm DOLLARS TO MAKE GOOD.

IF YOU DO MECHANICAL WORK—SPEED UP the quantity of your production, and keep up the quality. You'll reap your REWARD, DON'T WORRY.

FOR THE SAKE OF KLAMATH FALLS' PROSPERITY, BUY NOW— BUILD NOW—WORK MORE—EARN MORE

KLAMATH FALLS FIRST

Help Your Own City & You Help Yourself

This space paid for by the business men of Klamath Falls for the benefit of the community.