She Didn't Understand Diner at the Rainbow—"Miss, may I have a spoon?" "Not with me," said the pretty waitress. "I'm busy."

W. Ganong says every man's relatives expect more of him than he expects of himself.

Phyllis—"I told dad that Robert was the mark of all my affection." Clarice—"And what did dad do then?" Phyllis—"He toed the mark."

Jazz

A slam, a ban, a shriek, a crash, A roar, a rolling rumble, A bare, a tear, a rip, a smash A screech, a growl, a grumble A beat, a blatt, a snort, a puff And a wail as gruesome as The Banshee's howl—Yes! that's the stuff That's served to us in jazz.

A twist, a smile, a hug, a smirk, A swing, a sway, a shiver, A whirl, a wobble and a jerk A walk, a slide, a quiver, A squeeze, a stamp, a rush, a thump A strangle hold, a break, a bump, These go with jazz as dancing!

Rufus Moore says he thinks that any man is to be congratulated whose neck is so long he can shave with his collar on.

Just because a man plays golf on Sunday when the wife is at church, is no reason to believe that the man's the boss of the household.
