THE STAR A model Goldwyn cast will be seen in the new Mary Roberts Rinehart picture, "The Glorious Fool," which will be presented at the Star theatre tonight. It is a hospital story, in which Helen Chadwick plays the part of a probationer. Her patient is the charming Richard Dix, who has made pronounced success in his recent Goldwyn pictures. Otto Hoffman, one of the best character actors on the screen today, plays the part of "dummy," a deaf and dumb orderly whose interference in the romance between the probationer and her patient leads to a happy conclusion. 19-20

THE LIBERTY You know what to expect in a Zane Grey story. You know that his stories are crammed with the most striking kind of action—that there is plenty of crackling suspense, that the characterization is unique—that there are any number of startling incidents. The Fox feature, "The Last Trial," which comes to the Liberty theatre today is adapted from Zane Grey's dramatic dramatic novel of the same name. It is a smashing, crashing picture filled with tense scenes and dramatic climaxes. Don't forget that the biggest scene in this super-special is the bursting of the great concrete dam and the destruction of a distant village as a result. This picture is packed with so many thrills that you cannot count them. Final showing tonight.

THE STRAND G. M. Anderson, known to film fans throughout the country for his work in the character of "Broncho Billy," has been broked as the headline attraction at the Strand theatre tonight, in "The Son-of-a-Gun," the second of his new five-reel "Western Classics."

With a story founded upon an actual incident in the life of a well-known character of the southwest of pioneer days, adapted to the screen by men thoroughly familiar with the west of those days and produced by a staff of men headed by Jesse J. Robbins, producer of the well-known "Broncho Billy" releases, this should prove one of the most popular subjects in which Mr. Anderson has ever appeared.

HAVE DARK HAIR AND LOOK YOUNG

Nobody Can Tell When You Darken Gray, Faded Hair With Sage Tea

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and attractive with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied, with wonderful effect. By looking at any drug store or "Woolly's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will not a large bottle of this old-time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, all ready to use, at very little cost. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says everybody uses "Woolly's Sage and Sulphur Compound" now because it darkens so naturally, and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. It's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through the hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color, and looks glossy, soft and beautiful.—Adv.

keep friction where it belongs. Friction consumes power and develops heat and wear. Sometimes friction is utilized. In the automobile the friction of the clutch transmits the power of the engine to the rear or driving wheels, the friction of the tires and the road surface propels the machine, and the friction of the brakes stops the car. Friction should be confined to the parts named (the clutch, the tires and the brakes), if possible. Lubricating oil used in the automobile to prevent friction between all moving parts in direct contact has friction within itself. This friction has to be overcome by and uses up engine power. The heavier the oil the more its internal friction, the less power it leaves for useful work. Increasing Power, Speed and Gasoline Mileage. It may be proved that as much as 20% of the power at the driving wheels may be lost through the use of an incorrect oil. The ideal oil is the thinnest oil which will keep the bearing surfaces separated and at the same time offer in itself the least frictional resistance to the engine power going to the driving wheels. In addition, this oil must have stability to resist engine heat, and it must be pure. Zerolene meets the conditions perfectly. Made from selected crudes by our own patented high-vacuum process, it has great "oiliness," which causes it to cling to bearing surfaces while offering in itself a minimum of frictional resistance to the engine power; it has great stability to resist engine heat, and it is pure. Zerolene reduces friction, and permits the development of the maximum power, speed and gasoline mileage of the car. Board of Lubrication Engineers. A New Tread—a Lower Price Reliable Goodyear Quality. Here is a new Goodyear Cord Tire—a big, sturdy, long-wearing tire—that sells at a price lower than you are asked to pay for many "long discount" tires of unknown value. It has a different tread from the famous Goodyear All-Weather Tread Cord—a new tread with a deep, clean-cut, cog-like pattern—and it sells for from 20 to 25% less. It has in it the same high-grade long-staple cotton, the same Goodyear patented group-ply construction, the same liberally oversized dimensions. When you buy the 4 1/2-inch size, for example, you get a tire whose actual measurement is nearly 5 inches. Don't confuse this Goodyear Cross-Rib Tread Cord with other popular-price cords which sell at the same price or for slightly more. In many cases, these other cords are made of inferior materials, with short-staple cotton as a foundation. Get the tire that is good enough to carry the Goodyear name, that is built to safeguard the world-wide Goodyear reputation. All of the Goodyear Service Station Dealers listed here have the Goodyear Cross-Rib Tread Cord, as well as the famous All-Weather Tread Cord, ready for you now.
